 śrī-rādhā-kṛṣṇa-pādān saha-gaṇa-lalitā-śrī-viśākhānvitāṁś cha

Śrīla Krishnadās Kavirāj prays, “First I offer my respects unto the lotus feet of my initiating spiritual masters and the recruiting spiritual masters and advanced Vaiṣṇavas. Next I offer my obeisances to my sāstra gurus, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, his elder brother, Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī, Śrīla Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, and Śrīla Jīva Goswāmī. On a higher platform I offer my respects unto Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, who came with His paraphernalia and associates, along with those great personalities Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu and Śrī Advaita Āchāryya. And in the highest stage, I offer my obeisances unto the lotus feet of Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Govinda, and all of the gopīs, headed by Lalitā devī and Viśākhā devī.”

oṁ ajñāna-timirāndhasya jñānāñjana-śalākayā chakṣur unmilitāṁ yena tasmai śrī-gurave namah

Applying the soothing salve of sambandha-jñāna, a proper acquaintance with the environment, my spiritual master has opened my inner eye and thereby rescued me from the darkness of ignorance, fulfilling my life’s aspirations. I offer my respects unto Śrī Gurudeva.

“His Guru’s most cherished wishes, he’s truly fulfilling, Adorned with his guru-varga’s affectionate blessing.
 In knowledge both conceivable and inconceivable,
 His expertise illuminates the ontological whole.

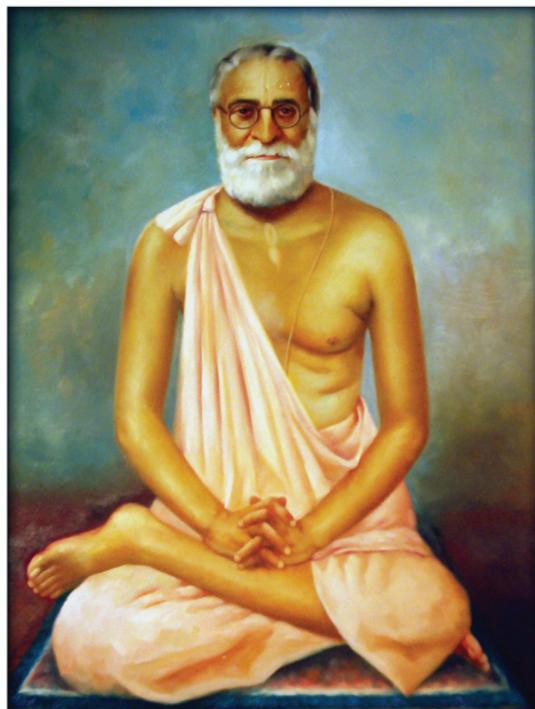

He’s the foremost follower of Śrī Rūpa’s divine aim, Śrī Bhakti Sundar Govinda is his celebrated name.
 His beautiful figure stands out, clean, clear and effulgent, Devotionally endowed with transcendent sentiment.
 I worship him, the world-wide guru from high above,
 The empowered bestower of the seed of Divine Love.”

“I fall at the feet of Śrīla Śrīdhar-Deva, who with charming expression sings his songs of sweet nectar.
 Dressed with fine garments like sun newly-risen, he’s the true saint the devotees have chosen.
 His detachment and knowledge are just like an ocean, the treasure-house of complete, perfect conclusion.
 Radiant in Pastimes of loving devotion, the abode of pure ecstasy, bestower of good fortune;
 foremost true follower of Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta, foremost great general of the whole renounced order, my lord and my master, my only shelter,
 I worship his feet, Śrīla Śrīdhar-Deva.”

“In the great Gaudīya Vaiṣṇava teachers’ line, as Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī he’s renowned.
 Like the radiant sun in the morning sky, he appeared to rescue all souls swallowed by the all-devouring impersonal philosophy.
 By spreading the teachings of Lord Gaurāṅga to sing the Holy Name of Lord Śrī Krishna, he gave all the chance to dive in the ocean of love of Śrī Krishna, the Supreme Person.
 Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta, my lord, divine master—at his feet do I pray to serve him forever.”

“The great venerable Grandsire of pure devotion, loved by all Vaiṣṇavas of both Nabadwīp and Vṛndāvan—
 I worship the feet of that great Vaiṣṇava Guru, the ocean of love, Śrīla Jagannāth Prabhu.”

vāñchā-kalpatarubhyas' cha kṛpā-sindhubhya eva cha

I bow down unto the holy feet of the pure Vaiṣṇavas, who are like desire trees able to fulfil all the devotees' aspirations. The Lord's devotees are comparable to a vast ocean of causeless mercy, as they deliver the fallen souls from material existence. I offer all respects unto them.

I offer my obeisances unto Lord Krishna in His five-fold aspect known as the pañcha-tattva: I offer my respects unto Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who appears as a devotee of the Lord relishing His own internal mellows. Furthermore I bow down before Lord Nityānanda Prabhu, who is the self-same form and elder brother of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Next, I pay homage unto that great personality Śrī Advaita Prabhu, who is an incarnation of the Lord's devotee, and unto the Lord's eternal associates like Śrīvās Paṇḍit, who serve the Lord in loving devotional relationships. Finally, I bow down at the feet of those devotees who hold the actual potency of unalloyed dedication in their hands: Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya, Śrī Gadādhara Paṇḍit, and Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar.

namo mahā-vadānyāya kṛṣṇa-prema-pradāya te kṛṣṇāya kṛṣṇa-chaitanyanāmne gaura-tviṣe namaḥ

I offer my obeisances unto Lord Gaurāṅga, whose divine complexion is a radiant golden hue and who possesses the qualities of the most benevolent incarnation. His spiritual Pastimes freely grant pure love for Lord Krishna to all. He is none other than Lord Krishna known in the age of Kali as Śrī Krishna Chaitanya.

I constantly meditate upon that Divine Couple Śrī Śrī Gandharvvā-Govinda, who are seated upon a wonderful throne highly decorated with brilliant jewels. They are sitting within the illustrious forest of Braja, beneath a mind-attracting desire tree, accompanied by Their dedicated servitors such as Śrī Lalitā Devī, Śrī Rūpa Mañjarī and other intimate servants like the priyanarma sakhīs.

O Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Madana-mohan, I am a helpless cripple and my meagre intelligence is absorbed in the vile material sense objects. Kindly let deep devotional attachment arise for the exclusive wealth of my life which is Your lotus feet. May Your Lordships, who are so compassionate and affectionate, be forever victorious!

Śrī Gopināth, who instigates the exchange of devotional mellites, is standing upon the banks of the Jamunā River at the special place known as Vamśīvaṭa. There, the sweet tune of His flute is naturally attracting the hearts of the cowherd maidens of Braja Dhām. May that charming Lord bring us within His auspicious embrace.

I eternally offer my respects unto Śrī Vṛndādevī, Śrīmatī Tulasī Mahārāṇī, who is the dearmost object of Lord Keśava's affection. I bow down before Satyavatī who can bestow pure dedication unto Lord Krishna.

atha natvā mantra-gurūn gurūn bhāgavatārthadān vyāsān jagat-gurūn natvā

Then, let me bow down before all my spiritual masters: the guru who gave me the divine mantra, as well as all those who have taught me the meaning of Śrimad Bhāgavatam. Let me offer my respectful obeisances unto Śrīla Vyāsadeva, the spiritual master of the entire universe and the giver of the all-conquering conclusions of Śrimad Bhāgavatam.

jayah sa-parikara śrī-śrī-guru-gaurāṅga-gāndharvvā-

Let the holy lotus feet of Śrī Gurudeva, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, and Śrī Śrī Gāndharvvā-Govindasundar, along with Their eternal associates, be victorious over all!

Prayers to the Vaiṣṇavas

sakala vaiṣṇava-pade mora namaskāra ithe kichu aparādha nahuka āmāra hoiyachen hoiben prabhur jato bhakta jan

“I respectfully bow to the lotus feet of all the Vaiṣṇavas, praying that there is no offence in my attempt to please them. To all Vaiṣṇavas who have been, and all Vaiṣṇavas who shall be, I offer my obeisances to their lotus feet.”

Nabadwīp,

Pañcha-tattva mantra

śrī-kṛṣṇa-chaitanya prabhu nityānanda śrī-advaita gadādhara śrīvāsādi-gaura-bhakta-vṛnda

There are ten offences in the chanting of the Hare Krishna mahā-mantra, but these are not considered in the chanting of the Pañcha-tattva mantra. Śri Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is the most magnanimous incarnation, for He does not consider the offences of the fallen souls. Thus to derive the full benefit of the chanting of the mahā-mantra, we must first take shelter of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu and his associates, the Pañcha-tattva, who are the bestowers of the Hare Krishna mahā-mantra.

Hare Krishna mahā-mantra

hare kṛṣṇa hare kṛṣṇa kṛṣṇa kṛṣṇa hare hare hare rāma hare rāma rāma rāma hare hare

Illumination by Śrīla Śrīdhar Mahārāj

In the Name of Rāma within the Hare Krishna mantra, the Gaudīya Vaiṣṇavas will find Rādhā-ramaṇa Rāma. That means, “Krishna, who gives pleasure (raman) to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.” In our conception, the Hare Krishna mantra is wholesale Krishna consciousness, not Rāma (Lord Rāmachandra) consciousness. Śrī Chaitanya’s highest conception of things is always svayam bhagavān, Krishna-līlā, Rādhā-Govinda-līlā. That is the real purpose of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu’s advent and teachings.

In that consideration, the Hare Krishna mantra does not mention the Rāma-līlā of Āyodhya at all. There is no connection with that in the highest conception of the Hare Krishna mantra. ...The inner conception of the mantra is responsible for our spiritual attainment... The inner conception of the devotee will guide them to their destination.

The Ten Offences to the Holy Name

Bengali poem composed by

Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

hari-nāma mahāmantra sarvva-mantra-sāra jādera koruṇābale jagate prachāra sei nāma-parāyaṇ sādhu, mahājana tāhādera nindā nā koriho kadāchana

Hare Krishna Mahāmantra— of all mantras the best, Throughout the world is preached by saints' potent grace behest;

Such saints to the Name devoted, such pure souls great:
Never dare offend them— never show them hate.

vrajendranandana krṣṇa sarveśvareśvara maheśvara ādi tāra sevana-tatpara nāma chintāmaṇi krṣṇa-chaitanya-svarūpa bheda-jñāna nā koribe līlā-guṇa-rūpa

Lord Krishna, son of Nanda, of all lords the Leader—
The great Shiva and all the gods serve His feet forever;
The touchstone of the Name is Krishna incarnate—
His Pastimes, nature, form, also think not separate.

“guru krṣṇa-rūpa hon śāstrera pramāṇe guru-rūpe krṣṇa kṛpā kore bhāgyavāne” se gurute martya-buddhi avajñādi tyagi iṣṭa-lābha koro, nirantara nāma bhaji

“Guru's a form of Krishna— the Scriptures corroborate;
In the form of Guru, Krishna blesses the fortunate.”
Never offend that Guru by thinking him mere mortal; Gain your highest objective—serve the Name for time eternal.

śruti, śruti-mātā-saha sātvata-purāṇa śrī-nāma-charaṇa-padma kore nīrājana sei śruti śāstra jebā koroye nindana se aparadhiṇa saṅga koribe varjjana

24      The Vedas with Mother Gāyatrī and Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam Illuminate the lotus feet of Śrī Hari's Name; Whoever vilifies those Holy Vedic Scriptures—Never keep their company, know them as offenders.

nāmera mahimā sarvva-śāstrete vākhāne je nāma-mahimā-gāthā saṅkirttana-rata se nāma-mahimā-sindhu ke pāibe pāra atistuti bole jei—sei durāchāra

The glories of the Name— all Scriptures' exaltation; Dare not think their praise to be exaggeration.
Agastya, Ananta, Brahmā, Shiva, etc., ever Sing the glories of that Name with full-hearted fervour.
Who can cross the ocean of the glories of that Name?
Whoever says 'exaggeration' have their sin to blame.

kṛṣṇa-nāmāboli nitya golokera dhana kalpita, prākṛta, bhāve—aparādhi-jana

The Holy Names of Krishna— eternal wealth of Goloka:
Who thinks those Names imaginary, mundane—he's offender.

nāme sarvva-pāpa-kṣaya sarvva-śāstre kaya sārā-dina pāpa kori sei bharasāya—emata durbuddhi jāra sei aparādhi māyā-pravañchita, duḥkha bhuñje niravadhi

All Scriptures claim the Name all sin it can destroy,
But those who spend their time in sin making it a ploy—
Such a wicked attitude is that of an offender Deceived by illusion, perpetually to suffer.

atulya śrī-kṛṣṇa-nāma pūrṇa-rasa-nidhi tāra sama nā bhāviha śubha-karma ādi

Incomparable Name of Kṛṣṇa— the treasure of ecstasy: Never dare compare it with auspicious piety.

nāme śraddhā-hina-jana—vidhātā vāñchita tāre nāma dāne aparādha suniśchita

Those who're faithless t'ward the Name—deceived by Providence: Giving them the Holy Name surely's an offence.

śuniyāo kṛṣṇa-nāma-māhātmya apāra je priti-rahita, sei narādhama chāra allañtā mamatā jāra antare bāhire śuddha kṛṣṇa-nāma tāra kabhu nāhi sphure

Despite them hearing the infinite glories of Krishna's Name, Those whose hearts don't melt in love are rascals of ill fame;
Only pride and avarice their thoughts and deeds do yield—
The Pure Name of Krishna to them is ne'er revealed.

ei daśa aparādha koriyā varjjana jena jana kore harināma saṅkīrttana apūrvva śrī-kṛṣṇa-prema labhya tāre hoy nāma-prabhu tāra hṛde nitya vilasay

Casting off these ten offences, leaving no exception, Those pure souls who chant the Name in Holy Congregation—

The miracle of love for Krishna they will surely savour,
The Name Divine Himself will shine within their hearts forever.

Pranati Daśakam

Ten Prayers in glorification of Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj Composed by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

naumi śrī-gurupādābjam, yatirājeśvareśvaram śrī-bhaktirakṣakam śrīla-śrīdhara-svāminām sadā

(1) I eternally offer my humble obeisances unto the lotus feet of my Most Worshipful Divine Master, the Supreme Emperor of the Sannyāsi Kings - Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Swāmī.

                ujjvalam ratna-kaustubham śrī-chaitanya-mahāpremon-, mattālīnām śiromañim

(2-4) He possesses a lofty, dignified, divinely effulgent, incomparable holy form, so charming to behold. Adorned with Gopīchandan and a necklace of Tulasī beads, he holds the triple staff of the Vaiṣṇava ascetics.

Although he possesses the qualification of inconceivable potency, he is full of the utmost affection. All the ten directions are illuminated by the effulgence of his supramundane unalloyed perception. He is the dispenser of the genuine proper harmonious adjustment of all the scriptures - the Vedas, the Vedānta, the Upaniṣads, the Purāṇas, etc. headed by the Śrīmad-Bhāgavata-Purāṇa (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam) which holds equal importance with the Vedas.

In the necklace of the jewels of Āchāryyas in the Śrī Gauḍīya Sampradāya he shines resplendently like the brilliant Kaustubha gem, and he is radiant in his glory as the Crown-jewel of the bumblebee-devotees who are mad in the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu's love supreme. I eternally offer my obeisances unto him, my Most Worshipful Divine Master.

kṛpayā yena dattām tam, naumi kāruṇya-sundaram

(5-6) By his grace, he brought to full bloom the deepest underlying purport of Gāyatrī, the Mother of the Vedas; by his grace he opened the hidden treasure-house of the glorious internal purport of Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā - and he distributed these gifts to one and all, even the lowest of the low. He revealed the supreme holy book (Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāmṛtam, which is a treasure of many types of precious gems of holy stanzas (the wealth of holy stanzas compiled from Stotra-ratna by Śrī Yamunāchārya and many other valuable sources) sung by the Lord and His devotees; he revealed an unprecedented collection of holy books (Search for Śrī Krishna - Reality the Beautiful, Śrī Guru and His Grace, The Golden Volcano of Divine Love, etc.) that are the very life-nectar for the devotee's hearts and spiritual senses - he gave these gifts to the world. I eternally offer my obeisances unto him, my Most

saṅkīrttana-mahārāsarasabheś chandramānibham gaura-śrīrūpa-siddhānta-, divya-dhārādharam gurum śrī-bhakti-rakṣakam devam, śrīdharam praṇamāmy aham

(8-10) In Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām, which is nondifferent from the holy abode of Śrī Vṛndāvan, His Divine Grace established the world-renowned Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh at Śrī Koladwīp, the selfsame 'Hidden Govardhan Hill' (Gupta-Govardhan), which is the sacred place where all offenses are absolved (Aparādha-bhañjana-pāṭ). There, he revealed the beautiful devotional service of the Worshipful Deities Śrī Śrī Guru-Gaurāṅga-Gāndharvā-Govindasundar, divinely manifesting his very self as the Deity of service in perfection. Eternally do I offer my obeisances unto the holy lotus feet of my Divine Master Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhār Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj who carries the divine current of Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī coming in the line of Śrī Rūpa, the object of Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu's divine affection.

śraddhayā yaḥ paṭhen nityam, praṇati-daśakam mudā viśate rāgamārgeṣu, tasya bhakta-prasādataḥ

One who with pure faith happily sings this Praṇati-daśakam every day, gains the qualification to serve the Supreme Lord on the path of spontaneous love (Rāga-marga), by the grace of the associate-servitors of that Śrīla Gurudeva.

śrī kṛṣṇa-mānase jebā kore hethā snāna gupta-govardhane rādhā-kṛṣṇa-sevā pāna

(1) Surabhī, the divine cow who appeared from churning the milk ocean, lovingly bathed Brajendra Nandan Krishna with her own milk.

(2) The pond filled with that milk, “Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa,” graces beautiful Govardhan with exquisite beauty.

(3) The transcendental water of this Kuṇḍa can banish even the greatest sins. The threefold miseries—ādhyātmic, ādhidaivic and ādhibhautic—and all fears of this material world are destroyed by bathing in or drinking this water.

(4) Sometimes, by great fortune, someone will get to taste the water of Govinda Kuṇḍa as that milk, attain a transcendental form, and go to Krishnaloka.

(5) Anyone who bathes in Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa, desiring to serve Krishna, attains divine service of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna in Gupta Govardhan (hidden Govardhan).

Śrī Govinda Kuñda
Gupta-Govardhan Ārati

by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

jaya jaya girirājer ārati viśāla śrī gaura-maṇḍala-mājhe bhuvana-maṅgala

- (1) All glories, all glories, to the grand ārati of Śrī Girirāj! In the midst of Śrī Gaura-maṇḍal, it is benefitting the entire universe.

koladvīpe śobhe gupta-govardhanarūpa

(8) All glories to the hidden Govardhan, which is a reservoir of transcendental rasa. It is the refuge of the devotees who are following in the footsteps of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth.

kuliyā-prakāśa tava achintya-mahimā divāniśi bhakta-vṛnda kore parikramā

(9) By Your inconceivable glories and magnanimity, You have manifested Kuliyā (where all offences are forgiven). Day and night, the multitudes of devotees are circumambulating this place.

sevya o sevaka-rūpe nitya parakāśa sānande ārati dekhe e adhama dāsa

(10) You are eternally manifested both as the worshipable Lord and as the servitor Lord. This fallen servant sees Your ārati with great joy.

 Šrī Šrī Girirāj-
Govardhan Ārati

by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

jaya jaya girirājer ārotiko śobhā śrī-braja-maṇḍala mājhe jaga mana lobhā

(1) All glories to the beautiful ārati of Śrī Girirāj which is going on in Śrī Braja-maṇḍala, attracting the minds of all living entities of the universe.

pramoda-madana-līla śrī-rādhā-ramaṇa jathā nitya-līlā kore loye sakhi-gaṇa

(2) Lord Śrī Rādha-Ramaṇa [Krishna who gives pleasure to his beloved Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī] is eternally playing His joyful Loving Pastimes there in the association of the Sakhīs of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

mālatī-mādhavī-kuñja kandare kandare nigūḍha nikuñja-līla hari manohare

(3) Here deep within the groves of mālatī flowers and mādhavī creepers, the confidential Pastimes of the charming Lord Hari are going on.

śyāma-kuṇḍa rādhā-kuṇḍa kusum sarovara

(4) Within this holy place are Śyāma Kuṇḍa, Rādhā Kuṇḍa, Kusum Sarovar, Mānasa Gaṅgā and Dāna-ghāṭī.

śrī-govinda-kuṇḍa līlāsthalī nāhi sīmā
 divāniśi-bhakta-vṛnda kore parikramā

(5) With Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa, these holy places of divine Pastimes are without limit. Day and night the devotees are performing circumambulation in worship.

(6) Here there is the supremely beautiful Śrīdhar Svāmī Sevāśram where devotees of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh are performing their eternal service.

abhinna śrī kṛṣṇa jñāne bhajibāra tore mahāprabhu samarpilā raghunātha kore

(7) Śrīman Mahāprabhu gave Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu to Śrī Raghunāth Goswāmī so that Śrī Dās Goswāmī could worship His Lordship knowing Him to be non-different from Krishna.

gosvāmī śrī-raghunātha dāsere smariyā nirantara sevā kore antarmanā hoiyā

(8) The devotees of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh worship Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu in a deep mood of devotion in remembrance of Śrī Raghunāth Dās Goswāmī.

jaya giri-govardhana divya-rasāloy rūpa-sanātana-jīva-raghunāthāśroy

(9) All glories to Śrī Giri Govardhan which is the abode of divine rasa and the shelter of Śrī Rūpa, Sanātan, Jīva and Raghunāth Goswāmīs.

surendra-munīndra-śiva-śuka-mahājana dekhena ārati-śobhā durllabha-darśana

(10) The beauty of the ārati of Śrī Girirāj-jīu which is rare and precious is being seen by Lord Indra, Nārada Muni, Lord Shiva, Śukadeva Goswāmī and all the great personalities.

sevyo o sevaka-rūpe nitya parakāśa
sānande ārati dekhe e adhama dāsa

(11) Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu is eternally manifested as both the worshipable Lord and the servitor Lord. This fallen servant sees the ārati of Śrī Girirāj-jīu with great ecstasy.

Śrī Śrī Nitāi-Chaitanya-Ārati

by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj
for the Āratis in our Jagannāth Puri Branch Temple

jaya guru mahārāja koruṇā-sāgara śrī bhakti rakṣaka deva-gosvāmī śrīdhara

(1) All glories to Śrīla Guru Mahārāj, Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhara Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj who is like an ocean of mercy.

prakāśile nīlāchale bhuvana-maṅgala nitāi-chaitanya-deva-sevā samujjvala

(2) By his mercy, Śrī Śrī Nitāi-Chaitanyadeva have manifested in Puri Dhām bestowing auspiciousness upon the whole world and revealing their effulgent devotional service.

gorāpreme mātøyārā nityānanda-rūpa rasarāja mahābhāva chaitanya-svarūpa

(3) Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu's form is dancing ecstatically intoxicated with divine love for Śrī Gaura, whose manifestation is Rasarāj Śrī Krishna taking the heart and halo of Mahābhāva, Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

kasita-kāñchana jini śrī-aṅga labaṇi dūhūgale vanamālā bhāvera dolanī

(4) Both Lords are standing fully effulgent, glowing just like freshly cut gold, as garlands of various beautiful forest flowers play on their necks.

murachita koṭikāma rūparāsaraṅge madhura narttana-bhāva varābhaya bhaṅge

(5) Millions and millions of Cupids fall unconscious before the divine feet of Their Lordships, seeing their beauty as their divine forms playfully sway to and fro. They are dancing, touching the hearts of everyone and freely bestowing mercy upon the conditioned souls.

koṭi-chandra-bhānuśobhā ratna-simhāsane prema netre dekhe mahā-bhāgyavāna jane

(6) Brilliant like millions of moons They stand      35 effulgent upon Their jewelled throne. The fortunate souls, their devotional eyes full of love and affection can see Their divine forms.

mṛdaṅga mandirā bāje suśāṅkha-dhvanita śruti-mauli-ratnamālā-dīpa nirājita

(7) In the temple during the ārati, the mṛdaṅgas re-sound sweetly as conchshells are blown and the ghee lamp is offered. The different parts of the Vedas within bhakti yoga have taken form in each light as a bhakti yoga light and through this form they are worshipping Their Lordships in the ārati.

bhuvana-mohana dūhū rūpera ārati gupta-vṛṇḍāraṇya-vāsī dekhe niravadhi

(8) This type of ārati is only seen by the residents of Nabadwīp Dhām and the dear associates of Śrī Chaitanya. Anyone who sees it will be extremely charmed by it.

śrī svarūpa rāmānanda rūpa-sanātana raghunātha haridāsa gadādhara dhana

(9) Śrī Chaitanya's dear associates, Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, Rāmānanda Rāya, Rūpa Goswāmī, Sanātan Goswāmī, Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, Haridās Thākur and Gadādhara Pañdit are seeing and performing this ārati.

sārvabhauma gopīnātha jīvānuga-jana dekhena ārati-śobha durllabha-darśana

(10) Sārvabhauma Bhaṭṭāchāryya, Gopīnāth Āchāryya and the followers in the sampradāya of Jīva Goswāmī are all seeing that ārati which is unable to be seen by others.

nadīyā prakāśe nityānanda-gauranidhi patita-pāvana-kṣetre milāila vidhi

(11) Śrī Nityānanda and Śrī Gaura Mahāprabhu have manifested eternally in Nabadwīp Dhām, Nadia. But now Their divine forms have manifested in Puri Dhām, mercifully given by our fortune-maker, Śrī Gurudeva.

avichintya nityānanda-chaitanya-prakāśa śrī guru-prasāde dekhe ei adhama dāsa (śrī guru-prasāde dekhe śrī govinda dāsa)

(12) Inconceivably Śrī Śrī Nitāi-Chaitanya have manifested and through the mercy of Śrī Gurudeva this fallen soul sees Their ārati and joins within the sankirttan.

Śrī Guru Ārati

Glorification of Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj by Śrīpād B. A. Paramahamsa Mahārāj translated by Devamoyī Devī Dasi

jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala govardhana-pāda-pīthe bhuvana-maṅgala

(1) All glories to the effulgent arati of Śrī Gurudeva, which is going on at the foot of Govardhan, benefitting the whole world.

śrī bhakti sundara deva prabhu śiromañi gosvāmī govinda jaya ānandera khani

(2) All glories to Śrī Bhakti Sundar Govinda Goswāmī, who is our supreme master and is like a reservoir of joy.

ājānu lambita bhuja divya kalevara ananta pratibhā bharā divya guṇadhara

(3) His graceful long hands touch his knees and his body is beautiful and transcendental. He is an ocean of infinite genius and transcendental qualities.

gaura-kṛṣṇe jāni tava abhinna svarūpa saṁsāra tarite ebe śuddha-bhakta-rūpa

(4) We consider your real identity to be non-different from Krishna and Gaurāṅga. But now, to deliver this material world, you have assumed the form of a pure devotee.

rūpānuga-dhārā tumi koro ālokita

(7) As ecstatic people all over the world are attaining the treasure of love of Krishna, they are dancing and singing your glories.

sthāpilā āśrama bahu jagata mājhāre pāramahāmsa-dharma-jñāna siksāra prachāre

(8) To teach the essence of the highest knowledge and to preach it to all, you have established many ashrams all over the world.

chintyāchintya veda-jñāne tumi ādhikārī sakala saṁśaya chettvā susiddhāntadhārī

(9) You have mastery over the knowledge of the Vedas, both conceivable and inconceivable. You are the treasurer of bona fide conclusions, which can destroy all doubt.

tomāra mahimā gāhe goloka maṇḍale nitya-siddha parikare tava līlāsthale

(10) Your glories are being sung in the spiritual world of Goloka, the realm of your Pastimes, by your servants who are eternally liberated.

patita pāvana tumi doyāra samīra sarvva-kārye sunipuṇa satya-sugambhīra

(11) To deliver the fallen souls, you are like a breeze of mercy. You are expert in all service, and you are established in truth and gravity.

apurvva lekhanī dhārā pragāḍha pāṇḍitya sadā hāsyā miṣṭa bhāśī suśila kavitva

(12) Your beautiful and unprecedented writing reflects your deep scholarship. You are always smiling and speaking sweet words, which remind one of your soothing poetry.

sādhu-saṅge sadānandī sarala vinayī sabhā-madhye vaktā śreṣṭha sarvatra vijayī

(13) You are always straightforward and humble, and you are always joyful in the association of pure devotees. In a spiritual gathering, you are always the best speaker. In every field of life, you always come out victorious.

gauḍīya gagane tumi āchāryya-bhāskara nirantara sevāpriya miṣṭa kaṇṭhasvara

(14) In the sky of the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇava world, you are a preceptor who is prominent like the sun. You are always fond of service, and your sweet voice inspires others to do service also.

tomāra koruṇā māge trikāla vilāse gāndharvvikā-giridhārī sevā-mātra āśe

(15) Past, present, and future—for all eternity, we beg your mercy. Only by your mercy will one receive devotional service to Śrī Śrī Gāndharvvikā-Giridhārī.

kṛpā koro ohe prabhu śri-gaura-prakāśa

(1) All glories to Śrī Krishna Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, the son of Śachi-devī. Great sages and demigods always sing His praise, for by doing so, the fear of repeated birth and death is cut to pieces. All glories to the kīrttanā of the Holy Name of Krishna, for when one chants the Holy Name of Krishna and dances in ecstasy, the filth of this age of Kali disappears.

(2) The mṛdaṅgas went “tāthai tāthai” to the rhyming chiming of the cymbals, as Mahāprabhu’s golden form shivered in ecstasy and His footbells jingled.

mukunda mādhava jādava hari, bolore bolore vadana bhori’, miche nida-baśe gelo re rāti, divasa śorīra sāje

(3) Mahāprabhu would call out to the still sleeping people, “Don’t waste your nights uselessly sleeping and your days decorating your bodies! Cry out the Names Mukunda, Mādhava, Jādava and Hari!”

emona durllabha mānava-deho,

(1) Lord Gaurāṅga calls, “Wake up, sleeping souls! Wake up, sleeping souls! You have slept so long in the lap of the witch Māyā.”

bhajibo boliyā ese samsāra-bhitore bhuliyā rohile tumi avidyāra bhore

(2) “You came into this world saying, ‘O my Lord, I will certainly worship You,’ but having forgotten this promise, you have remained in great ignorance.”

tomāre loite āmi hoinu avatāra

(4) “I have brought the medicine for destroying the illusion of māyā. Now pray for this Hari-nāma-mahā-mantra and take it.”

bhakativinoda prabhura-charaṇe podiyā sei hari-nāma-mantra loiilo māgiyā

(5) Thākur Bhaktivinoda fell at the lotus feet of Lord Gaurāṅga, and after begging for the Holy Name he received that mahā-mantra.

(1) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who is the ocean of auspicious qualities. Just to deliver all planes of life that are suffering in the forest fire of the material world, he, as the rain-cloud of mercy, melts to shower down the waters of compassion.

(2) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, whose heart is maddened in nectarean love for Śrīman Mahāprabhu by the grand congregational chanting of the Holy Name. Dancing, singing, and playing the khol and karatāls,etc.; his body thrills with joy, trembles, and waves of tears flow from his eyes.

(4) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who fully satisfies the devotees of Śrī Krishna with four types of nectarean prasādam foodstuffs that are chewed, sucked, licked, and drunk (that is, he brings about the dispellation of mundanity and the awakening of the joy of love that develops from respecting prasādam), and he is thereby himself satisfied.

(6) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who is extremely dear to the Supreme Divine Couple who sport in the groves of Braja, because he is greatly expert in those appropriate engagements that are performed by the sakhīs in order to serve the amorous Pastimes of the Divine Couple.

vande guroḥ śrī-charaṇāravindam

(7) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master (who is the simultaneously inconceivably distinct and non-distinct manifest embodiment of the Supreme Personality of Godhead): all the Scriptures sing the glories of his being the direct non-different form of the Supreme Lord Śrī Hari, and the pure saints also concede this; yet, he is the most beloved of the Lord.

- (8) I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, ever singing his glories and meditating upon him at the three junctions of the day. By his grace alone one gains the grace of the Lord, and if he is displeased the soul has no shelter anywhere.

(2) Lord Hari incarnated as the half-man, half-lion, Nṛsimha. He appeared as a dwarf-brāhmaṇa named Upendra and is the killer of the Madhu demon. He is the beloved son of the King of Braja, Nanda Mahārāj, and is blackish in complexion. He is the slayer of the Pūtanā witch and the destroyer of the demon Kaiṭabha. All glories to Lord Hari, who appeared as Lord Rāma, the son of King Dāśarath.

(4) As Rāmachandra He brought about the end of the demoniac King Rāvaṇa; as Krishna He stole the older gopīs' butter; He stole the younger gopīs' clothes while they were bathing in the Jamunā. He is a cowherd boy of Braja and the protector of the cowherd boys. He steals the hearts of all and always holds a flute.

(8) Lord Krishna is the life of the River Jamunā. He is always absorbed in amorous Pastimes, and He is the moon of the gopīs' minds, which are like the chakora birds that subsist only upon moonlight. O mind, obey these words of mine and sing the glories of Śrī Krishna in the form of these Holy Names, which are full of nectaran mellows.

śrī-gaurahari sohi goṣṭha-bihārī, nanda-jaśomatī-chitta-hārī

(1) Just worship Śrī Gaurahari, who is always affectionate toward His devotees. He is the same Supreme Godhead, Krishna, who sported in the cowherd pastures of Braja and stole the hearts of Nanda and Jaśodā.

belā ho'lo, dāmodara, āisa ekhano bhoga-mandire bosī' koraho bhojana

(2) Mother Jaśodā calls to Krishna, “My dear Dāmodar, it is very late. Please come right now, sit down in the dining hall, and take your lunch.”

nandera nirdeśe baise giri-bara-dhārī baladeva-saha sakħā baise sāri sāri

(3) On the direction of Nanda Mahārāj, Krishna, the holder of Govardhan Hill, sits down, and then all the cowherd boys, along with Krishna’s elder brother, Śrī Baladeva, sit down in rows to take their lunch.

śuktā-śākādi bhāji nālītā kuṣmāṇḍa

(4) They are then served a feast of śuktā and various kinds of green leafy vegetables, then nice fried things, and a salad made of the green leaves of the jute plant. They are also served pumpkin, baskets of fruit, small square cakes made of lentils and cooked down milk, then thick yogurt, squash cooked in milk, and vegetable preparations made from the flower of the banana tree.

mudga-bodā māṣa-bodā roṭikā ghṛtānna

(5) Then they receive fried squares of mung dal patties, and urad dal patties, chapātīs, and rice with ghee. Next, sweets made with milk, sugar, and sesamum; rice flour cakes; thick cooked-down milk; cakes floating in milk; and sweet rice.

karpūra amṛta–kelī rambhā kṣīra-sāra

(6) There is also sweet rice that tastes just like nectar due to its being mixed with camphor. There are bananas, and cheese which is nectarean and delicious. They are also served twelve kinds of sour preparations made with tamarinds, limes, lemons, oranges, and pomegranates.

luchi chini sarapurī lāḍḍu rasābalī

(7) There are purīs made with white flour and sugar; purīs filled with cream; laḍḍus; and dal patties boiled in sugared rice. Krishna eagerly eats all of the food.

rādhikāra pakka anna vividha byañjana

(8) In great ecstasy and joy Krishna eats the rice, curried vegetables, sweets, and pastries cooked by Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

chole-bole lāḍḍu khāy śrī-madhumangala

(9) Krishna's funny brāhmaṇa friend Madhumāṅgal, who is very fond of laḍḍus, gets them by hook or by crook. Eating the laḍḍus he shouts, "Haribol! Haribol!" and makes a funny sound by slapping his sides under his armpits with his hands.

(15) At Mother Jaśodā's request the gopī Dhaniṣṭhā brings remnants of food left on Krishna's plate to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who eats them with great delight.

(16) Lalitā-devī and the other gopis then receive the remnants, and within their hearts they sing the glories of Rādhārāṇī and Krishna with great joy.

hari-līlā ek-mātra jāhāra pramoda

(17) Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda, whose one and only joy is the Pastimes of Lord Hari, sings this Bhoga-ārati song.

bhaja govinda govinda gopāla

 Translated by Devamoyī Devī Dasī

jayare jayare jaya gaura-sarasvatī

(1) All glories, all glories, all glories to Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākur, who is intimately connected with Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur and is an embodiment of Śrī Gaurāṅga’s mercy.

prakāśile gaura-sevā bhūvana maṅgala

(3) All glories to Śrī Rādhā and Śyāma (Krishna) who are combined in the one body of Śrī Gaurāṅga, who is on the right side; glories to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who is on the left side; and glories to Him, who is in the middle and who is none other than the Supreme Cowherd Boy, Śrī Śyāmasundar.

braja rasa nava bhāve nabadvīpe rāje

(4) The mellow of Braja (Vṛndāvan) is present in Nabadvīp in a new mood; when this sweet loving sentiment is mixed with magnanimity, then it shows itself as uniquely beautiful.

mādhuryya kaivalya rāga brajera nirjāsa prāpti parākāṣṭhā tāhe gaurāṅga vilāsa

(5) Mādhurya-rasa (conjugal love) is the essence of Braja Dhām, and the Pastimes of Mahāprabhu take it to its highest perfection.

rādhā bhāva-kānti aṅgikari' bhālo mate

(6) Earnestly accepting Śrī Rādhā's mood and beauty, He has taken His place on the right to show His glorious position.

rādhā-rasa-troyo-svāda rahasya proyāsa nirakhi praphulla rādhā mukhe manda hāsa

(7) Seeing Krishna's mischievous desire to understand the glory of Her love, Krishna's wonderful sweetness that only She can relish through Her transcendental qualities, and the happiness She feels from Krishna's sweet love for Her, Rādhārāṇī is very pleased and there is a subdued smile on Her face.

madhye rahi vamśīrave ghoṣe vamśīdhara

(9) "My most cherished form is revealed in the temple of Rādhārāṇī's heart, and that highest manifestation of Myself can be attained only by worshipping Gaurāṅga."

nadīyā prakāśe mahāprabhu gaura-nidhi

(10) By the Lord's divine arrangement, the Supreme Savior of the fallen souls appeared in Nadīyā as the most beloved Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu.

e-rūpa ārati brahmā śambhu agochara

(11) This type of divine worship of Mahāprabhu is beyond the vision of even Lord Brahmā or Lord Shiva. Only by receiving the mercy of a devotee of Lord Gaurāṅga can one attain such perfection.

(12) Only by the mercy of Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, Śrī Rāmananda Rāya, Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Raghunāth, Śrī Jīva and their associates do the devotees attain that vision.

*footnote to verse 2:-

The six urges are those of speech, the mind, anger, the tongue, the belly, and the genitals.

The six faults are overeating or collecting more monetary funds than required, overendeavouring for material objectives, unnecessary talking about mundane affairs, being too attached to or too neglectful of Scriptural rules and regulations, associating with worldly-minded persons, and lusting after mundane achievements.

The six good qualities are enthusiasm, patience, confidence, the determination to perform activities favourable to devotional service, the resolution to abandon the association of non-devotees, and the discipline required to always follow in the footsteps of the predecessor āchāryyas.

The six kinds of saintly association are offering gifts in charity, accepting charitable gifts, revealing one’s mind in confidence, inquiring confidentially, accepting prasādam and offering prasādam.

(1) His lotus feet are served in devotion by multitudes of high, virtuous souls; he is the establisher of the religion of the age as he is the presiding monarch of the Viśva-Vaiṣṇava-Rāja-Sabhā—the universal society of the pure devotees that are the true ‘kings’ or guides of all; and he is the fulfiller of the most cherished desires of those who dispel fear (for all souls). I make my obeisance unto the lotus feet of that illustrious great soul, worshipable by one and all—perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

The universal gods, perfected beings, salvationists, mystic yogis, and exalted servitors of the Absolute Truth, Śrī Krishna, constantly chanted the glories of Śrī Gaurasundar.

In regard to Lord Chaitanya's Pastimes, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī has mentioned the following verse in his Śrī Chaitanyāṣṭakam:

sadopāsyah śrīmān dhṛta-manuja-kāyaiḥ praṇayitāṁ vahadbhir gīr-vāṇair giriṣa-parameṣṭhi-prabhṛtibhiḥ

"The gods, headed by Lord Shiva and Lord Brahmā, accepted the garb of ordinary men in the Pastimes of Śrī Chaitanyadeva in order to eternally worship Him with heartfelt affection." Śrī Chaitanyadeva is the embodiment of that vast nectarean ocean found in Lord Krishna's Holy Name, which is none other than Śrī Gaurāṅga's own pure Name. Śrī Chaitanyadeva is compared to that grand milk ocean which, after being churned, produced nectar. The nectar Mahāprabhu distributes is Lord Krishna's Holy Names, which extinguish all the miseries of material existence, such as anxieties arising from sinful activities performed in direct opposition to the Lord, and the three-fold sufferings which fuel the grand forest fire that scorches those in search of sense gratification, salvation, and mystic yoga perfections. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

The charming aura of Śrī Gurasundar's divine figure resembles the reflection of millions of radiant golden mirrors. Furthermore, the personified sweet fragrance of the earthly and heavenly lotus flowers humbly offer their prayers before the aromatic scent which permeates the air from the beautiful form of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. Millions and millions of Cupids fall unconscious before the feet of Śrī Chaitanyadeva's elegant figure. They are severely shocked because their sense of universal fame arising from their beautiful splendor is checked. While performing His joyful Pastimes of dancing, the divine form of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva playfully sways to and fro. The flowing pulsations of the Lord's limbs move in rhythm with the various charming moods of devotional sentiments, bhāva, overwhelming His graceful figure. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

 prema-dhāma-devam eva naumi gaura-sundaram

By manifesting His five-fold aspect of divinity, Pañcha-tattva, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva was able to widely distribute the sweet Names of Lord Krishna, which is the means to the ultimate attainment in human life: unalloyed love for the Absolute Truth, Śrī Krishna, the fifth end. (The 'fifth end' refers to that which is beyond the attainment of religiosity, economic development, sense gratification, and liberation.) The Lord personally incarnated on the Earth planet with His expansions such as Nityānanda Prabhu and Advaita Āchāryya, His intimate associates such as Gadādhara Paṇḍit, and His other general associates such as Śrīvāsa Ṭhākur. When the Lord

86 appears, He comes armed with the weapon of the Holy Name of Krishna. While dancing in the deepest ecstasies of pure love, Lord Gaurāṅgadeva, although none other than Śyāmasundar, chanted His own Names just like an ordinary citizen in the Nadīyā district. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Appearing in his Deity form, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva removed the miserable condition of the living entities and increased the devotional pleasure of His devotees. The Lord incarnated because He was unable to tolerate the griefstricken condition of Śrī Advaita Āchāryya, the master of that charming village of Śāntipura. Śrī Advaita Āchāryya was lamenting about this era being overtaken by the ugly influence of irreligious practices. Thus, in order to arrest the immoral activities in Kali-yuga, the Lord profusely distributed the sweet nectar of Lord Krishna's Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva appeared in West Bengal in the sacred place known as Nabadwīp on the banks of the Ganges River. Revealing His household Pastimes in the holy abode of Nabadwīp, Śrī Gaura benedicted the beautiful courtyard surrounding Śrīnivās Paṇḍit's residence, and pleased His dearmost associates when He manifested His nocturnal Pastimes of congregational chanting in the deepest mellows of pure dedication. The controlling life-force of Lakṣmīpriyā-devī and Viṣṇupriyā-devī was Srī Gaurasundar, whose intelligence was couched in deep parental adoration for His mother and father, Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema. 87

Srī Gaurāṅgadeva, the son of Śachīdevī, always performed mischievous childhood Pastimes in the association of the naughtiest boys. (Nimāi was like baby Krishna, the son of Mother Jaśodā.) Nimāi's Pastimes, although naughty, were not only pleasing to Him, but also gladdened the hearts of His devotees.

During His adolescent years, the Lord acquired unrivaled mastery over the conclusions of the ancient Scriptures. With unexcelled logic at His command, Lord Viśvambhara artfully established the auspicious doctrine of śuddha-bhakti, unalloyed dedication unto the Sweet Absolute Truth, Lord Krishna, thereby defeating the doctrine of dry logic studied at that period by the proud, expert logicians who were all nearly atheistic scholars. Later, in the course of His adolescent Pastimes, the Lord vanquished the pride of the most famous Sanskrit scholar of all time, the Digvijayī Paṇḍit, in the company of His grammar students, on the banks of the Ganges River. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

During His childhood Pastimes, Nimāi sat amongst discarded clay pots which had been used to cook preparations for Lord Vishnu. He would also play with unclean animals such as puppies, and on one occasion He laid 88 upon a cobra, treating it as if it were Ananta Śeṣa.

Once, Nimāi was stolen away by two thieves who were intent on robbing the ornaments decorating His charming figure. Placing Nimāi on their shoulders, they enticed the small boy to come with them and then quickly fled away with Him. However, due to the Lord's Yogamāyā potency, they suddenly found they had arrived at Nimāi's house.

Later, a well-known mendicant brāhmaṇ visited the residence of Jagannāth Miśra. When the brāhmaṇ began to offer some preparations he had cooked to Lord Gopāl, Nimāi spoiled the offering by eating the food-stuffs while the mendicant was offering them in meditation. After having done this to the brāhmaṇ three times, the Lord revealed His eight-armed form to him.

Whenever the child Nimāi angrily cried, He could only be pacified by the chanting of Lord Krishna's Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

In His childhood Pastimes Nimāi would sportively play in the waters of the Ganges River in different ways with His schoolmates. Sometimes Nimāi, with various laughing gestures, would also tease the young girls who came to swim in the Ganges. This same small boy, however, often presented shrewd arguments and counter-arguments before His classmates and professors. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

During the Lord's adolescent Pastimes, He 89 became known and respected far and wide as the greatest scholar, Nimāi Paṇḍit. The Lord would dismantle the false pride of millions of conceited scholarly logicians. Rendering them speechless by canceling and reversing their forestated conclusions, the Lord would then rebuke His own opinion and rejustify their foregone logic. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

After that grand Sanskrit scholar Keśava Kāsmīrī had intellectually conquered all ten directions, he came before Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu on the banks of the Ganges River. At the Lord's request, he spontaneously composed and recited many wonderful prayers in glorification of the sacred Ganges. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva then amazed the scholar when He recollected and pointed out several rhetorical errors in his compositions. Keśava Kāsmīrī skillfully presented many logical arguments in his own favour, but was ultimately defeated. Finally, when Keśava Kāsmīrī's incompetence was exposed and his intelligence was totally perplexed, Lord Gaurāṅga compassionately respected him in a manner befitting a great scholar by preventing His students who were present from laughing at the paṇḍit. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Elaborately explaining the aphorisms taught in Sanskrit grammar and the science of logic, Śrī Gaurasundar would draw out their apparent and subtle meanings. The 90 Lord's beautiful style of deriving the inner significance of the sūtras completely amazed all the learned circles. The Lord demonstrated that the seven thousand verbal root sounds contained in Sanskrit grammar reach the zenith of their expression when realized as potencies existing within the Krishna conception of reality. As the learned scholars sat in utter amazement, their powerful intellects were paralyzed by Lord Gaurāṅga's intriguing explanation. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Śrī Gaurasundar proved that the Supreme Lord's sweet will and well-wishing glance is the background cause governing each sound's concomitant meaning. The Lord's sanction is the fundamental element deciding the orderly arrangement and harmony shared between sound and its meaning, and not the mundane endeavors of the prominent grammarians headed by the sages like Pāṇini, who try to affix sounds with word meanings. This is because the purpose of everything animate or inanimate in existence is ultimately to please the Supreme Lord by enhancing His charming Pastimes. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

The Lord began to teach Sanskrit to His students again after returning from Gayā. However, when emotions arising from pure love overwhelmed the Lord, He was unable to continue teaching them. Nimai's personal students, bereft of the opportunity to learn from the Lord, condemned themselves as unfortunate. Lamenting, 91 they humbly praised the unparalleled genius of the Lord's teachings. Although the Lord experienced grief due to sympathetic feelings towards His students, He acted as their ever well-wisher when He inaugurated the happy glorification of Lord Krishna by chanting "haraye namah krṣṇa" as they clapped in unison. In the wake of the congregational chanting, the moving and nonmoving living entities in all ten directions were immersed in the surging waves of that grand ocean of sweet devotional mellows. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Śrī Gaurasundar respected the Vedic principles and inaugurated the congregational chanting of the Lord's Holy Names after taking full shelter of His spiritual master. The Lord would continuously chant and distribute Lord Krishna's Holy Names, dancing in the most joyful manner in the association of thousands of devotees. In this way He delivered the greatest of demons such as Jagāi and Madhāi, and other demoniac groups who destroy religious principles and the rules governing the social and spiritual orders of society. Once, a great Mohammedan city magistrate named Chānd Kāzī obstructed the devotees from performing congregational chanting of the Lord's Holy Names. In retaliation, Lord Chaitanyadeva dispelled the devotees' fear by leading a nocturnal chanting procession

lamps. Millions of persons simultaneously joined in the ecstatic wave created by Lord Gaurasundar's dancing to the sweet melody of the mṛdaṅga drums and cymbals, as musical instruments resounded in every direction. When the powerful Mohammedan witnessed this, his false sense of covetousness was cleansed, and the Lord embraced him as His very own. Arriving in the sacred place of pilgrimage, Śrī Nīlāchala, the valiant king of the renounced order, Śrī Chaitanyadeva, saved the most powerful scholar recognized throughout the length and breadth of India. Śrī Vāsudeva Sārvabhauma, the most dynamic intellectual of all time in the vast Vedantic doctrine and school of logistics, was rescued by the Lord from the impersonal well of Śaṅkarāchāryya's theory. Later, the Lord travelled to southern India, where He encountered the followers of various philosophical doctrines. Wherever He travelled, the aspirations of the devotees met their highest fulfillment, as the Lord was like a desire tree. On the banks of the Godāvarī River, the Lord met that deep raincloud of pure dedication Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya, and instructed him to shower upon others the sweet raindrops of rasa which exist in the land of spontaneous devotion, Braja. Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya also answered the questions the merciful Lord posed with the essence of all instruction. I

The grand intellectual Sārvabhauma tried his level best to establish the impersonal doctrine of Śaṅkarāchāryya, which is in direct opposition to the conclusions of pure dedication. Sārvabhauma used the most deceitful means in the art of word jugglery. He tried to pervert the sense of words, he idly heckled the arguments or assertions of the Lord without attempting to prove the opposite side, and he tried to find the weak points in the Lord's arguments. However, Śrī Chaitanya, whose charming figure was cloaked in the fresh garments of a radiant renunciate, presented consistent arguments in conjunction with the Vedic literatures, and easily checked and destroyed the scholar's atheistic interpretations. The Lord loudly proclaimed that the doctrine of Śaṅkarāchāryya is practiced by followers in the ascending method of understanding who are interested in their external self-adoration. Such 95 worship is the product of a demoniac intellect and backed by atheistic perseverance. All importance given to the nonmanifest aspect of material nature was refuted when Lord Gaurasundar established that spiritual variegatedness in the Supreme Lord's personality is the highest reality taught in the Vedic literature.

This was shown in the Lord's explanation of the Upaniṣads, where it is stated:

apāṇipādo javano grahitā paśyatyachakṣuḥ sa śṛṇotyakarnāḥ

“The Lord has no hands or legs, yet He walks and touches. The Lord has no eyes or ears, yet He sees and hears.”

Lord Gaurasundar also explained the ātmārāma verse which is found in the grandest of all famous literature, Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam. He clearly showed that the Vedas, Purāṇas, Vedānta, and all other existing Scriptures, which are like a magnificent temple where the Supreme Lord's wonderful Pastimes are eternally resounded, support the conclusion that everything in this world is a reflection of the eternal variegatedness found in the spiritual realm. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Appearing as a beautiful young renunciate, He distributed the sweet Names of the Lord, singing: “Krishna Krishna Krishna Krishna Krishna Krishna he,” as He strolled down the different pathways, entered temples, and visited homesteads during the sacred pilgrimage. Infused with an inconceivable type of divine inspiration, the Lord freely chanted “Rāma Rāma” and joyfully danced with the most charming gestures. Irrespective of time or personal qualifica-

The famous conversation of Lord Gaurasundar with Rāmānanda Rāya on the banks of the Godāvarī River is known as the Rāmānanda-saṁvād in the Śrī Chaitanya-Charitāmrta. In those discussions, the highest form of dedication is pure love of God in a heart free from fruitive aspirations and scriptural calculation. Also, Lord Krishna, who appeared as the son of Nanda Mahārāj, was ascertained as the sole recipient of the sweetness relished in the mellows of pārakīya-rasa. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Lord Chaitanya showed that there are various relationships which exist in connection with Lord Krishna. Those relationships begin with servitude, and progress to friendship and parental love, extending to a conjugal relationship. But the epitome of charm and beauty is reserved for the son of Nanda Mahārāj in the forest groves of Vṛndāvan. That is service to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī in conjugal love, and is known as pārakīya. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva embodied this sort of divine aspiration. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Lord Gaurāṅgadeva explained that a devotee in passive adoration enjoys the happiness of being free from all material miseries, and a devotee in servitude relishes the pleasure of contentment. A devotee in friendship becomes overwhelmed with happiness arising from close affection, whereas a devotee in the parental mood is free from any trace of calculation, experiencing deepened affection in ecstatic joy. Lord Chaitanya further revealed that the devotee in conjugal love known as svakīya only partially relishes the sweetness of this mellow, due to a tinge of scriptural etiquette. However, when the conjugal mellow is beyond scriptural restrictions, then spontaneity and freedom, added by the mood of vāmya, the highest expression of divine pleasure in the Lord's service, is bestowed. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva gave license to these high ideals. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Śrī Chaitanya revealed the nature of the ever-fresh Pastimes which He performed in Nabadwīp to Rāmānanda Rāya, whose fortune is beyond this world. Lord Chaitanya also manifested His form as the cowherd boy Śyāmasundar, which was endowed with the mood and luster of Śrī Rādhā and couched in pure dedication. When Rāmānanda Rāya glimpsed the matchless beauty of the Lord's figure, he fainted before the tender lotus feet of the Lord. Following this, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva restored His eternal servant's consciousness. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Lord Gaurasundar embraced the brāhmaṇ devotee named Vāsudeva, who was afflicted with leprosy in Kūrmakṣetra near Jagannāth Purī. By the Lord's grace the brāhmaṇ was cured, and he obtained a beautiful body and mental satisfaction. Later Lord Gaurāṅga liberated the South Indian brāhmaṇ known as Rāmadās from the misconception that Sitādevī's chastity was spoiled by the touch of a demon. The Lord cited the Kūrma Purāṇa to prove that the Absolute Truth existing on the spiritual platform is beyond material perception. In this way the Lord nourished His devotee with instructions pertaining to pure devotion. The Supreme Lord also delivered Kālā Krishna Dās from the illusory influence of the false renunciates in the province of Mālābara who were in the corrupt nomadic community called Bhaṭṭathāri. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

The Lord once visited Raṅgakṣetra in South India on the banks of the Kāverī River, which is the most important place of worship for the Vaiṣṇava devotees who adore Śrī Śrī Lakṣmī-Nārāyaṇa and believe Them to be the utmost object of their devotional practices. When the Lord visited the father of Śrī Gopāl Bhaṭṭa, Śrī Veṅkaṭa Bhaṭṭa, He was very satisfied with his family's service attitude. Cunningly, the Lord smiled and instructed them that even Śrī Lakṣmīdevī, after prolonged penances, could not enter into the rāsa-līlā Pastimes of Lord Krishna. This is because only the cowherd maidens can actually incite those Pastimes. Therefore, the cowherd boy Krishna, who is the original form of Lord 99 Nārāyaṇa, and who attracts the heart of Lakṣmīdevī, is the Supreme Truth and the fundamental object of all devotional practices. I offer my obeisances to that beau-

Therefore, when He returned to Nabadwīp five years after accepting sannyās, all of Bengal, which was proud of Lord Gaurāṅga, became enthusiastic to glorify His extraordinary personality. Even the proud atheistic class of scholars were embarrassed about their vile natures when they observed how the ordinary people in all walks of life had such resolute faith in the Lord. When Mother Śachī and the Lord's other family members, who were lifeless due to separation from their Lord, had another glimpse of Śrī Chaitanyadeva, their life's substance was rejuvenated. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva eased the anxiety the devotees had experienced due to His long separation and forgave many sinful, offensive, anxiety-ridden souls such as Gopāl Chāpāl and others. The Lord then began to run towards Vṛndāvan along the banks of the Ganges. An ocean of people pursued the Lord up to the capital of Bengal, which at that time was known as Rāmakeli. At Rāmakeli, Lord Gaurāṅga was attracted by His two eternal associates who appeared to be ministers in the Muslim government, and his elder brother, Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī. There He inspired the jungle animals such as tigers, deer, and elephants to join in the congregational chanting of Lord Krishna's Holy Names. Intoxicated by the sweet Names of the Lord, the animals joyfully danced along with the Lord, who was madly absorbed in the deepest devotional ecstasies. Lord Gaurasundar showed great honour towards the Deities along the Ganges-bank in Kāśī, and unto Bindu Mādhava at the confluence of the Ganges and the Yamunā in Prayāga. Following the current of the Yamunā, the Lord began to quickly run along her banks in anxious pursuit of a glimpse of the sacred place known as Mathurā. Lord Chaitanya stated that the mood of deep separation that Mādhavendra Purī was able to taste, as depicted in the following beautiful verse first spoken by Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, is the zenith point and desirable object of pure adoration:

ayi dīna-dayārdra nātha he mathurā-nātha kadāvalokyase

“O my Lord! O most gracious master! O master of Mathurā! When will I see You again? Because of my not seeing You, my agitated heart has become unsteady. O most beloved one, what shall I do now?” After the Lord entered into Braja, the background stage where Pastimes of pure love are enacted, He became overwhelmed to His heart's full satisfaction. The Lord was charmed to see the beautiful gardens and forest groves that served as His playground for spiritual Pastimes in a previous 104 era. While visiting the twelve forests of Vṛndāvan, the Lord exhibited various different dealings with the cowherd boys and maidens. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

While strolling through the forest groves of Vṛndāvan, the Lord was joyfully welcomed by swarms of humming bumblebees busily engaged in discussion about pure love as they hovered over the blooming flowers. Millions of trees lining the forest groves harmoniously offered their respects unto Lord Gaurasundar in unison with a variety of birds that were expertly singing and dancing in sheer delight. The Lord's mind became overflowed by loving feelings due to remembering how the cows, calves, and oxen of the holy abode of Vṛndāvan would affectionately call for Him in previous Pastimes, thereby elating His emotions in pure love. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Hopelessly overwhelmed by a surge of pure love, Lord Gaurasundar madly danced and chanted the Holy Names of Krishna. A profuse current of flowing tears streamed from His eyes, passing over the radiant lustre of His giant golden form, over His brilliant garments that resembled the sun, and over the ground in all four directions. The Lord's joyful Pastimes were ecstatically enhanced by such gestures as His loudly mispronouncing the Holy Name of Krishna in a delirious state, or His roaring with laughter due to being ecstatically absorbed in deep emotion. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema. 105

Surcharged with the confusing dictations of pure love of God, Lord Gurasundar, dancing in ecstasy, anxiously approached the sacred place of Rādhā Kuṇḍa, which was unmanifest at that time. The Lord hastily took bath in that flooded paddy field, sanctified the water, and revealed it to be Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa. In deep humility, the Lord began to carefully recite verses from the Scriptures depicting Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa as the divine embodiment of pure love.

yathā rādhā priyā viṣṇos

sarva gopīsu saivaikā

“Just as Śrī Rādhā is very dear to Lord Krishna, similarly Her divine pond, Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa, is dear to the Lord. Of all the cowherd maidens, She is the dearmost consort to Lord Krishna.” I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

As the Lord was visiting various places in Vṛndāvan where Lord Krishna performed His Pastimes, He visited that famous tamarind tree that existed during the Dvāpara era. Sitting beneath the tamarind tree, the Lord’s memory of His confidential water-sporting Pastimes with the cowherd maidens was aroused when He 106 saw the dancing gestures of the Yamunā's waves.

The Lord's entire being was captured by tasting the sweetness of Śrī Rādhā within the depths of His heart. Identifying with that selfsame sweetness and emotion that possessed His entire self, the Lord's entire existence was stolen away. This place is indicated to be the place of origin of Gaura-tattva, for it was here that Lord Śyāmasundar became greatly absorbed in the divine mood of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, who is Himself the origin of all, eternally resides in this place. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Lord Gaurāṅga mentioned a witty conversation that was carried on between a parrot and his mate. In their talk, Lord Krishna, the transcendental Cupid, is described to be illusioed due to His deep feelings of separation from Śrī Rādhā.

rādhā-saṅge yadā bhāti tadā ‘madana-mohanah’
ayathā viśva-moho ’pi

The female parrot said, “When Lord Krishna is with Rādhārāṇī, He is the enchanter of Cupid; otherwise, when He is alone, He Himself is enchanted by amorous feelings, even though He enchants the whole universe.” By this pastime, Lord Gaurāṅga charmed the devotees' hearts by showing that Lord Krishna's sweetness and charm ultimately lies in the fact that He can be subdued by pure love. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

It was in the sacred place of Prayāga, in the bathing area known as Daśāśvamedha Ghāṭa, that Lord Gaurāṅga taught Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī that the ultimate objective of one's devotional practices is to relish the sweet mellows found in Śrī Vṛndāvan, and the Lord instructed him to widely distribute that sweetness. Later in Kāśī, the Lord elaborately described to Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī many topics of pure dedication, such as knowledge of proper acquaintance with the environment, the means of applying that knowledge, and the ultimate goal of obtaining pure love of Godhead. Also, at the special request of a Maharastrian brāhmaṇ and Tapana Miśra and other devotees, the Lord destroyed the ignorant conception of the māyāvādī renunciates in Vārāṇasī. Lord Gaurāṅgadeva personally met the impersonalists there in a public assembly, and pointed out that their mode of self-adoration was ultimately based on enviousness and narrow-mindedness. In this way the Lord established that factual independence was exhibited by those worshipping the Supreme Personality of Godhead. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

While en route to Jagannāth Purī from Vṛndāvan, the Lord met and instructed Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī in Prayāga. Following this, Lord Gaurāṅga arrived in Vārāṇasī where He found Prakāśānanda Sarasvatī to be the leader of millions of impersonalist renunciates who were followers of Śrī Śaṅkarāchāryya. By His pure and affectionate personality, Lord Gaurāṅga rescued 108 Prakāśānanda Sarasvatī from the deep well of the transformation theory of Śaṅkarāchāryya and intoxicated the sannyāsis and residents of Kāśī by engaging them in the glorification of Lord Krishna's Holy Names. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva was the transcendental expert who granted their passage over the material ocean, like a vessel carrying the nectar of all the scriptural conclusions handed down in the disciplic line from the sage Nārada to Śrīla Vyāsadeva. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

When Lord Chaitanyadeva was in Kāśī, He taught a grand assembly of the impersonalist renunciates that the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, as taught in the bonafide disciplic succession from Lord Krishna to Nārada and handed down by Śrīla Vyāsadeva, is the factual commentary on the conclusions of the Vedānta-sūtras. Śrī Gaurāṅga also explained the four fundamental verses of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam and revealed Lord Krishna as the ultimate reality beyond all duality and the original principle of the entire universal arrangement. By the Vedic aphorism “anāvṛttih śabdāt anāvṛttih śabdāt,” Lord Chaitanya established that conscious sound in its highest expression is Lord Krishna's Holy Name, and that it bestows the utmost benefit by releasing the soul from its conditioned state of existence. By explaining the famous ātmaraṁa verse of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam sixty-one times, Lord Gaurāṅga sliced to pieces the impersonalist doctrine propagated by Śaṅkarāchāryya. The Lord also recited many references from the Upaniṣads, such as apāṇipādo javano grahitā paśyaty acakṣuh sa śrnoty akarnah, whereby He revealed the charming sweet nature of the Absolute Truth's spiritual Pastimes. Lord Chaitanya fully censured the hateful conception of the impersonalists that Lord Krishna's transcendental form, name, qualities, Pastimes, and Deity manifestation are simply an imaginary transformation of the illusory energy māyā. When Lord Gaurāṅga referred to the verse brahmeti paramātmeti bhagavān iti śabdyate in the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, He harmoniously accommodated the conception of the nondifferentiated aspect of reality, brahman, the ultimate goal of the impersonalists, with the conception of the localized aspect of reality, paramātma, the goal of the mystic perfectionists. The Lord adjusted these two truths by showing that they are included within and surpassed by the ultimate conception of the nondualistic Absolute Truth, bhagavān, who is the primeval principle of reality. When revealing this axiomatic truth in connection with the joyful and confidential nature of the Supreme Lord's spiritual Pastimes, Lord Gaurāṅga pointed out the divine nature of Braja, which is existing above the Vaikuṇṭha planets.

vaikuṇṭhāj janito varā madhu-purī tatrāpi rāsotsavād

“Superior to the spiritual realm of Vaikuṇṭha is Mathurā, where Śrī Krishna first appears. Superior to Mathurā is the Vṛndāvan forest where Krishna enjoyed the rāsa dance. Better still is Govardhan Hill, which of love. But best of all is Rādhā Kuṇḍa, which is situated at the foot of Govardhan Hill, and holds the supreme position because it is over-flooded with the nectar of the highest kind of divine love. Who, acquainted with the science of devotion, will not aspire for the divine service of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī at Rādhā Kuṇḍa?" Initially, Lord Gaurāṅga revealed the nature of pure loving service rendered unto the son of Nanda Mahārāj in the parental relationship. But when considering the flow of dedication's sweet mellites, Lord Gaurāṅga described the ultimate aspect of the Supreme Lord's personality to be Śrī Gopījanavallabha, whose divine figure is the unlimited reservoir of all the primary and secondary mellites tasted in pure devotion. Śrī Gaurāṅga also hinted that the joyful and charming rāsa-līlā Pastimes are an all-conscious reality, none other than the personal potency of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī. Such transcendental Pastimes are found within the superexcellent and inconceivable spiritual world, and are the highest conception of spiritual existence, auspiciousness, and beauty. Lord Gaurāṅga suggested this to be the supreme achievable object of the living entities. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

In this manner Lord Gaurāṅgadeva taught that all scriptural conclusions, as perfectly passed down by the various spiritual preceptors through the medium of sound, culminate in the embodiment of Śrī Rādhāvinoda, the all-encompassing basis of proper acquaintance with the environment. The means by which one may reach Lord Krishna is by chanting His Holy Names in the association of pure devotees, while the ultimate goal in pure love is service to Lord Krishna, who is so dear to the cowherd maidens of Vṛndāvan. Lord Gaurāṅgadeva taught these essential scriptural conclusions in the assembly of scholarly persons. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Lord Gaurasundar strongly condemned those who externally accepted the dress of a renunciate yet, like monkeys, actually harbored desires for sense pleasures. On the other hand, He honoured that great devotee Rāmānanda Rāya's devotional efforts to intimately teach some young girls a form of dance drama for the pleasure of Lord Jagannāth. Later in Jagannāth Puri, Lord Gaurāṅga allowed Vallabha Bhaṭṭa to enter into and relish the sweet taste experienced in parental attachment to baby Krishna. Diving deep into the reality of His own beauty and sweetness, Lord Govinda stole the mood of Rādhārāṇī and, garbing Himself in Her brilliant lustre, appeared as Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. For the last twelve years of His manifest Pastimes He was deeply absorbed in union and separation, and He shared His heart's inner feelings with His most confidential devotees such as Swarūp Dāmodar and Rāmānanda Rāya: bāhire viṣajvālā hoy, antare ānandamoy.

“The wonderful characteristic of divine love of Krishna is that although externally it works like fiery lava, internally it is like sweet nectar that fills the heart with the greatest joy.” Volcanic eruptions of ecstasy flowed from the heart of Śrī Gaurāṅga in the agony of separation from Krishna. This Golden Lord, who appeared like an intoxicated elephant, is none other than Lord Govinda. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, embracing the neck of Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, began to sorrowfully recite the prayers Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī had previously spoken in the agony of separation when Lord Krishna left Vrindāvan for Mathurā. The Lord would continuously taste the mood of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who was experiencing untold agony from the burning fire of Her tragic separation from Lord Krishna. With a heavy heart, the Lord would describe what He was directly realising in divine trance. Those realisations are just like dreams to ordinary men. The eightfold symptoms depicting the moods of pure dedication would decorate and radiantly enhance the beauty of the Lord's bodily parts. Sometimes He appeared like a tortoise who had withdrawn his limbs into his shell, and at other times His body appeared elongated due to His joints becoming dislocated. Sometimes Lord Gaurasundar's figure was as tender and aromatic as a lotus flower. At other times the Lord's body would appear red, yellow, or brilliant with the white hue of the jasmine flower. By performing these Pastimes, the Lord would inundate the devotees' hearts with waves from the grand ocean of love of Krishna. Those desper-

Like a golden moon, Śrī Gaurachandra appeared in the year 1407 Śakābda (1486 A.D.), at the onset of a lunar eclipse on a full-moon evening in the month of March. When the Absolute Truth Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva incarnated in the beautiful courtyard of Śachīdevī, the residents of Māyāpur were bathing in the sacred Ganges, congregationally chanting the Holy Names of Hari, and making offerings of various types of jewels to the Lord. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

This is the all-conquering conclusion: the highest conception of the Ultimate Reality must also be the highest form of ānanda, ecstasy. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is Krishna, ecstasy Himself, tasting His own sweetness and dancing in ecstatic joy. His own Holy Name is the cause of His ecstasy, expressed as dancing, and the Holy Name is the effect of His ecstasy, expressed as chanting. The cause is the effect. The dynamo is creating ecstatic energy which makes Him dance, and His chanting distributes that ecstasy to others. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Śrī Īśvara Purī became very fortunate when Lord Gaurāṅga exhibited His causeless mercy by accepting initiation from him. Śrī Keśava Bhāratī was 119 similarly favoured in that in his presence, Lord Gaurāṅga shaved His beautiful curly hair and accepted from him the garments of a renunciate. Lord Chaitanya gave undivided attention to Śrī Mādhavendra Purī, stating that his attachment for serving Lord Krishna's kiśora form in conjugal love was the highest expression of dedication. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

I offer my respects unto Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who rose like a golden moon in Śrī Māyāpur in 1407 Śakābda, revealed the pastime of accepting the garments of the renounced order, sannyās, in 1431 Śakābda in order to benedict the entire material universe, and disappeared beyond the ordinary vision of the people of this world in 1455 Śakābda. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

With great joy Śrī Gaurasundar told His dearmost associates Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar and Rāmānanda Rāya that the process of congregationally chanting the Holy Names of Krishna bestows the highest benediction upon the living entities in this age of Kali:

harṣe prabhu kohena, “śuno svarūpa-rāma-rāya nāma saṅkīrttana kalau, parama upāya”

In His famous composition Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam also, Lord Gaurāṅga has placed the chanting of Lord Krishna's Names on the topmost level of importance. The Supreme Lord further taught that chanting Lord Krishna's Names in pure love of Godhead perfectly nourishes and 120 fully satisfies all the living entities in the universe.

I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna prema.

Please give some slight attention to this fallen soul and pardon his unlimited offenses. There are so many servants of Śrī Rūpa who are so dear to You. My only aspiration is that You count me as one of those servitors. Oh Gaurasundar, You are the sole protector and embodiment of good fortune for me, Rāmānanda Dās. I offer my obeisances to you, Oh Gaurāṅga Sundar, my most beautiful Golden Lord, the divine form of Krishna prema.

dīnahīna patita pāmara nāhi bāche

(3) Lord Nityananda freely offered this rare gift of love of Godhead, which is difficult for even Lord Brahmā to attain, to the fallen and wretched souls who were not desirous of receiving it.

ābaddha koruṇā-sindhu kāṭiyā muhāna

(4) Saying this Nityānanda falls to the ground, appearing like a golden mountain rolling in the dust.

heno avatāre jāra rati nā janmilo

(5) Where attachment for such an incarnation has not arisen, Lochan dās says that such a sinful person comes and goes in the cycle of repeated birth and death.

nitāi gaurachandra
saba avatāra-      sāra śiromaṇi, kevala ānanda-kanda

(1) Lord Nitāi and Lord Gaurachandra, are the two most merciful lords. They are the crest-jewels of all incarnations and the only source of transcendental ecstatic joy.

bhaja bhaja bhāi,      chaitanya nitāi, sudṛḍha biśvāsa kori'

dekho ore bhāi,      tri-bhuvane nāi emona doyāla dātā paśu pākhī jhure,      pāṣāṇa vidore,

Doyāl Nitāi Chaitanya

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

‘doyāl nitāi chaitanya’ bo’le nāch re āmār man nāch re āmār man, nāch re āmār man

(1) Oh my mind, just dance! Oh my mind, just dance! Oh my mind, please dance, chanting, “Doyāl Nitāi Chaitanya!”

(emon doyāl to nāi he, mār kheye prema dey) (tabe) aparādha dūre jābe, pābe prema-dhan (aparādhera-bichāra to nāi he) takhon krṣṇa-nāme ruchi habe, ghuchibe bandhan

(2) Such a merciful personality as Nityānanda Prabhu is not to be found anywhere. He suffers a beating from Jagāi and Mādhāi and still gives them love of God.

When you become offenceless, you will obtain love of God; but in these Names of Chaitanya and Nitāi there is no consideration of offences. Once you have a taste for the Holy Name of Krishna, bondage to this world will come to an end.

(anurāg to habe he) tokhon anāyāse saphal habe jīvera jīvan (krṣṇa-rati binā jīvan to miche he ) śeše vr̄ndāvane rādhā-śyāmer pābe daraśan (gaura-kṛpā hole he)

(3) When there is attachment to the Holy Name of Krishna, then, very easily, the life of a living being becomes successful. Without attachment to Krishna, life is simply false. If the mercy of Lord Gaura is there, then at the end of life you will obtain the beautiful vision of Rādhā and Śyāma in Vr̄ndāvan.

               se jana bhakati-adhikārī

(2) In one who takes the Holy Name of Gaurāṅga, there is an awakening of love of Godhead. To such a person I say, “Bravo, excellent!” If one appreciates the transcendental qualities of Lord Gaurāṅga, the eternal Pastimes manifest in their heart. Such a person has real devotional qualification.

(3) By considering the associates of Lord Gaurāṅga to be eternally perfect, one can attain the association of Śrī Krishna in Braja Dhām. Whoever considers the land of Lord Gaurāṅga, Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām to be the land of transcendental touchstone, that person takes residence in Braja Dhām, Śrī Vṛndāvan.

(4) Whoever dives into the waves of the nect- 129 arean ocean of love of Lord Gaurāṅga becomes an intimate associate of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava. Whether one lives in a house or in the forest, if they chant ‘Oh Lord Gaurāṅga!’ Narottam dās begs to attain their association.

Gaurā Pahū

by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

gaurā pahū nā bhajiyā mainu

(1) O Lord Gaura! I have not worshiped You and have been robbed of the jewel of divine love by my own negligence.

adhane jatana kori dhana teyā-ginu

(2) Although I am in need of Your wealth, I have endeavoured to reject Your riches and instead I have dived into sinful material activity.

sat-saṅga chādi koinu asate vilāsa

(3) Avoiding the association of saintly persons, I have enjoyed sporting with materialistic people. For that reason I have become bound in the noose of fruitive activity and its reactions.

viṣoya-biṣama-biṣa satata khāinu

(4) I have perpetually drunk the horrible poison of material sense gratification and have never become absorbed in the sweet nectar of the chanting of Lord Gaura’s Names.

keno bā āchaye prāṇa ki sukha lāgiyā

avatāra sāra      gorā avatāra

(1) The incarnation of Śrī Gaura is the most excellent of all incarnations. Why haven't I worshipped Him? It is as if I was surrounded by water but denied myself a drink, returning to my own fruitive activity.

(2) I chewed the thorns of the tree of worldly life and considered the blood that flowed through my mouth to be nectar. When offered the fruits of the wish-fulfilling tree of ecstatic love of Lord Gaurāṅga, I rejected them, thinking them to be poison.

saura-bhera āse      palāśa śuṅkili (mana)

(3) Desirous of smelling a sweet scent, I sniffed at what I thought to be a fragrant flower. Alas, that flower was odourless like the palāśa flower and instead an insect flew up my nose and bit me. Thinking material life to be sweet like sugarcane, I tried to taste its nectar. Instead, it was like chewing dry wood. In this way all my attempts at enjoyment were false.

‘hāra’ boliyā      golāya parili (mana) śamana kiṅkora sāpa ‘śītala’ boliyā      āguna pohāli (mana)
pāli bajara-tāpa

(4) Admitting defeat, wasted and worn out, I await the snake of death. Declaring it to be cool and soothing, I have embraced the fire of material life, only to suffer intense misery, as if struck by lightning.

samsāra bhajili      śrī-gaurāṅga bhulili nā śunili sādhura kathā iha-parakāla      dukāla khoyāli (mana) khāili āpana māthā

(5) Worshipping my family and my material life, I forgot Lord Gaurāṅga and didn’t listen to the instructions of the saints. Now in my final days, I realise I have died twice, for not only am I leaving this mortal body, but I am also dead while living, having wasted my life in material indulgence.

gṛhe thāko, vane thāko, sadā ‘hari’ bole’ dāko,

(2) Whether you live at home or in the forest always chant the Lord’s Holy Name; in happiness or sadness, don’t forget—chant the Holy Name and fill your lips with Harinām.

māyā-jāle baddha ho’ye, ācho miche kāja lo’ye, ekhona o chetana peye, rādhā-mādhava-nām bolo re

(3) Bound in māyā’s net you’ve slaved and toiled in vain. But now that you have a human life and consciousness, chant the Lord’s Name, “Rādhā-Mādhava.”

jīvana hoilo śeṣa, nā bhajile hṛṣīkeśa

(4) This life must surely end soon, and you have not worshiped Hṛṣīkeśa, the master of the senses. Bhaktivinoda advises: at least once, taste the nāma-rasa, the nectar of the Holy Name.

(4) “If one knows the two kinds of Vedic knowledge, he still does not know anything. But if one knows Lord Gaurāṅga, he knows the most precious knowledge. Nayanānanda says: Such a person knows everything. All perfections stay in the palm of his hand.”

by Śrīla Vāsudeva Ghoṣa jadi gaura nā ho'to,      tobe ki hoito, kemone dhoritām de rādhāra mahimā                prema-rasa-simā jagate jānāta ke?

(1) If Lord Gaura had not come, then what would have become of us? How could we have maintained our lives? If He had not come, then how could we know of the glories of Śrī Rādhā and the topmost limit of ecstatic love of Krishna?

madhura vṛndā,                vipina mādhuri, praveśa chāturi sāra baraja-juvatī,                bhāvera bhakati, śakati hoito kāra?

(2) Who would have had the capacity to render ecstatic devotional service, following the mood of the damsels of Braja? Indeed, the clever expertise of the Braja-gopīs is essential for entering the supremely sweet forest of Vṛndā, Śrī Vṛndāvan.

gāo punah punah,                gaurāṅgera guṇa, sarala koriyā mana
e bhava-sāgare,                emona doyāla, nā dekhiye eka-jana

(3) Sing again and again the wonderful qualities of Lord Gaurāṅga while keeping your heart simple. In the ocean of this material world, not a single person has ever seen such a magnanimous and merciful Lord.

gaurāṅga boliyā,                nā genu goliyā kemone dhorinu de vāsur hiyā,                        pāṣāṇa diyā kemone godiyāche

(4) Even though I am chanting ‘Gaurāṅga!’ somehow I have not melted in ecstatic love. So how have I maintained the burden of this body? How is it that the creator has given this Vāsu a stone in place of his heart?

Emona Gaurāṅga bine nāhi āra
 by Śrīla Premānanda dās

emona gaurāṅga bine nāhi āra
 heno avatāra                      hobe ki hoyeche

(1) No one is like Lord Gaurāṅga! Will there ever be an incarnation like Him, an incarnation that preached ecstatic love of Godhead as He did?

duramati ati                      patita pāṣāṇḍī prāṇe nā mārilo kore

(2) He did not kill the fallen wicked-hearted blasphemers. Instead He went from house to house visiting them. He begged them to chant Lord Krishna's Holy Names. He gave them the Holy Names and purified their hearts.

bhava biriñchira                vāñchito je prema

(3) To the world He freely gave the rare gift of ecstatic love of Godhead, a gift even Brahmā and Shiva attain only with great difficulty. Attaining that gift, the poor people of this world danced and clapped their hands.

hāsiye kādiye      preme gaḍāgaḍi pulake byāpilo aṅga chaṇḍāle brāhmaṇe      kore kolākuli kobe bā chilo e raṅga

(4) They laughed and wept. Overcome with ecstasy, they rolled on the ground. The hairs of their bodies stood erect. The brāhmaṇas and chaṇḍālas embraced. There was great bliss.

dākiye hākiye      khol karatāle gāiye dhāiye phire dekhiyā śamana      tarāsa pāiye kapāṭa hānilo dvāre

(5) Loudly they called out the Holy Names playing the mṛdaṅga and karatālas. They sang, ran, and danced in a circle. Seeing all this, peaceful composure became afraid, fled, and knocked on people's doors.

e tina bhuvana      ānande bhorilo uṭhilo maṅgala sora
 kohe premānanda      emona gaurāṅga

(6) An auspicious tumult arose. The three worlds were filled with bliss. Premānanda says: “Alas! Attachment for Lord Gaurāṅga did not arise in me.”

'Gaurāṅga' bolite habe

by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

'gaurāṅga' bolite hobe pulaka-śorīra
'hari hari' bolite nayane ba'be nīra

(1) When will there be shivering of the body upon chanting Lord Gaurāṅga's Holy Name? When will there be tears in my eyes while chanting the Lord's Holy Name?

āra kabe nitāi-chāda koruṇā koribe saṁsāra-bāsanā more kabe tucha ha'be

(2) When will I obtain the mercy of Lord Nītyānanda? When, by His mercy, will my desire for material enjoyment become insignificant?

bisoya chādiyā kabe śuddha ha'be mana kabe hāma herabo śrī-vṛndāvana

(3) When will my mind be completely purified, having given up all material desires? When will I attain the vision of Śrī Vṛndāvan Dhām?

rūpa-raghunātha-pade hoibe ākuti kabe hāma bujhabo se jugala-pirīti

(4) When will I be eager to follow in the footsteps of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth, and when will I properly understand the loving affairs of the divine couple?

rūpa-raghunātha-pade rahu mora āśa prārthanā koroye sadā narottama-dāsa

(5) My only aspiration is to attain the lotus feet of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth. Narottam dās continually submits this prayer.

The Holy Appearance Day of Śrī Gaurasundar
by Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

aruṇa basane      sonara sūraja udiche keno re āja basanta susamā      ujāri āpanā dṛhale keno jagamājha

(1) Why has the Lord appeared suddenly with golden complexion and with golden dress just like the morning sun? Why has He come in the middle of springtime as everything feels so beautiful and wonderful?

taru gulmalatā      apūrvva baratā bahe keno phole phule bhṛṅga o bihangé      keno heno raṅge saṅgīta taraṅga tule

(2) I cannot understand why, but all the trees, plants and creepers are full of fruits and flowers and they are making song and dance with Mahāprabhu.

patita durjjana      keno re garjjana ullāse phāṭhiyā poḍe vidyā kula dhana      abhimānī jana keno mlāna duḥkha bhore

(3) I am very fallen and unqualified. Why is this sound vibration coming to me, and why am I getting inspiration through it. Those who have high caste, vast knowledge and material wealth, they have so much ego and pride. Why are they suffering?

ākāśa bātāsa      ghuchāiya trāsa āsvāse bhāsāye dey
sādhu-jana mana      sukha vitarāṇa āveśe unmāda hoy

140 (4) The sky and the air are so beautiful in the spring season, and they are naturally nourishing and inspiring everybody. In the same way the sound vibration of the devotees spreads everywhere automatically as they distribute Krishna's Name.

chaudikete dhvani      ki apūrva śuni bahujana ucharola
hare kṛṣṇa rāma      nāma divya-dhāma hari hari hari bolo

(5) What a remarkable sound is heard in all directions bringing jubilation to all the people. The devotees chant the divine Names "Hare, Krishna, Rāma," and the transcendental abode manifests. Chant Hari Hari Hari!

phālgunī pūrnimā      hindola raṅgimā sujana-bhajana rāge saṅkīrtana sane          marama gahane nā jāni kibhāva jāge

(6) On His holy appearance day, the festival of Holly takes place. All the devotees are chanting as well as all the Hindus. No-one can understand the feeling and the substance that comes within the heart from that saṅkīrtan.

sandhyā samāgama      tapana magana keno hema ghana kole aparūpa kata              pūraba parvvata suvarṇa chandramā bhāle

(7) As the sunset approaches, the sun shines on the mountain illuminating it like it has golden ornaments. This is especially so in the springtime. Then as the moon rises it also beautifies that mountain with its rays.

suvarṇa chandramā      paśiche nīlimā se nīla bilīna heme ithe kiba bhāya      sādhu-jana gāya kalaṅka nā rahe preme

(8) The blue sky is covered by the Golden Moon and when the devotees glorify the Lord with their discussions, no other conception or motive can exist other than Krishna consciousness. At that time, prema, divine love descends automatically without any impediment.

maḥājane bole                  grahaṇera chole saṅge nāma saṅkīrttana gaurachandrodaya        pāpa rāhu kṣaya chandraśobhā prema dhana

(9) The great devotees say, take up your spiritual path with the congregational chanting of the Lord's Holy Names. With the appearance of Śrī Gaurachandra, all sinfulness is removed and everyone attains the treasure of love of Godhead.

marmajñā sakale                  keho kutūhale nīlimā bilīna chāde channa avatāra                  lukāna kāhāra rādhā-ruchi-rūpa-chāde

(10) Everyone who engages in this nāma saṅkīrttan of Mahāprabhu, comes to enquire sincerely and to know the innermost secret of the Lord's bluish colour absorbed by his golden features. This is the hidden incarnation of the Lord and the concealed feature of His form is that he is tasting the threefold relish of Śrī Rādhā.

ithe heno stuti                  rādhā-bhāva dyuti suvalita śyāmarāo udilo gaurāṅga                  nāma-prema saṅga jaya jaya gorā gāo

(11) Thus I pray to the dark cowherd Śyāmasundar who has taken the mood and effulgence of Śrī Rādhā. That Lord, Śrī Chaitanya appeared with the chanting of the pure divine name; everyone chant the glories of that Golden Lord, Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu.

by Śrīla Narottam dās Thākur ṭhākura-vaiṣṇava-pada,      avanīra susampada, śuno bhāi! hoiya eka mana āśroya loiyā bhaje,            tāre kṛṣṇa nāhi tyaje āro saba more akārana

(1) O brother, hear my words with rapt attention: The lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas are the most valuable treasure in the world. Take shelter of those Vaiṣṇavas, and worship them. Krishna cannot abandon one who worships Him in this way. All others meet a meaningless death.

vaiṣṇava-charaṇa-jol, prema-bhakti dite bol, āro keho nahe balavanta vaiṣṇava-charaṇa-renu, mastake bhūṣaṇa vinu āra nāhi bhūsanera anta

(2) The water which has washed the lotus feet of the Vaisnavas bestows devotional service in pure love of Godhead. There is nothing as effective in attaining this divine love. I place the dust from the lotus feet of the Vaisnavas upon my head. I wear no other ornament.

tīrthajol-pavitra-guṇe, likhiyāche purāṇe, se saba bhaktira pravañchana vaiṣṇavera pādadoka, sama nahe ei saba, jāte hoyā vāñchito pūraṇa

(3) The purifying power of the waters of the various places of pilgrimage is described in the Purāṇas, although this is something of a deceptive trick. Actually there is nothing which is as purifying as the water which has washed the lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas. This water fulfills all desires.

vaiṣṇava-saṅge te mana, ānandita anukṣaṇa, sadā hoy kṛṣṇa-parasaṅga dīna narottama kāde, hiyā dhairja nāhi bāndhe, mora doṣā keno hoilo bhaṅga

(4) Moment by moment my mind finds constant pleasure in the association of the Vaiṣṇavas. I always seek the company of the devotees of Lord Krishna. Poor-hearted Narottam dās cries, “I cannot maintain my composure any longer. Why have I fallen into such a low condition of life that I cannot get the association of the Vaiṣṇavas?”

(3) Where are my Raghunāth Bhaṭṭa and Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmīs? Where am I to find Śrī Krishnadās Kavirāj now? All at once they have gone to join Lord Gaurāṅga, the great dancer.

pāśāṇe kuṭibo māṭhā anale paśibo

ei-bāro koruṇā koro vaiṣṇava-gosāi

(3) Merely by the touch of the waters of the sacred Ganges one becomes liberated, even if he is the lowest of mankind; but just by seeing you, the same effect is achieved. Such is your quality.

hari-sthāne aparādhe tāre harināma

(6) I hope that in every birth I will obtain the dust of your lotus feet. Śrī Narottam prays, “Please, Oh Vaiṣṇava Goswāmī, be kind unto me.”

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

kṛpa koro' vaiṣṇava ṭhākura

(1) Please give your mercy to me now, oh revered pure devotee! Vaiṣṇava Ṭhākur! Then only my false ego will go far away by my constant worship in full knowledge of my real eternal position.

‘ami to’ vaiṣṇava’ e buddhi hoile,

(2) If I falsely think that ‘I am a Vaiṣṇava’, then I shall look forward to receiving respect from others. And if the desire for fame and reputation pollute my heart, then certainly I shall go to live in hell instantly.

tomāra kiṅkora, āpane jānibo, ‘guru’-abhimān tyaji’
tomāra uchiṣṭha, padajala-reṇu,

(3) Renouncing the false conception that I am a ‘guru’, I will understand myself to be your humble servant. I sincerely worship the remnants of your food, oh pure devotee, as well as the water that has washed the sacred dust of your lotus feet.

‘nije sreṣṭha’ jāni’, uchiṣṭhādi dāne, ha’be abhimān bhār
tāi śisya tava, thākiyā sarvvadā,

(4) By giving others the remnants of my food, I shall consider myself superior and shall be burdened with the weight of false pride. Therefore, always remaining your surrendered disciple, I shall not accept worship from anyone else.

(5) If you will bestow upon me the capacity to chant the Holy Name, I will then give all honour to others without expecting any respect for myself. Thus I will sincerely weep in ecstasy while rolling on the ground at your lotus feet.

                 ‘rādhikā-ramaṇa’-nāme nāma amani,              udita hoyā, bhakata-gīta-sāme

(1) When the great soul Nārada Muni plays his stringed vīṇā, the Holy Name of Rādhikā-Ramaṇa descends and immediately appears amidst the kīrttan of the Lord’s devotees.

amiya-dhārā,              bariṣe ghana, śravana-jugale giyā

(2) Like a monsoon cloud, the Holy Name showers pure nectar into their ears. All the devotees, due to great ecstasy, enthusiastically dance to their heart’s content.

(4) The five-faced Lord Shiva embraces Nārada Muni and repeatedly makes loud screams of ecstatic joy, while Lord Brahmā dances very ecstatically and exclaims, "All of you chant 'Haribol ! Haribol!'" sahasrānana, parama-sukhe,

'hari hari' boli gāy
nāma-prabhāve, mātilo viśva,

(5) In supreme happiness the thousand-faced Ananta Śeṣa sings and calls out, "Hari! Hari!" By the influence of the transcendental vibration of that Name, the whole universe becomes ecstatically maddened as everyone tastes and relishes the mellows of the holy name.

Whatever they do, they are all-pleasing to everyone, and they are fully blessed by Lord Chaitanya. Thus they are engaged in missionary activities meant to deliver all the conditioned souls in the material universe.

(7) I offer my respectful obeisances unto the Six Goswāmīs, namely Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī, Śrī Sanātan Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, Śrī Jīva Goswāmī, and Śrī Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, who were sometimes on the bank of the Rādhā-kuṇḍa lake or the shores of the Yamunā and sometimes at Vamśīvaṭa. There they appeared just like madmen in the full ecstasy of love for Krishna, exhibiting different transcendental symptoms in their bodies, and they were merged in the ecstasy of Krishna consciousness.

152 Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, who were chanting very loudly everywhere in Vṛndāvan, shouting, “Queen of Vṛndāvan, Rādhārāṇī! O Lalitā! O son of Nanda Mahārāj! Where are you all now? Are you just on the hill of Govardhan, or are you under the trees on the bank of the Yamunā? Where are you?” These were their moods in executing Krishna consciousness.

Śrī Nāmāstakam 7
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

ohe harinām, tava mahimā apāra tava pade nati āmi kori bāro bāro

(1) O Holy Name! Your glories are boundless! Therefore I bow down at Your lotus feet again and again.

gokuler mahotsava ānanda-sāgara tomāra charaṇe poḍi hoiyā kātara

(2) O grand festival of Gokula! O ocean of bliss! I fall down at Your lotus feet, for I am feeling very distressed and troubled at heart.

tumi kṛṣṇa, pūrṇa-vapu, rasera nidāna tava pade poḍi tava guṇa kori gāna

(3) You are Lord Krishna, Your divine form is fully perfect and complete, and You are the origin of all transcendental mellites. Falling down at Your lotus feet, I sing of Your divine qualities.

je kore tomār pade ekānta āśroya tā'ra ārti-rāśi nāśa koroho niśchoya

(4) You definitely destroy the multitude of afflictions of that person who takes exclusive shelter at Your holy feet.

(5) You destroy all of their offences, even to the extent of the nāma-aparādhas (the ten offenses against the chanting of the Holy Name).

sarvva-doṣa dhauta kori' tāhāra hṛdoya simhāsane baiso tumi parama āśroya

(6) Cleansing them of all impurities, You are then seated upon the throne of their heart as their supreme shelter.

ati-ramya chid-ghana-ānanda-mūrtimān
'raso vai saḥ' boli' veda kore tuyā gān

(7) You are delightful and beautiful, the personification of complete cognizance and condensed bliss. The Vedas sing of You, saying, “The Supreme Personality of Godhead is verily the personification of all transcendental mellites.”

bhaktivinoda rūpa-gosvāmī-charaṇe māgaye sarvvadā nāma-sphūrti sarvva-kṣane

(8) At the lotus feet of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, Bhaktivinoda constantly begs at every moment for the direct revelation of the Holy Name.

Ki-rūpe pāibo sevā

by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

ki-rūpe pāibo sevā mui durāchāra śrī-guru-vaiṣṇave rati na hoilo āmāra

(1) I have no devotional attachment for either the Vaiṣṇavas or my Spiritual Master. How is it possible for a rascal like me to attain devotional service?

aśeṣa māyātē mana magana hoilo vaiṣṇavete leśa-mātra rati nā janmilo

(2) My mind is always drowning in illusion. I have not even the smallest fragment of devotion for the Vaiṣṇavas.

bīṣoye bhuliya andha hoinu divā-niśi gole phāṣa dite phere māyā se piśāchī

(3) I have become blind by constantly meditating on the objects of the senses. The witch Māyādevī has placed a hangman's noose around my neck.

māyāre koriyā jaya chāḍāna na jāya sādhu-kṛpā binā āro nahiko upāya

(4) Even if I can cure my blindness and defeat Māyā in the form of this hangman, I cannot become free from material illusion without the mercy of the saintly devotees.

adoṣa daraśi-prabhu patita-uddhāra ei-bāro narottame koroho nistāra

(5) Oh master, Oh purifier of the sinful, Oh saviour of the fallen souls, you do not see the faults of others, please rescue this Narottam dās.

by Śrīla Govinda dās Kavirāj

bhajahū re mana      śrī-nanda-nandana abhaya-charaṇāravinda re dūrlabha mānava      janama sat-saṅge taroho e bhava-sindhu re

- (1) O mind, just worship the lotus feet of the son of Nanda, which make one fearless. Having obtained this rare human birth, cross over this ocean of worldly existence through the association of saintly persons.

śīta ātapa      bāta bariṣaṇa e dina jāminī jāgi re biphale sevinu      kṛpaṇa durajana chapala sukha-laba lāgi' re

- (2) Both in the day and at night I remain sleepless, suffering the pains of the heat and cold, the wind and the rain. For a fraction of flickering happiness I have uselessly served wicked and miserly men.

e dhana, jauvana,      putra, pariṣana ithe ki āche paratīti re kamala-dala-jala,      jīvana ṭalamala bhajahū hari-pada niti re

- (3) What assurance of real happiness is there in all of one's wealth, youthfulness, sons, and family members? This life is tottering like a drop of water on a lotus petal; therefore you should always serve and worship the divine feet of Lord Hari.

śravaṇa, kīrttana,      smaraṇa, vandana, pūjana, sakhi-jana,      ātma-nivedana govinda-dāsa-abhilāṣa re

- (4) It is the desire and great longing of Govinda dās to engage himself in the nine processes of bhakti, namely hearing the glories of Lord Hari and chanting those glories, constantly remembering Him and offering prayers to Him, serving the Lord's lotus feet, serving the Supreme 156 Lord as a servant, worshipping Him with flowers and incense and so forth, serving Him as a friend, and completely offering the Lord one's very self.

Mānasa Deho Geho

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

mānasa, deho, geho, jo kichū mora arpilū tuyā pade, nanda-kiśora!

(1) Mind, body, and family, whatever may be mine, I have surrendered at Your lotus feet, O youthful son of Nanda!

sampade bipade, jīvane-maraṇe dāy mama gelā, tuyā o-pada baraṇe

(2) In good fortune or in bad, in life or at death, all my difficulties have disappeared by choosing those feet of Yours as my only shelter.

mārobi rākhobi—jo ichā tohārā nitya-dāsa prati tuyā adhikārā

(3) Slay me or protect me as You wish, for You are the master of Your eternal servant.

janmāobi moye ichā jadi tora bhakta-gṛhe janī janma hau mora

(4) If it is Your will that I be born again, then may it be in the home of Your devotee.

kīṭa-janma hau jathā tuyā dāsa bahir-mukha brahma-janme nāhi āśa

(5) May I be born again even as a worm, as long as I may remain Your devotee. I have no desire to be born as a Brahmā averse to You.

bhukti-mukti-sprhā bihīna je bhakta labhaite tāka saṅga anurakta

(6) I yearn for the company of the devotee completely devoid of all desire for worldly enjoyment or liberation.

janaka, jananī, doyita, tanoy prabhu, guru, pati—tuhū sarvva-moy

(7) Father, mother, lover, son, Lord, preceptor, and husband—You are everything to me. 157

bhakativinoda kohe, śuno kāna! rādhā-nātha! tuhū hāmāra parāṇa

(8) Bhaktivinoda says, “O Krishna, please hear me! Oh Lord of Rādhā, You are my life and soul!”

 E ghora samsare
by Kālidās

e ghora samsāre,      podiyā mānava na pāya duḥkhera śesa sādhu-saṅga kori,      hari bhaja jodi,

(1) Fallen into this material world of birth and death, there is no end to a person’s unhappiness. Still, if they associate with devotees and worship Lord Hari, then all their sadness and suffering will come to an end.

bīṣoya analē,      jvaliche hr̥daya, anale boḍe anal
aparādha chāḍi’      loy kr̥ṣṇa-nāma,

(2) The heart burns in the fire of sense gratification and the fire burns more and more. Avoiding offences, chant the Holy Names of Lord Krishna, for that will pour water on the fire.

nitāi chaitanya,      charaṇa-kamale,

(3) Kālidās says, “Anyone who has taken shelter of the lotus feet of Lord Chaitanya and Lord Nityānanda is my shelter in life and death.”

“Who is a Real Vaiṣṇava?”

by Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākur

duṣṭa mana! tumi kisera vaiṣṇava? pratiṣṭhāra tore, nirjjanera ghore, tava ‘harināma’ kevala ‘kaitava’

(1) Oh wicked mind! What kind of Vaiṣṇava do you think you are? Your pretentious show of chanting Lord Hari’s Holy Name in a solitary place is only for the sake of attaining the false prestige of a worldly reputation—it is nothing but pure hypocrisy.

jaḍera pratiṣṭhā, śūkarer biṣṭhā, jāno nā ki tāhā māyār vaibhava kanaka kāminī, divasa-jāminī, bhāviyā ki kāja, anitya se saba

(2) Such materialistic prestige is as disgusting as the stool of a hog. Do you not know that it is only a mere illusion cast by the potency of Māyā? What is the value of contemplating day and night your plans for enjoying wealth and women? All these things are only temporary.

tomāra kanaka, bhogera janaka, kanakera dvāre sevaho mādhava kāminīr kāma, nahe tava dhāma, tāhār—mālika kevala jādava

(3) When you claim wealth as your own, it creates in you ever-increasing desires for material enjoyment. Your riches should be used for serving Mādhava, the Lord of all wealth. Neither is it your proper place to indulge in lust for women, whose only true proprietor is Lord Jādava.

pratiṣṭhāśā-taru, jaḍa-māyā-maru, nā pela rāvaṇa jujhīyā rāghava vaiṣṇavī pratiṣṭhā, tāte koro niṣṭhā, tāhā nā bhajile labhibe raurava

(4) The demon Rāvaṇa (lust-incarnate) fought 159 with Lord Rāmachandra (love-incarnate) in order to gain the tree of worldly reputation—but that oasis turned out to be but a mirage cast in the desert wasteland of the Lord’s illusory material potency. Please cultivate fixed determination to attain only the steady and solid platform whereupon a Vaiṣṇava ever stands. If you neglect worshiping the Lord from this position, then you will ultimately attain a hellish existence.

harijana-dveṣa,        pratisthāśā-kleśa, koro keno tobe tāhāra gaurava vaiṣṇaver pāche,        pratisthāśā āche, tā’te kabhu nahe anitya-vaibhava

(5) Why do you needlessly suffer the torment of blaspheming the devotees of Lord Hari, attempting to achieve their eminence, thereby only proving your own fruitless foolishness? The desire for spiritual eminence is easily fulfilled when one becomes a devotee of the Lord, for eternal fame automatically follows the heels of a Vaiṣṇava. And that fame is never to be considered a temporary worldly opulence.

se hari-sambandha,        śūnya-māyā-gandha, tāhā kobhu noy jaḍer kaitava pratiṣṭhā-chaṇḍālī,        nirjjanatā-jāli, ubhaye jāniho māyika raurava

(6) The relationship between a devotee and Lord Hari is devoid of even a trace of worldly illusion; it has nothing to do with the materialistic cheating propensity. The prestige of so-called popularity in the material realm is compared to a treacherous dog-eating witch, and the attempt to live in solitude to supposedly engage in unalloyed bhajan is compared to an entangling network of distraction. Please know that anyone striving in either of these ways verily lives in the hell of Māyā’s illusion.

kīrttana chāḍibo,        pratiṣṭhā māgibo, ki kāja ḍhuḍiyā tādṛṣā gaurava mādhavendra purī,        bhāva-ghore churi, nā korilo kobhu sadāi jānabo

160 (7) “I shall give up chanting the Lord’s Name publicly in kirttan and retire to solitude, thus smearing myself with worldly honour.” Dear mind, what is the good of seeking such so-called glory? I will always remind you that the great soul Mādhavendra Puri never deceived himself in that regard by committing theft in his own storehouse of perception the way you do.

tomāra pratiṣṭhā,— śūkarera biṣṭhā, tār-saha sama kabhu nā mānava matsaratā-vaśe, tumi jāda-rase, ma’jecho chādiyā kīrttana-sauṣṭava

(8) Your cheap reputation is equal to the stool of a hog. An ordinary ambitious man like you can never be equated with a devotee of Mādhavendra Puri’s eminence. Under the sway of envy, you have drowned yourself in the filthy waters of material enjoyment after having abandoned the excellent perfection of congregational kirttan.

tāi duṣṭa mana, nirjana bhajan, prachāricho chole kuyogī-vaibhava prabhu sanātane, parama jatane, śikṣā dilo jāhā, chinto sei saba

(9) Truly, Oh wicked mind, the glories of so-called solitary worship are propagated only by false yogis using unscrupulous means to deceive others. To save yourself from these pitfalls, please contemplate the instructions that the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu kindly gave us while addressing Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī with the utmost care.

sei duṭi kathā, bhulo’ nā sarvathā, uchaiḥ-svare koro hari-nāma-rava phalgu āro jukta, baddha āro mukta, kabhu nā bhāviho, ‘ekākār’ saba

(10) Do not forget for a moment the two most valuable concepts that He taught: 1) the principle of dry, apparent renunciation as opposed to real, appropriate renunciation; and 2) the principle of a soul being trapped in the bondage of matter as opposed to a soul who is liberated.

Don't ever make the mistake of thinking that these conflicting concepts are on the same level. Please remember this while engaging yourself in chanting the Lord's Holy Names as loud as you possibly can. 161

kanaka-kāminī,      pratiṣṭhā-bāghinī, chādiyāche jāre, sei to' vaiṣṇava sei anāsakta,      sei śuddha-bhakta, samsāra tathā pāy parābhava

(11) One is truly a Vaiṣṇava who has given up the habit of falling victim to the ferocious tigress of wealth, beauty, and fame. Such a soul is factually detached from material life, and is known as a pure devotee. Someone with this consciousness of detachment has thereby become victorious over the mundane world of birth and death.

jathā-jogya bhoga,      nāhi tathā roga, anāsakta sei, ki āro kahabo āsakti-rohita,      sambandha-sohito, viṣoya-samūha sakali mādhava

(12) One is indeed detached who moderately partakes of worldly things that are deemed necessary for living in devotional service; a devotee acting in that manner does not fall prey to the disease of material infatuation. Thus devoid of selfish attachment, and endowed with the ability to see things in relation to the Lord, all sense objects are then directly perceived as being Lord Mādhava Himself.

se jukta-vairāgya,      tāhā to' saubhāgya, tāhāi jaḍete harir vaibhava kīrttane jāhār,      pratiṣṭhā-sambhār, tāhār sampatti kevala kaitava

(13) This is the standard of befitting renunciation, and one who realizes this is most fortunate indeed. Everything involved in such a devotee's life represents Lord Hari's personal spiritual opulence as manifest in the world of matter. On the other hand, one who engages in chanting the Lord's Name with hopes of enhancing his own material reputation finds that all his activities and paraphernalia represent only the riches of hypocrisy.

162      viṣoya-mumukṣu,      bhoger bubhuksu, du'ye tyajo mana, dui avaiṣṇava kṛṣṇer sambandha, aprākṛta-skandha, kobhu nāhe tāhā jaḍer sambhava

(14) Oh mind, please reject the company of two types of persons—those desiring impersonal liberation from the material world, and those who desire to enjoy the pleasure of material sense objects. Both of these are equally non-devotees. The things that are used in relation to Lord Krishna are objects belonging directly to the transcendental realm, and thus having nothing to do with matter they cannot be either owned or forsaken by persons interested in mundane enjoyment or renunciation.

māyāvādī jana,      kṛṣṇetara mana, mukta abhimāne se ninde vaiṣṇava vaiṣṇavera dāsa,      tava bhakti-āśa, keno vā ḍākicho nirjjana-āhava

(15) An impersonal philosopher is opposed to thinking of Krishna as an object of devotion, and thus being puffed up with the false pride of imaginary liberation he dares to criticize the true devotees of the Lord. Oh mind, you are the servant of the Vaiṣṇavas, and you should always hope for attaining devotion. Why then do you make such a loud commotion by calling to me and trying to prove the supposed supremacy of your practice of solitary worship?

je phalgu-vairāgī,      kohe niye tyāgī, se nā pāre kobhu hoite vaiṣṇava hari-pada chādi',      nirjanatā bādi, labhiyā ki phol, phalgu se vaibhava

(16) One who falsely gives up things that could actually be used in the Lord's service proudly calls himself a 'renunciate,' but unfortunately he can never become a Vaiṣṇava by such an attitude. Abandoning his servitorship to the lotus feet of Lord Hari, and resigning himself to his solitary home—whatever is gained by that exercise can only be the worthless treasure of deception.

rādhā-dāsye rohi,      chāḍī bhoga-ahi, 163 pratiṣṭhāśā nahe kīrttana-gaurava rādhā-nitya-jana,      tāhā chāḍī mana, keno vā nirjhana-bhajana-kaitava

(17) Ever engage yourself in the service of Śrī Rādhā, and keep aloof from the vicious snake of materialistic sense gratification. The glory of participating in the Lord's kīrttan is not meant to bolster anyone's ambitions for personal recognition. Oh mind, why then have you abandoned the identity of being Rādhā's eternal servant in favour of retiring to a solitary place to practice the cheating process of so-called bhajan?

braja-vāsī-gaṇa,      prachāraka-dhana, pratiṣṭhā-bhikṣuka tārā nahe śava prāṇa āche tāra,      se-hetu prachāra, pratiṣṭhāśā-hīna-'krṣṇa-gāthā' saba

(18) The most valuable treasures amongst the Lord's preachers are the eternal personalities residing in Braja-dhām. They never occupy themselves with begging for worthless material reputation, which is cherished only by the living dead. The Braja-vāsīs are truly infused with life, and therefore they preach in order to give life to the walking corpses of the mundane world. All the songs that the Braja-vāsīs sing about the glories of Lord Krishna are devoid of any tinge of desire for fame.

śrī-dayita-dāsa,      kīrttanete āśa, koro uchaiḥ-svare harināma rava kīrttana-prabhāve,      smaraṇa svabhāve, se kāle bhajana-nirjhana sambhava

(19) This humble servant of Rādhā and Her beloved Krishna always hopes for kīrtan, and he begs all to loudly sing the Names of Lord Hari. The transcendental power of congregational chanting automatically awakens remembrance of the Lord and His divine Pastimes in relation to one's own eternal spiritual form. Only at that time does it become possible to go off to a solitary place and engage in the confidential worship of Their Lordships.

(6) Travelling from place to place, proud of my education, I grew wealthy and maintained my family with undivided attention. O Lord Hari, I forgot You!

kādiyā kātara ati
nā bhajiyā tore,      dina vṛthā gelo, ekhon ki ho'be gati!

(7) Now in old age, this Bhaktivinoda very sadly weeps. I failed to worship You, O Lord, and instead passed my life in vain. What will be my fate now?

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

hari he! prapañche podiyā, agati hoiyā, nā dekhi upāya āro
agatira gati, charane śarana, tomāya korinu sāra

(1) O my Lord Hari! Having fallen into the illusion of this world, thus rendered helpless, I see no other means of deliverance but You. Since You are the only recourse for the helpless, I accept the shelter of Your lotus feet as most essential.

karama geyāna, kichu nāhi mora, sādhana bhajana nāi
tumi kṛpā-moya, āmi to' kāngāla,

(2) I have no background of pious activities, nor any knowledge, nor any regulated devotional practice. But You are full of compassion and kindness; therefore I, being indeed destitute, solicit Your causeless mercy.

vākyā-mano-vega, krodha-jihvā-vega,

(3) The powerful urges of speech, mind, anger, tongue, belly, and genitals have banded together to cast me adrift on the sea of this material world, thus causing me grievous trouble.

oneka jatane, se saba damane, chādiyāchi āsā āmi

(4) After numerous endeavours to subdue these material demands, I have completely given up all hope. Oh Lord of the destitute! I call upon Your Holy Name, for now You are my only hope.

by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

hari hari! biphole janama goyāinu manuṣya-janama pāiyā, rādhā-kṛṣṇa nā bhajiyā, jāniyā śuniyā biṣa khāinu

(1) Oh Lord Hari, I have spent my life uselessly. Having obtained a human birth and having not worshipped Rādhā and Krishna, I have knowingly drunk poison.

golokera prema-dhana, harināma-saṅkīrttana, rati nā janmilo keno tāya saṁsāra-biṣānale, divā-niśi hiyā jvale,

(2) The treasure of divine love in Goloka Vṛndāvan has descended as the congregational chanting of Lord Hari's Holy Names. Why did my attraction for that chanting never come about? Day and night my heart burns from the fire of the poison of worldliness, and I have not taken the means to relieve it.

brajendra-nandana jei, śachī-suta hoilo sei, dīna-hīna jata chilo, harināme udhārilo, tāra śākṣī jagāi mādhāi

(3) Lord Kṛṣṇa, who is the son of the King of Braja, became the son of Śachī (Lord Chaitanya), and Balarām became Nitāi. The Holy Name delivered all those souls who were lowly and wretched. The two sinners Jagāi and Mādhāi are evidence of this.

(4) Oh Lord Krishna, son of Nanda, accompanied by the daughter of Vṛṣabhānu, please be merciful to me now. Narottam dās says, "O Lord, please do not push me away from Your reddish lotus feet, for who is my beloved except for You?"

āmāra jīvana,      sadā pāpe rata, nāhiko puṇyera leśa
 porere udvega,      diyāchi je koto,

(1) My life is always attached to sinful activity and there is not even a small part of goodness in it. I have caused others anxiety and given trouble to other souls.

nija sukha lāgi',      pāpe nāhi ḍori, doyā-hīna svārtha-paro para-sukhe duḥkhī,      sadā mithya-bhāṣī, para-duḥkha sukha-koro

(2) For the sake of my own happiness I have openly performed sinful activity. Devoid of compassion, I am concerned only with my own selfish interests. Always telling lies, I become miserable to see the happiness of others, while the misery of others brings great happiness to me.

aśeṣa kāmanā,      hṛdi mājhe mora, krodhī, dambha-parāyana mada-matta sadā,      viṣoye mohita, sarvvasva tomāra,      charane sāpiyā, podechi tomāra ghore

tumi to' ṭhākur,      tomāra kukkur, boliyā jānaho more

(1) Now taking all that I possess and surrendering it unto Your lotus feet, O Lord, I throw myself down before Your house. You are the master of the house; kindly consider me Your own dog.

bāḍhiyā nikaṭe,      āmāre pālibe, rohibo tomāra dvāre pratīpa-jonere,      āsite nā dibo, rākhibo godera pāre

(2) Chaining me nearby, You will maintain me, and I shall lie at Your doorstep. I will not allow Your enemies to enter, but will keep them outside the bounds of the surrounding moat.

tava nija-jana,      prasād seviyā, uchiṣṭa rākhibe jāhā āmāra bhojana,      parama-ānande, prati-dina hobe tāhā

(3) Whatever food remnants Your devotees leave behind after honouring Your prasād will be my daily sustenance. I will feast on those remnants in great bliss.

bosiyā śuiyā,      tomāra charaṇa, chintibo satata āmi nāchite nāchite,      nikaṭe jāibo, jokhona dākibe tumi

(4) While sitting up or lying down, I will constantly meditate on Your lotus feet. Whenever You call me, I will immediately run to You and dance in rapture.

nijera posaṇa,      kobhu nā bhāvibo, rohibo bhāvera bhore bhaktivinoda,      tomāra pālaka, boliyā varaṇa kore

(5) I will never even think about arranging for my own nourishment, and will remain absorbed in ever cherishing love for my master. Bhaktivinoda now accepts You as his only maintainer.

 Dainya O Prapatti

hari he doyāla mora jaya rādhā-nātha bāro bāro ei-bāro loho nija sātha

(1) O Hari! O my merciful Lord! All glories to You, the Lord of Rādhā! Many times I have avoided You, but this time please take me as Your own.

bahu joni bhrami nātha! loinu śaraṇa nija-guṇe kṛpā koro adhama tāraṇa

(2) O Lord, after wandering through many wombs, I have taken refuge in You. Be merciful and deliver this wretched soul by Your divine power.

jagata-kāraṇa tumi jagata-jīvana tomā chāḍā kāro na'hi he rādhā-ramaṇa

(3) O lover of Rādhā, You are the cause of the universe and the life of the universe. Without You no-one has anything.

bhuvana-maṅgala tumi bhuvanera pati tumi upekṣile nātha, ki hoibe gati

(4) You bring about auspiciousness for the world, and You are the master of all the worlds as well. O Lord, what will be my refuge if You neglect me?

bhāviyā dekhinu ei jagata-mājhāre tomā binā keho nāhi e dāse uddhāre

(5) I have considered that in this world there is no one except You who can deliver this fallen servant.

Ātma-samarpaṇe

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

ātma-samarpaṇe gelā abhimāna nāhi korobū nija rakṣā-vidhān

(1) Surrendering my soul unto You has lifted from me the burden of false pride. No longer will I try to provide for my own safety.

tuyā dhana jāni' tuhū rākhobi, nāth! pālya godhana jāni kori' tuyā sāth

(2) I know that You will give protection to Your treasured possessions, Oh Lord. I now understand the mentality of Your treasured cows safely maintained by Your side.

charāobi mādhava! jamunā-tīre bamśī bājāoto ḍākobi dhīre

(3) When You lead Your herds to pasture, Oh Mādhava, on the banks of the Jamunā river, You will call to them by softly playing on Your flute.

agha-baka mārato rakṣā-vidhāna korobi sadā tuhū gokula-kāna!

(4) By slaying great demons such as Aghāsura and Bakāsura You will always provide full protection, Oh Kān of Gokul!

rakṣā korobi tuhū niśchoy jāni pāna korobū hām jāmuna-pāni

(5) Fearless and confident of Your protection, I will drink the waters of the Jamunā.

(6) The Kālīya serpent's venom poisoned the Jamunā's waters, yet that poison will be vanquished. You will purify the Jamunā, and by such heroic deeds enhance our faith.

piyato dāvānala rākhobi moy
'gopāla', 'govinda' nāma tava hoy

(7) You will surely protect me by swallowing the forest fire. Thus You are called Gopāl (protector of the cows) and Govinda (pleaser of the cows).

sura-pati-durmati-nāśa vichāri' rākhobe varṣaṇe, giri-vara-dhāri!

(8) In order to curb the malice of Indra, king of the demigods, You will protect me from his torrents of rain, Oh lifter of the mighty Govardhan Hill!

chatur-ānana korabo jabo chorī rakṣā korobimeye, gokula-hari!

(9) When the four-headed Brahmā abducts me along with Your cowherd boyfriends and calves, then also You will surely protect me, Oh Gokul Hari!

bhaktivinoda—tuyā gokula-dhan rākhobi keśava! korato jatan

(10) Bhaktivinoda is now the property of Gokul, Your holy abode. Oh Keśava! Kindly protect him with gentle loving care.

(5) When, in the land of Nabadwīp, on the banks of the Ganges, will I run about, guilelessly calling, “O Gaura! O Nityānanda!” dancing and singing like a madman, giving up all considerations?

kobe nityānanda, more kori’ doyā, chāḍāibe mora viṣoyera māyā

(7) I shall buy and plunder the mellow of the Name Hari, and becoming thoroughly intoxicated by those liquid mallows of the Holy Name, I shall become stunned. By touching the feet of those great souls who are able to relish those mallows, I will be constantly immersed in the sweet nectar of the Holy Name.

kobe jīve doyā, hoibe udoya,

(8) When will there be an awakening of compassion for all fallen souls, and when will this Bhaktivinoda, forgetting his own happiness, with a meek heart set out to propagate by humble entreaty the sacred order of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu?

Nivedana

Part 1

gopīnāth, mama nivedana śuno viṣoyī durjana, sadā kāma-rata, kichu nāhi mora guṇa

(1) Oh Gopīnāth, Lord of the gopīs, please hear my submission. I am a wicked materialist, always addicted to worldly desires, and no good qualities do I possess.

gopīnāth, āmāra bharasā tumi tomāra charaṇe, loinū śaraṇa, tomāra kiṅkoro āmi

(2) Oh Gopīnāth, You are my only hope, and therefore I have taken shelter at Your lotus feet. I am now Your eternal servant.

gopīnāth, kemone śodhive more nā jāni bhakati, karame jaḍamati, poḍechi saṁsāra ghore

(3) Oh Gopīnāth, how will You purify me? I do not know what devotion is, and my materialistic mind is absorbed in fruitive work. I have fallen into this dark and perilous worldly existence.

gopīnāth, sakali tomāra māyā nāhi mama bolo, jñāna sunirmala, svādhīna nahe e kāyā

(4) Oh Gopīnāth, everything here is Your illusory energy. I have no strength or transcendental knowledge, and this body of mine is not independent and free from the control of material nature.

gopīnāth, niyata charaṇe sthāna māge e pāmara, kādiyā kādiyā, korohe koruṇā dāna

(5) Oh Gopīnāth, this sinner, who is weeping and weeping, begs for an eternal place at Your divine feet. Please give him Your mercy.

gopīnāth, tumi to sakali pāro durjane tārite, tomāra śakati, ke āche pāpīra āro

(6) Oh Gopīnāth, You are able to do anything, and therefore You have the power to deliver all sinners. Who is there that is more of a sinner than myself?

gopīnāth, tumi kṛpā-pārābāra jīvera kāraṇe, āsiyā prapañche, līlā koile subistāra

(7) Oh Gopīnāth, You are the ocean of mercy. Having come into this phenomenal world, You expand Your divine Pastimes for the sake of the fallen souls.

gopīnāth, āmi ki doṣera doṣī asura sakala, pāilo charaṇa, vinoda thākilo bosi

(8) Oh Gopīnāth, I am so sinful that although all the demons attained Your lotus feet, Bhaktivinoda has remained in worldly existence.

Nivedana

Part 2

gopīnāth, ghuchāo samsāra-jvālā avidyā-jātanā, āro nāhi sahe, janama-maraṇa-mālā

(1) Oh Gopīnāth, please remove the torment of worldly existence. I can no longer tolerate the pain of ignorance and the repeated succession of rebirth and death.

gopīnāth, āmi to kāmera dāsa viṣoya-bāsanā, jāgiche hṛdoye, phāñdiche karama phāñsa

(2) Oh Gopīnāth, indeed I am a servant of lust. Worldly desires are awakening in my heart, and thus the noose of fruitive work is beginning to tighten.

gopīnāth, kobe vā jāgibo āmi kāma-rūpa ari, dūre teyāgibo, hṛdoye sphuribe tumi

(3) Oh Gopīnāth, when will I wake up and abandon afar this enemy of lust, and when will You manifest Yourself in my heart?

gopīnāth, āmi to' tomāra jon tomāre chāḍiyā, samsāra bhajinu, bhuliyā āpana-dhana

(4) Oh Gopīnāth, I am Your devotee, but having abandoned You and thus having forgotten my real treasure, I have worshiped this mundane world.

gopīnāth, tumi to sakali jāno āpanāra jane, daṇḍiyā ekhona, śrī-charaṇe deho sthāno

(5) Oh Gopīnāth, You know everything. Now, having punished Your servant, please give him a place at Your lotus feet.

gopīnāth, ei ki vichāra tava vimukha dekhiyā, chāḍa nija-jane, na koro koruṇā-laba

(6) Oh Gopīnāth, is this Your judgement, that seeing me averse to You, You abandon Your servant and don't bestow even a particle of mercy upon him?

gopīnāth, āmi to mūrakha ati kise bhālo hoyā, kabhu nā bujhinu, tāi heno mama gati

(7) Oh Gopīnāth, I am certainly very foolish, and I have never known what is good for me. Therefore such is my condition.

gopīnāth, tumi to paṇḍita-barā mūḍhera maṅgala, sadā anveṣibe, e dāse nā bhāva para

(8) Oh Gopīnāth, You are indeed the wisest person. Please look for a way to bring about auspiciousness for this fool, and please do not consider this servant as an outsider.

Nivedana

Part 3

gopīnāth, āmāra upāya nāi tumi kṛpā kori, āmāre loile, saṁsāre udhāra pāi

(1) Oh Gopīnāth, I have no means of success, but if You take me, having bestowed Your mercy upon me, then I will obtain deliverance from this world.

gopīnāth, poḍechi māyāra phere dhon, dārā, suta, ghireche āmāre, kāmete rekheche jere

(2) Oh Gopīnāth, I have fallen into the perils of material illusion. Wealth, wife, and sons have surrounded me, and lust has wasted me away.

gopīnāth, mana je pāgala mora nā māne śāsana, sadā achetana, viṣoye royeche bhora

(3) Oh Gopīnāth, my mind is crazy and does not care for any authority. It is always senseless and has remained in the dark pit of worldly affairs.

gopīnāth, hāra je menechi āmi oneka jatana, hoilo biphala, ekhona bharasā tumi

(4) Oh Gopīnāth, I have accepted my defeat. All of my various endeavours were useless. Now You are the only hope.

gopīnāth, kemone hoibe gati prabala indriya, bośī-bhūta mana, nā chāde viṣoya-rati

(5) Oh Gopīnāth, how shall I make any advancement when my mind has come under the control of the powerful senses and does not abandon its attachment to materialism?

gopīnāth, hṛdoye bosiyā mora manake śamiyā, loho nija pāne, ghuchibe vipada ghora

(6) Oh Gopīnāth, after siting down in the core of my heart and subduing my mind, please take me to You. In this way the horrible dangers of this world will disappear.

gopīnāth, anātha dekhiyā more tumi hṛṣikeśa, hṛṣika damiyā, tāro' he samsṛti-ghore

(7) Oh Gopīnāth, You are Hṛṣikeśa, the Lord of the senses. Seeing me so helpless, please control these senses of mine and deliver me from this dark and perilous worldly existence.

gopīnāth, golāya legeche phāsa kṛpā-asi dhori, bandhana chediyā, vinode koroho dāsa

(8) Oh Gopīnāth, the noose of materialism has become fixed around my neck. Taking up the sword of Your mercy and cutting this bondage, make this Bhaktivinoda Your humble servant.

 narottama loilo śaraṇa

Commentary by Śrīla B.R. Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī:

(1) Śrī-rūpa-mañjari-pada, sei mora sampada, sei mora bhajana-pūjana—my everything is Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī’s holy feet. We are to discuss so many classifications and positions of rasa: śānta, dāsyā, sakhya, vātsalya, madhura. And in madhura-rasa Rādhārāṇī’s camp is special. Then again there are so many gradations of sakhīs. Then there is the class of the mañjarīs, the younger girls, and they have more freedom to approach: when Rādhā and Govinda are in union in a private environment, the mañjarīs can still approach. They have such freedom to visit Them. If any materials of service are necessary, the sakhīs send the mañjarīs to that place. The sakhīs do not approach there. In that way the mañjarīs enjoy the best confidence.

The most secret service of both can be supplied through the mañjarīs. In the highest position they have free entrance, and their leader is Rūpa Mañjari. She is understood to be the leader of the whole group of younger girls, the mañjarīs, therefore in madhura-bhajan she is all-in-all. This has been taught to us by Narottama Thākur. For us—and the younger batch—she is our highest resort.

Sei mora sampada—my wealth is there in her feet. Sei mora bhajana-pūjana—my worship and service is also in her. Sei mora prāṇa-dhana, sei mora ābharaṇa—the very wealth and gist of my life is there; and the ornaments of my life, if any there may be, that is within her grace. Sei mora jīvanera jīvana—indeed, the very life of my life, if there is anything, that is also her. I am for her pleasure.

(2) Sei mora rasa-nidhi—if there is anything, the source of any and all desirable ecstasy is only to be found there. The mine, source, and fountainhead of all rasa is there in her feet. Sei mora vāñchā-siddhi—and if I am to expect any other fulfilment in life, that is also there in her feet. Sei mora vedera dharama—if any duty is recommended by the Vedas for me, I would like that such duty be at her feet.

Sei brata, sei tapa—if at all there is any desired accumulation from any penance or observance of vows, that is also to be found there—sei mora mantra-japa—and the continuous repetition of a mantra in japa all ends there: all things have only one end in my case, and that is that they all meet in different phases in the feet of Rūpa Mañjari. If she is satisfied then the variegated nature of all sorts of my devotional practices are satisfied. Sei mora dharama-karama—and any of my conceptions of duty or activity of any phases or form all have one end and meet in one point: the holy feet of Rūpa Mañjari.

(3) Anukūla habe viddhi, se-pade hoibe siddhi—I only pray to the controller who is at the root of all these arrangements of affairs in this world, “Please connect me there. Oh Absolute Manager, may you grant my prayer that all my tendencies may go to attain her favour. Nirakhibo e dui nayane—and it will be so very intense and 192 concrete as if I can see it with these eyes. It will not be vague, abstract, or imagination, but I want the most concrete realisation by the grace of the Absolute Manager.” Se rūpa-mādhuri-rāśi, prāṇa-kuvalaya-sāśi—what sort of high class beauty is there in her holy feet! I want to jump. Let my heart be a lotus.

There are two classes of lotus: the white lotus came from the sun and the red from the moon. The kuvalaya is a mixture of the two. The lustre of her body will feed me day and night as the life of my life which is compared to a kuvalaya. The kuvalaya is fed and nourished by the lustre of the moon, and her holy feet are the moon, and my very vitality is likened to the lotus. May the lustre of her beauty maintain and nourish my heart of hearts. Praphullita hobe niśi-dine—and the lotus of my heart will grow by that ray, and dance.

(4) Tuyā adarśana-ahi—this is my prayer, but what is my present condition? My present condition is in the negative side, my Mistress. My present position is such that without having a sight of you, Your Grace, my heart will burn into ashes. That is my present position. Gorole jāralo dehī—this is just like the poison of a cobra which produces pain within my heart. I have been bitten by a snake, and what is that snake? It is that I am not getting any direct contact with you, Your Grace. The serpent’s poison has captured my heart and I am going to die. Chiro-dina tāpita jivana—and this is not a sudden thing, but from the beginning I have been suffering this sort of pain of separation from such a beautiful and hopeful life of fulfilment.

Hā hā rūpa koro doyā, deho more pada-chāyā, narottama loilo śaraṇa—but I have now reached the extreme position and for the last time I am begging for your favour; otherwise I am going to be finished.

This was composed by Narottam Thākur in praise of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī. In this way he has given us light of the higher quarter of bhajan life. This sampradāya is named as the Rūpānuga-sampradāya, and our Guru-paramparā and all these things are adjusted according to that. He wrote many songs and they are of very substantive firmament, very ecstatic, and of deep faith.

durlabha mānava-janma labhiyā saṁsāre krṣṇa nā bhajinu duḥka kohibo kāhāre?

(1) The human form of life is the rarest opportunity for attaining spiritual perfection. But now I am lamenting, because I've somehow or other been born with such an opportunity, and I wasted it by never worshiping Lord Krishna. Oh, to whom shall I tell the tale of this misery?

‘saṁsār’ ‘saṁsār’, kori miche gelo kāl lābha nā koilo kichu, ghaṭilo jañjāl

(2) Having married and entered into the entanglements of materialistic family life, I passed my time in vain. I never got any tangible gain or permanent benefit, only trouble and botheration.

kisera saṁsār ei chāyābāji prāy ihāte mamatā kori bṛthā dina jāy

(3) What kind of world is this anyway? It seems to be just like a magic lantern show that I saw at a carnival, wherein so many shadows and optical illusions dance magically before my eyes. I feel great attachment and identification with such a world, and thus day after day passes by fruitlessly, without any purpose whatsoever.

keho sukha nāhi dibe putra paribār

(4) When this body drops dead on the ground then what will remain mine? At that moment, all of my sons and dearest loved ones will not be able to give me any happiness.

garḍdabher mata āmi kori pariśram kāra lāgi' eto kori, nā ghuchilo bhram

(5) I work hard just like an ass every day, and now I am wondering for whom am I working so hard? I am still surrounded by so many illusions.

dina jāy michā kāje, niśā nidrā-baśe nāhi bhāvi maraṇa nikaṭe āche bose

(6) I waste every day in useless, insignificant work, and I waste every night controlled by sleep. And in every twenty-four hours I never for one second consider that death is sitting very close by my side.

bhālo manda khāi, heri, pari, chintā-hīna nāhi bhāvi, e deho chāḍibo kon dina

(7) I live a very carefree life-style, eating, going out, wearing nice clothes as I please, but I never consider that one day I will have to give up this body.

deho-geho-kalatrādi-chintā abirata jāgiche hr̥doye mor buddhi kori hoto

(8) My poor heart is plagued by constant anxieties about the maintenance and daily turmoils created by my body, my house, my wife, my family members and my social obligations. All these anxieties are pinching me and destroying all my intelligence.

hāy, hāy! nāhi bhāvi — anitya e saba jīvana bigote kothā rohibe vaibhava?

(9) Alas, alas! What a remorseful situation has arisen! I am absorbed in all this trouble, but I never consider that all these things are temporary and subject to perish very soon. After I'm dead and gone, where will all of my material opulences remain?

śmaśāne śorīra mama poḍiyā rohibe bihāṅga-pataṅga tāy bihāra koribe

(10) When my body will be thrown in the pit at the cremation grounds, it will simply lie there motionlessly. Then many crows, vultures, ants, and worms will come and playfully sport there.

kukkur sṛgāl sob ānandita ho'ye mahotsava koribe āmār deho lo'ye

(11) All the stray dogs and jackals will then become very much delighted, and in great ecstasy they will make a festival ground out of my body and will have a huge celebration and feast.

je deher ei gati, tāra anugata samsār-vaibhava āro bondhu-jon jata

(12) Just see, this is the ultimate destination of this material body. And the most amazing thing is that all of my material opulences, house, family and friends have exactly the same destination.

ataeva māyā-moha chāḍi buddhimān nitya-tattva kṛṣṇa-bhakti koruna sandhān

(13) Therefore I ask of anyone who has any sharp intelligence: please give up all of these temporary illusions presented by Māyā, and kindly search after the means to get pure devotion to Lord Krishna, for this is the only really tangible eternal truth.

 Anya-abhilāsa chāḍi
by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākura

anya-abhilāsa chāḍi      jñāna karma parihari sādhu-saṅge kṛṣṇa-sevā      nā pūjibo devī-devā ei bhakti parama-kāraṇa

(1) Worship the Lord with body and mind, giving up the desire for material endeavour and mundane knowledge. Perform service in the association of devotees and do not worship the various demigods. These activities are the prime cause of devotion to Krishna.

196    mahājanera jei patha tā'te ho'be anurata pūrvāpara koriyā bichāra sādhana-smaraṇa-līlā      ihāte nā koro helā kāya mane koriyā sūsāra

(2) The essence of devotional practice is to carefully consider and follow the path revealed by the great devotees. One should not neglect the practice of remembering the Pastimes of the Lord, for devotional service should be performed with the mind as well as the body.

asat-saṅga sadā tyāga      chāḍa anya gīta-rāga karmī jñānī pariḥari dūre kevala bhakata-saṅga      prema-kathā-rasa-raṅga līlā-kathā braja-rasa-pure

(3) Always give up bad association and avoid singing mundane songs. Keep at a distance materialistic people as well as those absorbed with mundane knowledge. Associate only with the devotees and merge in the happiness of topics of the loving Pastimes of Krishna in Vṛndāvan.

jogī nyāsī karmī jñānī anya-deva-pūjaka dhyānī iha-loka dūre pariḥari karma dharma duḥkha śoka jebā thāke anya yoga chādi' bhaja girivara-dhārī

(4) Please give up the association of the yogīs, sannyāsīs, karmīs, jñānīs, meditators, and the worshippers of the demigods. Also abandon attachment for all varieties of fruitive activities, religious duties, distresses, lamentations and material objects. Just worship Krishna, the lifter of Govardhan Hill.

tīrtha-jātrā pariśrama      kevala-manera-bhrama sarva-siddhi govinda-charaṇa dṛḍha-viśvāsa hrde dhori mada-mātsaryya pariḥari sadā koro ananya bhajana

(5) Travelling to the holy places is only so much hard labour to attain some mental illusion when really the lotus feet of Śrī Govinda are the perfection of one's life. One should give up pride and envy and with firm determination in the heart, one should always perform unalloyed worship of the Lord. 197

kṛṣṇa-bhakta saṅga kori kṛṣṇa-bhakta saṅga heri śraddhānvita śravaṇa-kīrttana archana vandana dhyāna nava-bhakti mahā-jñāna
ei bhakti parama-kāraṇa

(6) The best process of devotional service is to hear, chant, worship, glorify and meditate with faith on the Names, Forms, Qualities and Pastimes of Krishna in the association of the devotees of Krishna through the nine forms of bhakti.

hrsīke govinda-sevā nā pūjibo devī-devā ei to' ananya-bhakti-kathā āra jata upālambha višeṣa sakali dambha dekhite lāgaye mane vyathā

(7) Engage the senses in the service of Śrī Govinda and do not worship the various demigods. This principle is in the line of unalloyed devotion. All other activities are simply done through pride and to see them gives great pain to one's heart.

dehe baise ripū-gaṇa jateka indriya-gaṇa keho kāra vādhya nāhi hoy śunile nā sune kāṇa jānile nā jāne prāṇa daḍhāite nā pāre niścoy

(8) The six enemies; lust, anger, greed, illusion, pride and envy and the five senses of sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch reside in my body but I am unable to control them. Although I hear and understand repeatedly that one should serve Krishna with all his senses, still I cannot accept this fact with firm determination.

kāma krodha moha lobha mada mātsaryya dambha-saha sthāne sthāne nijūkta koribo ānanda kori hṛdoy ripu' kori' parājaya anāyāse govinda bhajibo

198 (9) I will engage lust, anger, greed, illusion, envy and pride in their proper places. In this way, I will defeat the enemies and with ecstasy in my heart, I will worship Govinda without difficulty.

kāma kṛṣṇa-karmārpaṇe krodha bhakta-dveśi-jane lobha sādhū-saṅge hari-kathā moha iṣṭa-lābha-bine mada kṛṣṇa-guṇa-gāne nijukta koribo jathā tathā

(10) I will engage my lust in eagerness to serve Krishna and I will use my anger against those who are envious of the devotees. I will be greedy to hear the topics of Hari in the association of the devotees. I will be illusioed if I fail to achieve my worshipable Lord and I will feel proud to chant the glories of Krishna. In this way, I will engage them in their respective duties.

anyathā svatantra kāma anarthādi jāra dhāma bhakti-pathे sadā deya bhaṅga kibā bā korite pāre kāma-krodha sādhakere jadi hoy sādhū-janāra saṅga

(11) Otherwise, independent lusty desires, which are the source of all unwanted things will always disturb the path of devotional service. What harm can lusty desires and anger do to a practitioner of devotional service if they associate with devotees?

krodha bā nā kore kibā krodha-tyāga sadā dibā lobha moha ei to' kathana choya ripū sadā hīna koribo maner adhīna krṣṇachandra koriyā smaraṇa

(12) Anger spoils everything. Therefore, I will always give up anger, greed and illusion. I will control the six enemies with the help of my mind while remembering Lord Krishna.

āpani palābe saba śuniyā govinda raba simha-rabe jena kori-gaṇa sakali vipatti jābe mahānanda sūkha pābe jāra hoy ekānta bhajana

(13) All the enemies will run away by hearing 199 the sound vibration of Govinda's name just as a deer flees upon hearing the roar of a lion. One who performs unalloyed devotional service will feel great happiness and all his dangers will be vanquished.

nā koriho asat-cheṣṭa      lābha pūjā pratiṣṭhā sadā chinta govinda-charaṇa sakala santāpa jābe      parānanda sukha pābe prema-bhakti parama-kāraṇa

(14) Therefore my dear mind, do not endeavour for bad association, profit, adoration and distinction, but always remember the lotus feet of Govinda. Please engage in loving devotional service with great happiness and all your dangers will be destroyed.

asat-kriya kuṭināṭi      chāḍa anya paripāṭī anya deve nā koriho rati āpana āpana sthāne      pirīti sabāi tāne bhakti-pathe paḍaye bigati

(15) Please give up all duplicity, illusory activities and the search for bodily happiness. Do not be attached to the worship of various demigods. Mundane love and affection for material relationships attracts everyone to their respective illusions and thus advancement on the path of devotional service is checked.

āpana bhajana-patha      tāhe hobo anūrata iṣṭa-deva-sthāne-lilā-gāna naiṣṭhika bhajana ei      tomāre kohinū bhāi hanumān tāhāte pramāṇa

(16) Be continuously engaged on the path of devotional worship and be attached to glorifying the Pastimes of Śrī Krishna in Vṛndāvan. This process of devotional service is known as steady devotional service. The prime example of this is Hanumān.

 Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam
 by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur
Song 1

The first verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

cheto-darpaṇa-mārjjanam bhava-mahā- dāvagni-nirvāpaṇam śreyah-kairava-chandrikā-vitaraṇam vidyā-vadhu-jīvanam ānandāmbudhi-vardhanam prati-padam pūrnāmṛtāsvādanam sarvvātma-snapanam param vijayate śrī-kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrttanam

The Holy Name of Krishna cleanses the mirror of the heart and extinguishes the fire of misery in the forest of birth and death. As the evening lotus blooms in the moon's cooling rays, the heart begins to blossom in the nectar of the Name.

And at last the soul awakens to its real inner treasure—a life of love with Krishna. Again and again tasting nectar, the soul dives and surfaces in the ever-increasing ocean of ecstatic joy.

All phases of the self of which we may conceive are fully satisfied and purified, and at last conquered by the all-auspicious influence of the Holy Name of Krishna.

pīta-barāṇa kali-pāvana gorā
gāoyāi aichana bhāva-bibhorā

(1) Lord Gaurāṅga, whose complexion is golden and who is the deliverer of the fallen souls of Kali-yuga, sings as follows, overwhelmed with spiritual ecstasy.

chitta-darpaṇa-parimārjjanā-kārī kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya chitta-bihārī

(2) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It thoroughly cleanses the mirror of the heart and is the delight of the soul.”

(3) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It extinguishes the forest fire of material existence and removes all material tribulations.”

śreyah-kumuda-bidhu-jyotsnā-prakāśa krṣṇa-kīrttana jaya bhakti-vilāsa

(4) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It appears like the moon in the heart and distributes its cooling moonlight, making the white lotus of the soul’s good fortune blossom and bloom. Krishna-kīrttan is the bhakti-vilāsa, the beautiful pastime of devotion.”

viśuddha-vidyā-vadhu jīvana-rūpa krṣṇa-kīrttana jaya siddha-svarūpa

(5) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It reveals one’s pure identity in relationship with the Lord even up to divine consorthood. This chanting is the real perfection of life.”

ānanda-payo-nidhi-vardhana-kīrtti krṣṇa-kīrttana jaya plābana-mūrtti

(6) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! Krṣṇa-kīrttan causes the ocean of ecstatic joy to overflow. It is an inundation of divine love.”

pade pade pījuṣa-svāda-pradātā krṣṇa-kīrttana jaya prema-bidhātā

(7) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! Krṣṇa-kīrttan gives one a taste of fully satisfying nectar at every step; ultimately it bestows ecstatic love of Godhead.”

bhaktivinoda-svātma-snapana-vidhān krṣṇa-kīrttana jaya prema-nidān

(8) “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It bathes the soul of Bhaktivinoda. This chanting is a storehouse of love of Godhead.”

Song 2

The second verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

nāmnām akāri bahudhā nija-sarvva-śaktis tatrārpitā niyamitaḥ smaraṇe na kālah etādṛṣī tava kṛpā bhagavan mamāpi durdaivam īḍṛśam ihājani nānurāgah

“Oh my Lord, Your Holy Name bestows auspiciousness upon all. And You have unlimited Names such as Krishna and Govinda by which You reveal Yourself. In Your many Holy Names You have kindly invested all Your transcendental potency. And in chanting these Names, there are no strict rules concerning time or place. Out of Your causless mercy, You have descended in the form of divine sound, but my great misfortune is that I have no love for Your Holy Name.”

tuhū doyā-sāgara tārayite prāṇī nāma aneka tuyā śikhāoli āni

(1) O Lord! You are an ocean of mercy, and so you have brought the teachings of the glories of your unlimited Holy Names to deliver all souls.

sakala śakati dei nāme tohārā grahaṇe rākholi nāhi kāla-bichārā

(2) You have conferred all Your power upon Your Name. And there are no rules governing the appropriate time or place for chanting the Holy Name.

śrī-nāma-chintāmaṇi tohāri samānā biśve bilāoli koruṇā-nidānā

(3) The Holy Name is a chintāmaṇi gem, a divine touchstone, and is nondifferent from You. Out of Your kindness for all souls, You have distributed Your Holy Name throughout the universe.

tuyā doyā aichana parama udārā atiśoya manda nātha! bhāga hāmārā

(4) This is Your mercy, O Lord. You are supremely kind. But, O Lord, I am most wicked and unfortunate.

nāhi janamalo nāme anurāga mora bhaktivinoda-chitta duḥkhe bibhora

(5) I have never known any attraction for the Holy Names. And so, the heart of Bhaktivinoda is filled with sadness.

Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 3

The third verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

trṇād api sunīchena taror iva sahiṣṇunā amāninā mānadena
 kīrttanīyah sadā hariḥ

One who is humbler than a blade of grass, more forbearing than a tree who gives due honour to others without desiring it for himself is qualified to always chant the Holy Name of Krishna.

śrī-kṛṣṇa-kīrttane jodi mānasa tohāra parama jatane tāhi lobho adhikāra

(1) If your mind is always carefully absorbed in the chanting of the Holy Name, then you will become qualified for chanting the Holy Name of Krishna.

trṇādhika hīna, dīna, akiñchana chāra āpane mānobi sadā chāḍī' ahaṅkāra

(2) Humbler than a blade of grass considering yourself low, poor, and mean, give up your false ego.

vṛkṣa-sama kṣamā-guṇa korobi sādhana pratihimsā tyaji anye korobi pālana

(3) Tolerant as a tree, you should forgive and forbear, giving up violence. Practice nurturing and protecting others.

jīvana-nirvāhe āne udvega nā dibe para-upakāre nija-sukha pāsaribe

- (4) Live without causing anxiety to others; do good unto others without considering your own happiness.

hoile-o sarvva-guṇe guṇī mahāśoya pratiṣṭhāśā chādi koro amānī hṛdoya

- (5) A great soul who has all these qualities should not become proud of his saintly qualities, but, giving up position and prestige he should always remain prideless within his heart.

kṛṣṇa-adhiṣṭhān sarvva-jīve jāni sadā korobi sammāna sobe ādare sarvvadā

- (6) Always knowing that Krishna dwells within the hearts of all living beings, you should always properly respect and honour others.

doinya, doyā, anye mān, pratiṣṭhā-varjjan chāri guṇe guṇī hoi koroho kīrttan

- (7) Humility, mercy, consideration of others, and giving up position are the four qualities needed to perform kīrttan.

bhaktivinoda kādi bole prabhu-pāya heno adhikāra kobe dibe he āmāya

- (8) Bhaktivinoda, crying at the Lord's holy feet says, "O my Lord, when will You bestow upon me the qualifications for Krishna-kīrttan?"

Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam

Song 4

The fourth verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

na dhanāṁ na janāṁ na sundarīṁ kavitāṁ vā jagad-īśa kāmaye mama janmani janmaniśvare bhavatād bhaktir ahaitukī tvayi

“Oh Lord, I have no desires to accumulate wealth, followers, beautiful women, or salvation. My only prayer is for Your causeless devotional service, birth after birth.”

prabhu tava pada-juge mora nivedana nāhi māgi deho-sukha, vidyā dhana, jana

(1) O Lord! This is my humble submission at Your lotus feet. I do not ask from You sensual pleasure, learning, wealth or followers.

nāhi māgi svarga, āro mokṣa nāhi māgi nā kori prārthanā kono vibhūtira lāgi

(2) I do not beg for residence on the celestial planets, nor do I wish liberation from this mundane existence. Nor do I pray for the attainment of any mystic powers.

nija-karma-guṇa-doṣe je je janma pāi janme janme jeno tava nāma-guṇa gāi

(3) Whatever birth I may obtain due to the results of my previous worldly activities, I pray that I may sing the glories of Your Holy Name birth after birth.

ei mātra āśā mama tomāra charaṇe ahaitukī bhakti hṛde jāge anukṣaṇe

(4) This alone is my cherished hope, my aspiration, my prayer at Your lotus feet: Let causeless and uninterrupted devotion awaken within my heart and flow towards You.

bīṣoye je pṛīti ebe āchoye āmāra sei-mata pṛīti hauk charaṇe tomāra

(5) Let me love Your lotus feet as much as I now love sense gratification; transfer my affection from the objects of the senses to Your lotus feet.

bipade sampade tāhā thākuka samabhāve dine dine bṛddhi hauk nāmera prabhāve

(6) In danger or success, good fortune or disaster, let me remain equipoised. And let my affection for You increase day by day by the influence of the Holy Name.

paśu-pakṣī hoye thāki svarge bā niroye tava bhakti rahu bhaktivinoda-hṛdoye

(7) Whether I live as bird or beast, in heaven or in hell, let the humble Bhaktivinoda always cherish devotion to You in his heart of hearts.

Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam

Song 5

The fifth verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

ayi nanda-tanuja kiṅkaram patitam mām viṣame bhavāmbudhau kṛpayā tava pāda-paṅkaja-sthita-dhūli-sadrśam vichintaya

“Oh son of Nanda Mahārāj, I am Your eternal servant, yet because of my own karma, I have fallen into this terrible ocean of birth and death. Please accept this fallen soul and consider me a particle of dust at Your holy lotus feet.”

anādi karama-phole, podi bhavārṇava-jole, toribāre nā dekhi upāy,
 e-viṣoya-holāhole, divā-niśi hiyā jvole, mon kobhu sukha nāhi pāy

(1) As a result of my selfish fruitive activities, which are without beginning, I have fallen into the ocean of material existence. And now I can see no means of deliverance. Day and night my heart burns from the vicious poison of these worldly affairs, and due to this my mind never finds any true happiness.

āśā-pāśa-śata-śata      kleśa deya abirata, pravṛti-ūrmira tāhe khelā kāma-krodha-ādi choy, bāṭapāde dey bhoy, abasāna hoilo āsi belā

(2) I am bound by hundreds and hundreds of desires that give unending distress and these desires play in the waves of ever-increasing materialistic tendency. Lust, anger, greed, pride, illusion and envy are like six highway robbers making me greatly fearful, and in this way my life is coming to an end.

jñāna-karma—ṭhāga dui, more pratāriyā loi, abaśeṣe phele sindhu-jole
e heno somoye, bandhu, tumi kṛṣṇa kṛpā-sindhu kṛpā kori' tolo more bole

(3) The two highway robbers named intellectual knowledge and fruitive activity have cheated and misled me, and finally they have thrown me into the ocean of misery. At such a time as this, dear Krishna, You are my only friend. You are an ocean of mercy. Please be kind upon me and uplift me from this condition of suffering by Your divine power.

patita-kiṅkore dhori', pāda-padma-dhūli kori', deho bhaktivinode āśroy āmi tava nitya-dās bhuliyā māyāra pāś,

(4) I am Your eternal servant, Oh merciful Lord. But, having forgotten this since time immemorial, I have become bound up in this network of illusion. Take this fallen servant of Yours, give him a place in the dust of Your lotus feet; give your shelter to this humble Bhaktivinoda.

Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 6

The sixth verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

nayanāṁ galad-aśru-dhārayā vadanaṁ gadgada-ruddhayā girā pulakair nichitāṁ vapuh kadā tava nāma-grahaṇe bhaviṣyati

“Oh Lord, when will tears flow from my eyes like waves, And my voice tremble in ecstasy? When will the hairs of my body stand on end while chanting Your Holy Name?”

aparādha-phole mama chitta bhela vajra sama tuyā nāme nā lobhe bikāra hatāś hoiya hari tava nāma ucha kori boḍo duhkhe ḍāki bāro bāro

(1) Oh Lord Hari, as a result of my offences incurred in previous lifetimes, my heart has become as hard as a thunderbolt, and feels no change upon chanting Your Holy Name. Disappointed, hopeless, and in great distress, I loudly call Your Name again and again.

dīna doyāmoy koruṇā-nidān bhāva-bindu dei rākhoho parāṇ

(2) Oh Lord, you are compassionate towards the fallen souls and the origin of mercy. Please give me a drop of divine ecstasy and thereby save my life!

kobe tuyā nāma-uchāraṇe mor nayane jharabo daro daro lor

- (3) When will an incessant stream of tears flow from my eyes as I chant Your Name in divine ecstasy?

gada-gada-svara kaṇṭhe upajabo mukhe bolo ādha ādha bāhirābo

- (4) When will my voice be choked with divine emotion, and when will words garbled due to ecstasy come from my mouth?

pulake bharabo śorīra hāmāra sveda-kampa-stambha hobe bāro bāro

- (5) When will the hairs of my body stand up in ecstasy? When will I become stunned with ecstasy, shiver and perspire out of the ecstasy of divine love? When will these symptoms of ecstasy overwhelm me again and again?

bibarṇa-śorīre hārāobු jñāna nāma-samāśraye dharobu parāṇa

- (6) When will my body turn colours and become pale out of ecstasy? When will I lose consciousness? And when will my very life be under the shelter of the Holy Name?

milabo hāmār kiye aiche dina roye bhaktivinoda mati hīna

- (7) Bhaktivinoda, who is devoid of good intelligence cries, “When will I meet with such a day?”

Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam

Song 7a

The seventh verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

yugāyitam nimeṣena chakṣuṣā prāvṛṣāyitam śūnyāyitam jagat sarvam govinda-viraheṇa me

“Oh Govinda! Without You, the world is empty. Tears are flooding my eyes like rain, and a moment seems like forever.”

gāite gāite nāma ki doṣā hoilo
'krṣṇa-nitya-dāsa mui' hr̥doye sphurilo

(1) Chanting the Name again and again, what was my condition? Within my heart I realised, “I am an eternal servant of Krishna.”

jānilām māyā-pāṣe e jaḍa-jagate govinda-virahe duḥkha pāi nānā-mate

(2) I realised that I was bound by Māyā’s ropes, in this dull mundane universe, and I simply experience misery in various ways due to separation from Lord Govinda.

āro je saṁsāra mora nāhi lāge bhālo kāhā jāi krṣṇa heri e chintā biśālo

(3) And I don’t much like this world of birth and death. Where shall I go to see Krishna? This was my biggest worry.

kādite kādite mora ākhi-boriṣoya barsā-dhārā heno chakṣe hoilo udoya

(4) I began weeping and weeping; my tears fell. 213 Torrents of rain poured from my eyes just like the rains of the monsoon season.

nimeśa hoilo mora śata-juga-sam govinda-viraha āra sohite akşam

(5) Now, a moment for me is like a hundred ages. I cannot bear this separation from Lord Govinda.

śūnya dharā-tala,       chaudike dekhiye, parāṇa udāsa hoyā
ki kori, ki kori,       sthira nāhi hoyā, jīvana nāhiko roya

(6) The world is empty; as I survey the four directions, the entire surface of the world is void. My life is empty, my mind is listless; I am indifferent and apathetic towards everything. Depressed, melancholy and forlorn, my life has no meaning now. What do I do now? I cannot remain steady. I can no longer maintain my life.

braja-bāsi-gaṇa   mora prāṇa rākho dekhāo śrī-rādhā-nāthe bhakativinoda-   minati māniyā, laohe tāhāre sāthe

(7) Oh residents of Vṛndāvan; save my life and show me Rādhānāth, the Lord of Śrī Rādhā. Considering this humble prayer of Bhaktivinoda, please give him Your association and take him with You.

śrī kṛṣṇa-viraha āro sohite nā pāri parāṇa chāḍite āro din dui chāri

(8) I am unable to further tolerate this separation from my Lord Krishna and am ready to give up my life in two days or four.

Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam

Song 7b

gāite ‘govinda’-nām, upajilo bhāva-grām, dekhilām jamunāra kūle vṛṣabhānu-sutā-saṅge, śyāma-naṭa-boro-raṅge, bāśarī bājāya nīpo-mūle

(1) And while I sang the name of Govinda a host of ecstasies arose within me. I saw Sundar-śyāma the best of dancers, on Jamunā’s shores, with Śrī Rādhā, Vṛṣabhānu’s daughter, sporting in Pastimes of love playing His flute beside the water while a kadamba tree above cast shade upon the divine couple.

dekhiyā jugala-dhana, asthira hoilo mana, jñāna hārā hoilū tokhon koto-kṣane nāhi jāni, jñāna-labha hoilo māni, āro nāhi bhelo daraśan

(2) On seeing this, my mind was stunned. I lost my senses. Unaware of time, I fainted. When I awoke after immeasurable time, the treasured couple had gone. My vision of Braja had broken.

Śrī Śiksāstakam

Song 7c

sakhi go kemote dhoribo parān nimeśa hoilo jugera samān

(1) Oh my dear girlfriend! How will I maintain my life? The passing of a mere moment has become like a vast age of time.

śrāvaṇera dhārā,        ākhi-bariṣoy, śūnya bhelo dharā-tala govinda-virahe,        prāṇa nāhi rohe, kemone bāchibō bolo

(2) Tears flow from my eyes like torrents of rain in the month of Śrāvāna, and the face of the earth has become totally void. In separation from Govinda my life cannot go on... please tell how I will be able to live.

bhaktivinoda,        asthira hoiyā, punah nāmāśroya kori'
dāke rādhānātha,        diyā daraśana, prāṇa rākho, nahe mori

(3) Bhaktivinoda has become very restless and again takes shelter of the holy name, calling out, “Oh Lord of Rādhā! By bestowing Your audience, please save my life! By Your mercy alone I shall not perish!”

Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam
Song 8a

The eighth verse of the Śrī Śiksāṣṭakam is as follows:

āśliṣya vā pāda-ratāṁ pinaṣṭu mām adarśanān marma-hatāṁ karotu vā yathā tathā vā vidadhātu lampaṭo mat-prāṇa-nāthas tu sa eva nāparaḥ

“Krishna may embrace me in love or trample me under His feet. He may break my heart by hiding Himself from me. Let that debauchee do whatever He likes, but He will always be the only Lord of my life.”

bondhu-gon!      śunoho vachana mora bhāvete bibhora,      thākiye jokhon, dekhā deya chitta-chora

(1) Oh my friends! Listen to my words. I am filled to overflowing with devotional ecstasy when I have a divine vision of that thief who has stolen my heart.

bichakṣaṇa kori'      dekhite chāhile, hoya ākhi-agochara
punah nāhi dekhi',      kādaye parāṇa, duhkhera nā thāke ora

(2) And when I want to see Him more clearly, He disappears from sight and becomes invisible. Again, not seeing Him, my soul weeps and my grief knows no bounds.

jagatera bandhu sei kobhu more loya sātha jathā tathā rākhu more āmāra se prāṇanātha

(3) Sometimes Krishna, the friend of the universe, takes me as one of His own, and sometimes He ignores me, but however He keeps me, He is the only Lord of my life.

darśan-ānanda-dāne, sukha dey mora prāṇe, bole more prāṇoya-vachan punah adarśan diyā, dagdha kore mora hiyā, prāṇe more māre prāṇa-dhan

(4) When He gives His blissful audience to me, He gives happiness to my soul. He gives me great ecstasy by allowing me to see Him and by speaking affectionately to me. Again He goes away, removing Himself from my sight. And by not letting me see Him, He burns my heart with the fire of separation.

jāhe tā'ra sukha hoy, sei sukha mama nija sukhe-duḥkhe mora sarvvadāi sama

(5) But even though He pains my soul in this way, He is still the Lord of my life. Whatever is His happiness is also my happiness. And so, for me, my own happiness and distress is all the same.

bhakativinoda, samjoge bijoge, tāhe jāne prāṇeśvara tā'ra sukhe sukhī, sei prāṇa-nātha, se kobhu nā hoya paro

(6) In this way, Bhaktivinoda, in both union and separation, knows that Krishna is the only Lord of his soul. Krishna's happiness is my happiness. He is the Lord of my life; there is no other Lord for me than Him.

Śrī Śiksāstakam

Song 8b

yoga-pīṭhopari-sthita,      aṣṭa-sakhī-subeṣṭita, vr̥ndāraṇye kadamba-kānane rādhā-saha vamśī-dhārī, biśva-jana-chitta-hārī, prāṇa mora tāhāra charaṇe

(1) At the yoga-pīṭha, surrounded by the aṣṭa-sakhīs, in Vṛndāvan Forest, in a grove of kadamba trees, by the side of Śrī Rādhā, holding His flute, Śrī Krishna enchants all souls within the universe. I fall at His feet and surrender my life to Him.

sakhī-ājñāmata kori dōhāra sevana pālyā-dāsī sadā bhāvi dōhāra charaṇa

(2) Following the orders of a sakhī, I engage in service to the holy pair, Śrī Rādhā and Krishna, always considering myself a dependent maidservant at Their lotus feet.

kobhu kṛpā kori,      mama hasta dhori’, madhura vachana bole tāmbula loiyā,      khāya dui jone, mālā loya kutūhole

(3) Sometimes being kind, They take me by the hand and speak sweet words to me out of affection. Taking the betel nuts I have prepared, the two of Them eat and accept a garland from me with great delight.

adarśana hoyā kohkona ki chole nā dekhiyā dōhe hiyā mora jvole

(4) Again, They disappear from my vision by some trick. Not seeing Rādhā and Krishna, my heart burns in agony.

jekhāne sekhāne,                    thākuka du' Jane, āmi to charaṇa-dāsī milane ānanda,                    virahe jātanā, sakala samāna bāsi

(5) Here or there, wherever They stay, I am the maidservant of Their lotus feet. Through the happiness of union and the agony of separation, I am Their maid-servant.

rādhā-kṛṣṇa prāṇa mor jīvane maraṇe more rākhi' māri' sukhe thākuka du' jone

(6) Rādhā and Krishna are my life and soul in life and in death; whether They protect me or take my life—may they always be happy.

bhaktivinoda,                    āna nāhi jāne, podī' nija-sakhī-pāy rādhikāra goṇe                    thākiyā satata, jugala-charaṇa chāy

(7) Bhaktivinoda knows nothing else. Falling at the feet of the sakhī, Bhaktivinoda stays among the intimate confidants of Śrī Rādhā. The lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā and Krishna is Bhaktivinoda's eternal desire.

Śrī Rādhāstaka

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

Song 1

rādhikā-charaṇa-padma, sakala śreyera sadma, jatane je nāhi ārādhilo rādhā-padāṅkita dhāma, vṛndāvana jār nāma, tāhā je nā āśroya korilo

(1) The lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā are the abode of all auspiciousness, the supreme goal of life. One who in his life has failed to take shelter of that holy dhāma named Vṛndāvan which is decorated by the lotus-like Rādhā,...

rādhikā-bhāva-gambhīra, chitta jebā mahādhīra goṇ-soṅga nā koilo jīvane kemone se śyāmānanda, rasa-sindhu-snānānanda, lobhibe bujhoho ek-mane

(2) ...who in his life has failed to associate with the intimate of Śrī Rādhā who are deeply filled with Rādhā's mood of devotion and who are greatly intelligent — how will such a person bathe in the rasa-sindhu, the ocean of ecstatic joy which is Śyāmasundar? You must singlemindedly understand this point.

rādhikā ujvala-rasera āchāryya rādhā-mādhava-śuddha-prema bichāryya

(3) Śrī Rādhā is the exemplary teacher of the mellows of conjugal love. Pure ecstatic love for Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava is what is to be considered and discussed.

je dhorilo rādhā-pada parama jatane se pāilo kṛṣṇa-pada amūlya-ratane

(4) One who holds tightly to the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā with great care will certainly attain the priceless jewels of the lotus feet of Krishna.

rādhā-pada binā kobhu kṛṣṇa nāhi mile rādhāra dāsīr kṛṣṇa sarvva-vede bole

(5) Without taking shelter of the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā, one will never meet Krishna. All the Vedas say that Krishna belongs to the maidservants of Śrī Rādhā.

choḍata dhona-jon,    kalatra-suta-mita, choḍata karama geyān
rādhā-pada-paṅkaja,    madhurata sevana, bhaktivinoda paramāṇ

(6) Having given up wealth, followers, wife, children, family, and friends, material activities and intellectual knowledge, one should become absorbed in the divine sweetness of service to the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā as one of Her maidservants in madhura-rasa. This is Bhaktivinoda's solemn declaration.

Song 2

virajār pāre śuddha-paravyoma-dhām tad upari śrī-gokula-vṛndāraṇya nām

(1) Beyond the Virajā River lies the pure spiritual sky, and above that Vaikuṇṭha realm lies the divine abode known as Śrī Goloka Vṛndāvan.

vṛndāvana chintāmaṇi,    chid-ānanda-ratna-khani, chinmoy apūrvva-daraśan tāhi mājhe chamatkār,    kṛṣṇa vanaspati sār, nila-maṇi tamāla jemon

(2) The land of Vṛndāvan is made of spiritual gems and is therefore likened to a mine of fully cognizant and blissful jewels. This transcendentally conscious realm is certainly a wonderful and extraordinary sight. Within that abode is the most astonishing presence of Lord Krishna, who is compared to a tamāl tree, the king of trees possessing the hue of a dark sapphire.

tāhe eka svarna-mayī,    latā sarvva-dhāma-jayī, uthiyāche parama-pāvanī

(3) Entwined upon that blackish tree a beautiful golden creeper has arisen, who is the conqueror of all realms, being the supreme purifier. Her name is Mahābhāva, being the essence of the supreme pleasure-giving hlādinī potency. She is the enchantress of Śrī Krishna, who is Himself the enchanter of the three worlds.

rādhā-nāme parichita, tuṣiyā govinda-chita, virājaye parama ānande
sei latā-patra-phul, lalitādi sakhi-kul, sobe mili’ vṛkṣe dṛḍha bāndhe

(4) Known by the name of Rādhā, She remains shining there in great ecstasy, always engaged in satisfying Govinda’s heart. The leaves and flowers of that creeper form the assembly of Her girlfriends headed by Lalitā. Together She and all Her friends entwine that blackish tree in a tight embrace.

latāra paraśe praphulla tamāl latā chāḍi’ nāhi rohe kono kāl

(5) At the touch of this creeper, the Tamāl tree blooms; without the embrace of the creeper, He can no longer exist.

tamāla chaḍiyā latā nāhi bāche se latā milan sadā-kāla jāche

(6) The creeper never desires to leave the company of the tamāl tree; the creeper perpetually craves Their union.

bhaktivinoda milana dōhār nā chāhe kokhona vinā kichu ār

(7) Other than the meeting of these two, Bhaktivinoda desires but nothing else.

Song 8

rādhā-bhajane jodi moti nāhi bhelā kṛṣṇa-bhajana tava akāraṇe gelā

(1) If one does not develop within his heart the desire

ātapa-rohita sūray nāhi jāni rādhā-birahita mādhav nāhi māni

- (2) Without sunlight the sun cannot be seen, similarly I don't pay any mind to Krishna without Rādhā.

kevala mādhav pūjaye so ajñānī rādhā anādara koroi abhimānī

- (3) One who worships Krishna alone is ignorant. Who does not adore Śrī Rādhā is an egotist.

kobohi nāhi korobi tākor saṅga chitte ichāsi jadi braja-rasa-raṅga

- (4) Never keep company with those who envy Rādhā if within your heart you at all aspire to the loving Pastimes of Braja.

rādhikā-dāsī jodi hoy abhimān śighrai milai tava gokula kān

- (5) Those who consider themselves maidservants of Śrī Rādhā will quickly meet Gokul-Krishna.

brahmā, śiva, nārada, śruti, nārāyaṇī rādhikā-pada-raja pūjaye māni

- (6) Brahmā, Shiva, Nārada, the śrutis, and Nārāyaṇī (Lakṣmī) worship with regard the holy feet of Śrī Rādhā.

umā, ramā, satyā, śachī, chandrā, rukminī rādhā-avatār sobe, —āmnāya-vāṇī

- (7) Umā, Ramā, Satyā, Śachī, Chandrāvālī, and Rukminī are all personal expansions of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī — this is the self-evident verdict of the Vedas.

heno rādhā-paricharjyā jākara dhana bhaktivinoda tāra māgaye charaṇa

- (8) Bhaktivinoda, whose only wealth is the service of Śrī Rādhā, humbly prays to be a serving maid at Her lotus feet.

Rādhā-kuṇḍataṭa-kuñja-kutīra

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Thākur

rādhākuṇḍataṭa-kuñjakuṭīra govardhana-parvvata jāmuna-tīra

- (1) The grove-dwelling on the banks of Rādhā-kuṇḍa, Govardhan mountain, the banks of River Jamunā;

kusuma-sarovara, mānasa-gaṅgā kalinda-nandinī vipula-taraṅgā

- (2) Kusuma-sarovar lake, Mānasa-gaṅgā river,
The rolling waves of Jamunā, daughter of the sun;

vamśīvaṭa, gokula, dhīrasamīra vr̥ndāvana-taru latikā-vānīra

- (3) Place of the Rāsa dance, and Gokula, the gentle breezes, The trees, vines, and Vetasa palms of Braja;

khaga-mṛgakula, malaya-bātāsa mayura, bhramara, muralī-vilāsa

- (4) The birds and animals, the sweet air of spring,
The peacocks, bumblebees, the flute's sweet song;

venu, śṛṅga, padachihna, meghamālā vasanta, śāśāṅka, śaṅkha karatālā

- (5) Flute, horn, His footsteps, range of clouds in the sky, Season of spring, the moon, the conch, hand-cymbals;

jugala vilāse anukūla jāni līlā-vilāsa-uddīpaka māni

- (6) I know all these things are nourishing the Pastimes of the Divine Couple, I can feel they arouse the holy Pastimes of the Lord;

e soba choḍata kāḥā nāhi jāū e soba choḍata parāṇa hārāū

(7) I can never leave all these things so dear to me, 225 Without them I know I'll surely die;

bhaktivinoda kohe, śuno kāna tuyā uddīpaka hāmārā parāṇa

(8) Hear me, O Kāna, says Śrī Bhaktivinoda:
You are the only light of my life.

Śrī Rādhikā-stava

by Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī

rādhe jaya jaya mādhava-dayite gokula-taruṇī-maṇḍala-mahite

(1) O Rādhā! O beloved of Mādhava! O You who are worshiped by all the young girls of Gokula! All glories unto You! All glories unto You!

dāmodara-rati-vardhana-veśe hari-niṣkuṭa-vṛṇdā-vipineśe

(2) You who dress Yourself in such a way as to increase Lord Dāmodar's love and attachment for You! O Queen of Vṛṇdāvan, which is the pleasure grove of Lord Hari!

vṛṣabhbānūdadhi-nava-śāsi-lekhe lalitā-sakhi guṇa-ramita-viśākhe

(3) O new moon who has arisen from the ocean of King Vṛṣabhānu! O friend of Lalitā! O You who make Viśākhā loyal to You due to Your wonderful qualities of friendliness, kindness, and faithfulness to Krishna!

koruṇāṁ kuru moyi koruṇā-bhorite sanaka-sanātana-varṇita-charite

(4) O You who are filled with compassion! O You whose divine characteristics are described by the great sages Sanaka and Sanātan! O Rādhā, please be merciful to me!

 He deva bhavantam vande

by Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī

he deva bhavantam vande
man-mānasa-madhukara marpaya nija-pada-paṅkaja-makarande

(1) Oh Lord, I offer my respectful obeisances to You. May you place the bumblebee of my mind in the honey of Your lotus feet.

yadapi samādhiṣu vidhir api paśyati na tava nakhā gramarīchim idam ichāmi niśamya tavāchyuta tad api kṛpādbhuta vīchim

(2) Although Brahmā in his saṁādhi cannot obtain a glimpse of even a ray of the tips of the nails of Your feet, still Oh Achyuta! Having heard of the waves of Your astonishing mercy, I yearn to see You.

bhaktir udañchatि yad api mādhava na tvayi mama tila-mātri parameśvaratā tad api tavādhikadurghaṭa-ghaṭana-vidhātri

(3) Oh Mādhava, although I have not even a sesame seed of devotion for You, Your supreme power can make even the impossible become possible.

ayam avilola tayādyā sanātana kalitādbhuta-rasa-bhāram nivasatu nityam iḥāmrta-nindini vindan madhurima-sāram

(4) Oh eternal Lord, may the bumblebee of my mind, finding there the most wonderful sweetness, eternally stay in the honey of Your lotus feet, which rebuke the sweetest nectar.

Jaya Rādhā-Mādhava

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

(jaya) rādhā-mādhava      (jaya) kuñja-bihārī (jaya) gopī-jana-vallabha      (jaya) giri-vara-dhārī (jaya) jaśodā-nandana, (jaya) braja-jana-rañjana, (jaya) jāmuna-tīra-vana-chārī

Krishna is the lover of Rādhā. He displays many amorous Pastimes in the groves of Vṛndāvan, He is the lover of the cowherd maidens of Braja, the holder of the great hill named Govardhan, the beloved son of Mother Jaśodā, the delighter of the inhabitants of Braja, and He wanders in the forests along the banks of the River Jamunā.

Śrī Jugala-ārati

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

jaya jaya rādhā-kṛṣṇa jugala-milan ārati koroye lalitādi sakhī-gon

(1) All glories, all glories to the meeting of the transcendental couple, Śrī Śrī Rādhā Krishna. The gopīs headed by Lalitā devī perform the ceremony of their worship.

madana-mohana rūpa tri-bhaṅga-sundara pītāmbara śikhi-pucha-chūḍā-manohara

(2) Krishna is the attractor of Cupid, and His beautiful form is bending in three places with yellow garments and a charming peacock-feather crown.

Prayer to the Gopīs
by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

rādhā-kṛṣṇa prāṇa mora jugala-kiśora jīvane maraṇe gati āro nāhi mora

(1) The youthful Divine Couple Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Krishna are my life and soul. In life or death I have no other refuge but Them.

kālindīra kūle keli-kadambera bon ratana-bedira upara bosābo du'jon

(2) I shall install the Divine Couple on a jewelled throne in a pleasant forest of kadamba trees on the shore of the Jamunā river.

śyāma-gaurī-aṅge dibo chandanera gandha chāmara ḍhulābo kobe heri mukha-chandra

(3) When will I place aromatic sandalwood paste on the limbs of Lord Śyāmasundar and Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī? When will I fan Them with a chāmara wisk? When will I see Their moonlike faces?

gān̄thiyā mālātir mālā dibo doñhara gole adhare tuliyā dibo karpūra-tāmbule

(4) When will I string garlands of malati flowers and place them on the necks of the Divine Couple? When will I place betel nuts mixed with camphor in Their lotus mouths?

lalitā visākhā-ādi jata sakhī-vṛnda ājñāya koribo sevā charaṇāravinda

(5) When, following the orders of Lalitā, Viśākhā and the other gopīs, will I serve the lotus feet of the Divine Couple?

śrī-kṛṣṇa-chaitanya-prabhur dāser anudāsa sevā abhilāṣa kore narottama-dāsa

(6) Narottam dās, the servant of the servant of Śrī Krishna Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, longs for this service to the Divine Couple.

by Śrīla Krishnadās Kavirāj Goswāmī

jaya rādhe, jaya krṣṇa, jaya vṛndāvan śrī-govinda, gopīnātha, madana-mohan

(1) All glories to Rādhā and Krishna and the divine forest of Vṛndāvan. All glories to the three presiding Deities of Vṛndāvan— Śrī Govinda, Gopīnāth, and Madana-Mohan.

śyāma-kuṇḍa, rādhā-kuṇḍa, giri-govardhan kālindī jamunā jaya, jaya mahāvan

(2) All glories to Śyāma-kuṇḍa, Rādhā-kuṇḍa, Govardhan Hill, and the Jamunā River (Kālindī). All glories to the great forest known as Mahāvan, where Krishna and Balarām displayed all of Their childhood Pastimes.

keśī-ghāṭa, vamśī-vaṭa, dvādaśa-kānan jāhā sob līlā koilo śrī-nanda-nandan

(3) All glories to Keśī-ghāṭa, where Krishna killed the Keśī demon. All glories to the Vamśī-vaṭa tree, where Krishna attracted all the gopīs to come by playing His flute. Glories to all of the twelve forests of Braja. At these places the son of Nanda, Śrī Krishna, performed all of His Pastimes.

śrī-nanda-jaśodā jaya, jaya gopa-gaṇ śrīdāmādi jaya, jaya dhenu-vatsa-gaṇ

(4) All glories to Krishna's divine father and mother, Nanda and Jaśodā. All glories to the cowherd boys, headed by Śrīdāmā, the older brother of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī and Anaṅga Mañjari. All glories to the cows and calves of Braja.

jaya vṛṣabhānu, jaya kīrttidā sundarī jaya paurṇamāsī, jaya ābhīra-nāgarī

(5) All glories to Rādhā's divine father and mother, Vṛṣabhānu and the beautiful Kīrtidā. All glories to Paurṇamāsī, the mother of Sāndīpani Muni, grand-mother of Madhumaṅgal and Nāndimukhī, and beloved disciple of Devarṣi Nārada. All glories to the young cowherd maidens of Braja.

jaya jaya gopeśvara vṛndāvana-mājh jaya jaya kṛṣṇa-sakhā baṭu dvija-rāj

(6) All glories, all glories to Gopeśvara Shiva, who resides in Vṛndāvan in order to protect the holy dhām. All glories, all glories to Krishna's funny brāhmaṇa friend, Madhumaṅgal.

jaya rāma-ghāṭa, jaya rohiṇī-nandan jaya jaya vṛndāvana-bāsī jata jon

(7) All glories to Rāma-ghāṭa, where Lord Balarām performed His rāsa dance. All glories to Lord Balarām, the son of Rohiṇī. All glories, all glories to all of the residents of Vṛndāvan.

jaya dvija-patnī, jaya nāga-konyā-goṇ bhaktite jāhārā pāilo govinda-charan

(8) All glories to the wives of the proud Vedic brāhmaṇas. All glories to the wives of the Kāliya serpent. Through pure devotion they all obtained the lotus feet of Lord Govinda.

śrī-rāsa-maṇḍala jaya, jaya rādhā-śyām jaya jaya rāsa-līlā sarvva-manoram

(9) All glories to the place where the rāsa dance of Śrī Krishna was performed. All glories to Rādhā and Śyāma. All glories, all glories to the divine rāsa dance, which is the most beautiful of all of Lord Krishna's Pastimes.

jaya jayojvala-rasa sarvva-rasa-sār parakiyā-bhāve jāhā brajete prachār

(10) All glories, all glories to the mellow of conjugal love, which is the most excellent of all rasas and is propagated in Braja by Śrī Krishna in the form of the divine parakiyā-bhāva [paramour love].

(11) Remembering the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda's consort, Śrī Jāhnava Devī, this very fallen and lowly Krishnadās sings the saṅkīrttan of the Holy Name.

(1) His birth is successful whose good fortune dawns so as to have the vision of Lord Krishna just once. When the soul gives up all delusions of the mind, then only will they see the vision of Krishna blooming within the eyes of their heart.

vṛndāvana-keli chatur vanamālī tribhaṅga-bhaṅgimārūpa      vamśī-dharī aparūpa rasamoya nidhi, guṇa-śālī

(2) One sees Krishna there fully decorated with garlands of forest flowers as the most expert connoisseur of all the amorous love-sports in Vṛndāvan. His transcendental form bent in three places, playing wonderfully on His flute, He is the reservoir of all relishable mellowes and is the abode of all virtuous qualities.

varṇa nava jaladhara      śire śikhi picha vara

(3) By such a beautiful form He is maddening the entire universe. His complexion is like that of a fresh new rain cloud, His head is decorated with a big peacock feather, and the sandalwood tilak on His forehead is most becoming. Wearing brilliant yellow-coloured garments, He stands with His face decorated by a wide, sweet smile.

(4) Beholding Him standing at the base of a kadamba tree, I can see that Krishna's beauty is conquering the lustre of an entire mine of sapphires. Seeing this, my mind has become so restless that my feet will move no longer, and I've completely forgotten about my family and home life in this world.

(sakhī he) sudhāmoya se rūpa-mādhurī<sup>1</sup> dekhile nayana,      hoyā achetana,

(4) O sakhī! Oh dear girlfriend! Seeing that sweet form abounding in nectar, I have fallen unconscious as a fountain of tears gushing with ecstatic love cascades from my eyes.

kibā chūḍā śire      kibā varṇī kore kibā se tribhaṅga-ṭhāma charaṇa-kamale,      amiyā uchole,

(5) What a wonderful crown upon His head! What a wonderful flute He is holding in His hand! What a wonderfully beautiful form as He stands in His three-fold bending posture! The nectar of His lotus feet is overflowing with the tinkling sound coming from the clusters of ankle bells which are decorating them.

sadā āśā kori      bhṛṅga-rūpa dhori charaṇa kamale sthāna anāyāse pāi      kṛṣṇa-guṇa gāi

(6) Accepting the form of a honeybee, I always hope for a residence near His lotus feet. And I will get it very easily because I always sing the glories of Krishna, adoring no-one else.

 ananta kohite nāhi pāre kṛṣṇa jagatera guru      kṛṣṇa vāñchākalpataru nāviko se bhava-pārābāre

(1) Listen to this, oh wisest relishers of mallows! The transcendental qualities of Śrī Krishna are innumerable; indeed it is not possible to describe such unlimited divine attributes. Krishna is the spiritual master of the entire universe, He is like a wish-fulfilling desire-tree, and He is the helmsman of the boat on the ocean of material existence.

hṛdoya pīḍita jā'ra      kṛṣṇa chikitsaka tā'ra bhava roga nāśite chatura kṛṣṇa bahirmukha jone      premāmṛta vitaraṇe krame loya nija antaḥpura

(2) Krishna is just like a doctor for those whose hearts are ailing, as He is very expert at destroying the diseased condition of material existence. By distributing the nectar of ecstatic love to all the inimical souls, He gradually takes them back into His own confidential realm.

karma-bandha jñāna-bandha, āveśe mānava andha tāre kṛṣṇa koruṇā sāgara pādapadma madhu diyā, andha-bhāva ghuchāiyā charaṇe korena anuchara

(3) Krishna is an ocean of compassion for those who are bound up in fruitive reactions, as well as for those bound up in philosophical speculation, and for those blinded by other human perplexities. Giving the honey of His lotus feet, and thus relieving the darkness of such worldliness, He makes one an attendant of His own feet.

vidhi-mārga rata jone      svādhīnatā ratna dāne rāgamārge karāna praveśa

rāga-baśavarti ho'ye pārakīya-bhāvāśroye lobhe jīva kṛṣṇa-premāveśa

(4) Krishna eventually bestows the jewel of independence unto those persons who are attached to the path of rules and regulations, thereby allowing them entrance into the path of spontaneous loving service. Becoming influenced by such spontaneity, remaining under the shelter of the mellow of unwedded love (pārakīya-bhāva), the soul finally attains all the symptoms of ecstatic love for Krishna.

premāṁṛta-vāri-dhārā sadā pānarata tā'ra kṛṣṇa tāhādera bandhu pati sei saba braja-jana sukalyāṇa-niketana dīnahīna vinodera gati

(5) Krishna is the dearmost friend and husband of those who are always attached to drinking the fountain of ecstatic tears of love. Thus, the goal of this most fallen and lowly Bhaktivinoda is to be with all such residents of Braja within the abode of supreme auspiciousness.

 Jaya Jaśodā-Nandana Kṛṣṇa
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

jaya jaśodā-nandana kṛṣṇa gopāla govinda jaya madana-mohana hari ananta mukunda

(1) All glories to Krishna, the son of Mother Jaśodā, the cowherd boy and giver of pleasure to the cows! All glories to the conquerer of Cupid, Lord Hari, who takes away all inauspiciousness, who is unlimited, and the awarder of liberation!

jaya achyuta mādhava rām vṛndāvana-chandra jaya muralī-vadana śyāma gopī-janānanda

(2) All glories to the infallible Lord, husband of the goddess of fortune, the supreme enjoyer, and the moon of Vṛndāvan! All glories to Krishna, who always holds a flute to His mouth, who is the colour of a dark blue rain-cloud, and is the bliss of the gopīs!

Śrī Guru-paramparā

Verses 1-9 composed by Śrīla Saraswati Ṭhākur

kṛṣṇa hoite chatur-mukha, hon kṛṣṇa-sevonmukha, brahmā hoite nāraderā mati nārada hoite vyāsa, madhva kohe vyāsa-dāsa, pūrnāprajñā padmanābha gati

(1) In the beginning of creation the science of devotional service was received by the four-headed Brahmā from the Supreme Lord Śrī Krishna. Devarṣi Nārada's understanding of this divine science was obtained from Brahmā. The great sage Krishna Dvaipāyana Vyāsa, who was empowered to compile the Vedic literatures, became a disciple of Devarṣi Nārada. Śrīpād Madhvāchāryya, the founder of the Suddha-dvaita school of Vedānta philosophy, who visited Vyāsadeva at Badarīkāśram in the thirteenth century to learn from him Vedānta philosophy, calls himself a servant of Krishna Dvaipāyana Vyāsa. Pūrnāprajñā Tīrtha [Madhva] is the guru and sole refuge of Padmanābha Tīrtha.

nṛhari mādhava-bāṁśe, akṣobhya paramahāṁse, śiṣya boli aṅgikāra kore akṣobhyera śiṣya jaya- tīrtha nāme parichaya, tāra dāsye jñānasindhu tore

(2) The two other principal disciples of Madhva are Nṛhari Tīrtha and Mādhava Tīrtha. Mādhava Tīrtha accepted the great paramahaṁsa Akṣobhya Tīrtha as a disciple. The principal disciple of Akṣobhya Tīrtha was known as Jayatīrtha. Jayatīrtha's service was for his disciple Jñānasindhu.

tāhā hoite dayānidhi, tāra dāsa vidyānidhi, rājendra hoilo tāhā hoite tāhāra kiṅkora jaya- dharma nāme parichoya, paramparā jāno bhālo mate

(3) Dayānidhi received the science of 239 devotional service from Jñānasindhu, and the servant of Dayānidhi was Vidyānidhi [Vidyādhirāja Tīrtha]. Rājendra Tīrtha became a disciple of Vidyādhirāja Tīrtha. Rājendra Tīrtha's servant was known as Jayadharma or Vijayadhvaja Tīrtha. In this way you should properly understand this disciplic succession.

jayadharma-dāsyे khyāti, śrī puruṣottama-yati tā'ha-te brahmaṇya-tīrtha sūri vyāsatīrtha tāra dāsa, lakṣmīpati vyāsa-dāsa, tāha hoite mādhavendra purī

(4) The great sannyāsī Śrī Puruṣottama Tīrtha received his knowledge in the service of his guru, Vijayadhvaja Tīrtha [Jayadharma]. The principal disciple of Puruṣottama Tīrtha was Subrahmaṇya Tīrtha. His servant was the great Vyāsatīrtha [Vyāsa Rāya]. Vyāsatīrtha's servant was Lakṣmīpati Tīrtha, whose disciple was Mādhavendra Purī Goswāmī.

mādhavendra purī-barā, śiṣya-barā śrī-īśvara, nityānanda, śrī-advaita vibhu īśvara-purīke dhonya, korilena śrī-chaitanya, jagad-guru gaura mahāprabhu

(5) The chief disciple of Mādhavendra Purī was Īśvara Purī, and two of his other disciples were the renowned incarnations of Godhead Śrī Nityānanda and Śrī Advaita Āchāryya. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, the spiritual preceptor of all the worlds, made Īśvara Purī greatly fortunate by accepting him as His spiritual master.

mahāprabhu śrī-chaitanya, rādhā-kṛṣṇa nahe anya, rūpānuga jonera jīvana viśvambhara priyāṅkara, śrī svarūpa-dāmodara, śrī gosvāmī rūpa-sanātana

(6) Mahāprabhu Śrī Chaitanya is nondifferent from Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Krishna and is the very life of those Vaiṣṇavas who follow Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī. Śrī Swarūp Goswāmī were the givers of great happiness to Viśvambhara [Śrī Chaitanya].

rūpapriya mahājana,      jīva-raghunātha hon, tāra priya kavi kṛṣṇadāsa kṛṣṇadāsa-priyabara,      narottama sevāpara, jāra pada viśvanātha-āśa

(7) The great souls Jīva Goswāmī and Raghunātha dās Goswāmī became very dear to Rūpa Goswāmī. Jīva Goswāmī was a disciple of Rūpa Goswāmī. Raghunātha dās Goswāmī, a disciple of Advaita Āchāryya's disciple Jadunandan Āchāryya, was accepted by Rūpa and Sanātan as their third brother. Raghunātha dās Goswāmī's beloved student was Krishnadās Kavirāj Goswāmī. Kṛṣṇadās Kavirāj was an intimate friend of Lokanāth Goswāmī. They lived together in Vṛndāvan and always discussed the topics of Krishna with one another. Lokanāth Goswāmī, a disciple of Gadādhara Paṇḍit, had only one disciple, whose name was Narottam dās. Narottam dās was always engaged in the service of his guru, and he also engaged himself in the service of his guru's intimate friends. Thus he became very dear to Krishnadās Kavirāj Goswāmī. To serve the feet of Narottam dās Thākur was the only desire of Viśvanāth Chakravartī Thākur, who was the fourth āchāryya in disciplic succession from Narottam dās.

tāra priya śrī-bhaktivinoda mahā-bhāgavata-barā,      śrī-gaurakiśora-barā,

(8) Viśvanātha Chakravartī Thākura was the śiksā-guru [instructing spiritual master] of Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa, to whom he taught the precepts of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam. Jagannāth dās Bābājī was a very prominent Āchāryya after Śrī Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa and was the beloved śiksā-guru of Śrī Bhaktivinoda Thākur. Bhaktivinoda Thākur's intimate friend and associate was the eminent mahā-bhāgavat Śrī Gaura Kiśora dās Bābājī, whose sole joy was found in hari-bhajana.

This is our grand preceptorial line and all of them are very dear to Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. My sustenance is their remnants alone.

(1) He (of divine form) came forth from the birthplace of the golden lotus - the ocean of the mellow of divine consorthood. His large, merciful eyes dispel (the suffering souls') fear and proclaim (the surrendered souls') victory. His tongue (constantly) vibrates the whole Earth planet with Śrī Krishna-saṅkīrttan, his beauty resplendent in the robes of the sun's radiance (saffron) that purifies the universe and dispels the suffering of material existence. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

(2) The devotees surrendered in pure devotion are eternally protected at his lotus feet. He is worshippable by the pure souls endowed with sincerity and good fortune, and he accepts (even) those who obstruct the service of Śrī Hari, just to rectify them. As the very fountainhead of mercy upon all mobile and immobile beings, he crushes the inauspiciousness of the whole universe. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

(3) Like a miracle, his body moves with a joyful elegance and charm beyond the world's understanding, fulfilling the artist's aspiration. (Or, dancing in Pastimes transcendental to the world, his artistic form incites divine love's hankering). His intellect surpasses that of (even) the demigods, and he is nobility incarnate as the commander in-chief of the Vaiṣṇava sannyāsīs (tridandiyatis). The sādhus of profound intellect describe the nature of his personality as meticulously in the line of Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Rūpa, and Śrī Raghunāth, and they speak of him as being on the same plane as Śrī Jīvapāda (being superbly replete in perfect theistic conclusions). On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

(4) On the bank of Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa at Svānanda Sukhada Kuṇja, he is devoted to the service of his Beloved, and (furthermore) he is greatly endeared to the divine damsels of Braja headed by Lalitā. He is most favourite to Kamala-mañjari who is pre-eminent in Vṛndāvan, and with the glorious qualities of Guṇamañjari he builds the residence of Śrī Hari. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

(5) He is immaculate joy incarnate, or, he is the graciousness or the joy of Vimalā Devī. He manifested the Pastimes of his Advent at Puruṣottama Kṣetra in the holy land of Orissa, and he revealed his Pastimes of delivering the fallen souls and extending his mercy upon them (by awarding them the gift of divine love) at the ‘new isles,’ or Nabadwīp. Circumambulating Gaura Dhām in the same way as traditionally done at Braja Dhām and Puruṣottama Dhām, he continuously propagates - the loving desire of Braja, the divine abode of Vaikuṇṭha, and the holy name of Krishna. On his Day of Holy Advent, I (again and again) make my obeisance unto that dear associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his holy lotus feet.

Āchāryya vandana

Composed by Gopāl Govinda Mahanta

jayare jayare jaya      paramahāmsa mahāśaya śrī bhaktisiddhānta sarasvatī gosvāmī ṭhākura jaya      parama koruṇāmoya dīnahīna agatira gati

(1) All glories, all glories to the topmost personality, Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Gosvāmī Ṭhākur, who is an ocean of mercy and the only resort for the fallen souls.

nilāchole hoiyā udaya śrī gaudamaṇḍale āsi’      prema bhakti parakāśi’ jivera nāśilā bhava-bhaya

(2) He made his advent in Śrī Nilāchala, Śrī Puri Dhām. He came to the holy dhām of Mahāprabhu, manifesting the line of pure devotion and destroying the fear of material life of the conditioned souls.

tomāra mahimā gāi      heno sādhya mora nāi tobe pāri jodi deho śakti viśvahite avirata                āchāra-prachāre rata viśuddha śrī rūpānuga bhakti

(3) I have no capacity to sing your glories. Only if you empower me can I do so. You are travelling unceasingly all over India, practising and preaching in a dedicated way, the pure and genuine line of devotion in the current of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī.

śrīpāṭ khetari dhāma      ṭhākura śrī narottama tomāte tāhāra guṇa dekhi śāstrera siddhānta-sāra      śuni lāge chamatkāra kutārkika dite nāre phāki

(4) We see your qualities are like Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur who in the festival at Khetari Dhām delivered all the wonderful conclusions of the Scriptures which defeated the unfair argument and deception of the scholars there.

śuddha bhakti-mata jata      upadharma-kavalita heriyā lokera mone trāsa hāni' susiddhānta-vāṇa      upadharma khāna khāna sajanera vāḍale ullāsa

(5) By presenting the line of pure devotion he devoured the path of unscriptural practice, and seeing this everybody was afraid. He struck this unscriptural path leaving it in pieces, giving increasing joy to all honest and noble men.

smārttamata jaladhara      śuddha bhakti robi-kara āchādila bhāviyā antare śāstra sindhu manthanete      susiddhānta jhañjhāvāte udāilā dig digantare

(6) Pure devotion is like the sun risen in the heart, while the path of logic is like clouds covering that sun. By churning the ocean of the Scriptures, you spread perfect conclusions in all directions like a hurricane to disperse the clouds.

sthāne sthāne koto moṭh   sthāpiyācha niṣkapoṭ prema sevā śikhāite jīve moṭhera vaiṣṇava goṇ   kore sadā vitaroṇ

(7) You founded many temples in many places without reservation, teaching the fallen souls service in divine love. In these temples the Vaiṣṇavas constantly distribute talks on the nectarean qualities of the Supreme Lord Hari.

śuddha-bhakti-mandākinī   vimala pravāha āni śitala korilā taptaprāṇa deśe deśe niṣkiñchan   prerilā vaiṣṇava goṇ

(8) The current of pure devotion descends like the flow of the Ganges, cooling the fire of suffering of material life. Similarly, you sent the Vaiṣṇavas from place to place, widely distributing and chanting the qualities of Lord Hari.

pūrvve jathā gaurahari   māyāvāda cheda kori vaiṣṇava korilā kāśivāsī vaiṣṇava darśana-sukṣma   vichāre tumi he dakṣa

(9) Just as in the past, Lord Gaurahari severed the māyāvāda conception, converting the residents of Vārāṇasī into Vaiṣṇavas, similarly by expert analysis of the Vaiṣṇava philosophy you have enraptured all in Vārāṇasī.

daiva-varṇāśrama-dharma hari bhakti jāra marma śāstra jukte korilā-niśchoy

(10) You showed that certainly devotion to Lord Hari at the core of daiva-varṇāśrama-dharma, is the directive of the revealed Scriptures, while knowledge, yoga and material activities, if averse to such devotion are of absolutely no value.

(11) You founded parikramā of Śrī Gauḍa Maṇḍala, Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām in the association of the devotees, showing your glories as a great devotee. You showed the whole world the nectarean blissful nature of Śrī Gauḍa Maṇḍala and how it is non-different from Śrī Braja Maṇḍala, Śrī Vṛndāvan.

(12) You forgave all the atheists of Kuliyā village, despite their blasphemous behaviour. Loudly you proclaimed to one and all, one who is more tolerant than a tree can chant the glories of Lord Hari endlessly.

    viśvavāsī jon-hite rata

(13) In the grand assembly of Vaiṣṇava kings you are adorned with the title ‘Pātrarāj’, as the head of the assembly. For the benefit of the whole world, you have renounced everything and devoted yourself to the good of all.

    lobhe jīva śrī kṛṣṇa-sevāya dūre jāya bhava-roga        khanḍe jāhe karma bhoga hari pāda padma jā'te pāya

(14) You untiringly perform benevolent works just to help the souls of this world to attain the service of Lord Śrī Krishna. Then the disease of material suffering would

248 leave them, their bondage to fruitive works would break and they would attain the lotus feet of the Lord.

(15) Seeing the souls of this world sleeping in illusion, you are sending the ‘Gauḍīya’ magazine from door to door just like a messenger from the transcendental plane. It calls aloud, “Awake, arise, O brother, there is no more time to waste, Serve and worship your Lord, Śrī Krishna.”

(16) Hearing the nectarean verses of the glorious qualities of the infallible Lord Krishna, issuing from your lotus mouth soothes our souls, dissipates our ignorance and illusion, and the pain in our hearts goes far away.

(17) O great soul! I know that there is no trace of desire for fame in your heart. Your qualities, like an expert musician, take hold of the vīṇā of my voice and make me speak, devoid of any power over myself.

śuniyāchi sādhu guru mukhe krṣṇa bhakti-samudoy      janama saphala hoy e bhava-sāagara tore sukhe

(18) I have heard from the great saints and gurus mouths that upon hearing the qualities of the Vaiṣṇava saints, the conditioned souls attain liberation. 249

And beyond this, devotion to Krishna develops, makes the soul's birth perfect and the soul crosses this material ocean happily with ease.

nija guṇe kṣomivā āmāre

(19) For this reason I endeavour thus, just like a dwarf aspiring to reach the moon. I am lowly and fallen, but your nature is not to consider any offence, so I beg you to pardon my flaws.

śrī gaurāṅga-pāriṣada                  ṭhākura bhaktivinoda dīnahīna patitera bandhu kali-tamah vināśite                  ānilena avanīte toma' akalaṅka pūrṇa indu

(20) Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur, the associate of Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu and friend of the lowly fallen souls brought you here, and you came like a spotless full moon to dispel the ignorance of this age of Kali.

koro kṛpā vitarāṇa                  premasudhā anukṣāṇa

(21) So please keep incessantly showering your mercy, the nectar of ecstatic love of Godhead, and let all the souls of this world be uplifted by that. May all the people of the world dance in the congregational chanting of the Lord's Holy Name - this is the prayer of this servant of the Vaiṣṇavas.

pralaya-payodhi-jale dhṛtavān asi vedam

(1) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a fish! All glories to You! You easily acted as a boat in the form of a giant fish just to give protection to the Vedas, which had become immersed in the turbulent sea of devastation.

(2) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a tortoise! All glories to You! In this incarnation as a divine tortoise the great Mandara Mountain rests upon Your gigantic back as a pivot for churning the ocean of milk. From holding up the huge mountain a large scarlike depression is put in Your back, which has become most glorious.

(3) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a boar! All glories to You! The earth, which had become immersed in the Garbhodaka Ocean at the bottom of the universe, sits fixed upon the tip of Your tusk like a spot upon the moon.

tava kara-kamala-vare nakham adbhuta-śringam

(4) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of half-man, half-lion! All glories to You! Just as one can easily crush a wasp between one's fingernails, so in the same way the body of the wasplike demon Hiranyakaśipu has been 251 ripped apart by the wonderful pointed nails on Your beautiful lotus hands.

chalayasi vikramaṇe balim adbhuta-vāmana

(5) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a dwarf-brāhmaṇa! All glories to You! Oh wonderful dwarf, by Your massive steps You deceive King Bali, and by the Ganges water that has emanated from the nails of Your lotus feet, You deliver all living beings within this world.

ksatriya-rudhira-maye jagad-apagata-pāpam

(6) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Bhṛgupati [Paraśurāma]! All glories to You! At Kurukṣetra You bathe the earth in the rivers of blood from the bodies of the demoniac ksatriyas that You have slain. The sins of the world are washed away by You, and because of You people are relieved from the blazing fire of material existence.

vitarasi dikṣu raṇe dik-pati-kamanīyam

(7) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Rāmachandra! All glories to You! In the battle of Laṅkā You destroy the ten-headed demon Rāvaṇa and distribute his heads as a delightful offering to the presiding deities of the ten directions, headed by Indra. This action was long desired by all of them, who were much harassed by this monster.

vahasi vapusī viśade vasanam jaladābhām

(8) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord

252 Hari, who have assumed the form of Balarām, the wielder of the plow! All glories to You! On Your brilliant white body You wear garments the colour of a fresh blue rain cloud. These garments are coloured like the beautiful dark hue of the River Jamunā, who feels great fear due to the striking of Your plowshare.

nindasi yajña-vidher ahaha śruti-jātam

(9) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Buddha! All glories to You! Oh Buddha of compassionate heart, you decry the slaughtering of poor animals performed according to the rules of Vedic sacrifice.

mlecha nivaha-nidhane kalayasi karavālam

(11) Oh Keśava! Oh Lord of the universe! Oh Lord Hari, who have assumed these ten different forms of incarnation! All glories to You! Oh readers, please hear this hymn of the poet Jayadeva, which is most excellent, an awarder of happiness, a bestower of auspiciousness, and is the best thing in this dark world.

(12) Oh Lord Krishna, I offer my obeisances 253 unto You, who appear in the forms of these ten incarnations. In the form of Matsya You rescue the Vedas, and as Kūrma You bear the Mandara Mountain on Your back. As Varāha You lift the earth with Your tusk, and in the form of Narasimha You tear open the chest of the demon Hiranyakāśipu. In the form of Vāmana You trick the demoniac king Bali by asking him for only three steps of land, and then You take away the whole universe from him by expanding Your steps. As Paraśurāma You slay all of the wicked kṣatriyas, and as Rāmachandra You conquer the rākṣasa king Rāvaṇa. In the form of Balarām You carry a plough with which You subdue the wicked and draw toward You the River Jamunā. As Lord Buddha You show compassion toward all the living beings suffering in this world, and at the end of the Kali-yuga You appear as Kalki to bewilder the mlechas [degraded low-class men].

Śrī Nṛsiṁha Pranām

namas te narasiṁhāya

I offer my obeisances to Lord Narasiṁha, who gives joy to Prahlād Mahārāj and whose nails are like chisels on the stonelike chest of the demon Hiranyakaśipu.

ito nṛsiṁhaḥ parato nṛsiṁho yato yato yāmi tato nṛsiṁhaḥ bahir nṛsiṁho hṛdaye nṛsiṁho

Lord Nṛsiṁha is here and also there. Wherever I go Lord Nṛsiṁha is there. He is in the heart and is outside as well. I surrender to Lord Nṛsiṁha, the origin of all things and the supreme refuge.

(1) To the Supreme Lord, whose form is the embodiment of eternal existence, knowledge, and bliss, whose shark-shaped earrings are swinging to and fro, who is beautifully shining in the divine realm of Gokul, who [due to the offence of breaking the pot of yoghurt that his mother was churning into butter and then stealing the butter that was kept hanging from a swing] is quickly running from the wooden grinding mortar in fear of Mother Yaśodā, but who has been caught from behind by her who ran after Him with greater speed—to that Supreme Lord, Śrī Dāmodar, I offer my humble obeisances.

(2) [Seeing the whipping stick in His mother's hand,] He is crying and rubbing His eyes again and again with His two lotus hands. His eyes are filled with fear, and the necklace of pearls around His neck, which is marked with three lines like a conchshell, is shaking because of His quick breathing due to crying. To this Supreme Lord, Śrī Dāmodar, whose belly is bound not with ropes but with His mother's pure love, I offer my humble obeisances.

(3) By such childhood Pastimes as this He is drowning the inhabitants of Gokul in pools of ecstasy, and is revealing to those devotees who are absorbed in knowledge of His supreme majesty and opulence that He is only conquered by devotees whose pure love is imbued with intimacy and is free from all conceptions of awe and reverence. With great love I again offer my obeisances to Lord Dāmodar hundreds and hundreds of times.

varam deva moksam na moksāvadhim vā

(4) Oh Lord, although You are able to give all kinds of benedictions, I do not pray to You for the boon of impersonal liberation, nor the highest liberation of eternal life in Vaikuṇṭha, nor any other boon [which may be obtained by executing the nine processes of bhakti]. Oh Lord, I simply wish that this form of Yours as Bāla Gopāl in Vṛndāvan may ever be manifest in my heart, for what is the use to me of any other boon besides this?

idan te mukhāmbhojam avyakta-nilair

(5) Oh Lord, Your lotus face, which is encircled by locks of soft black hair tinged with red, is kissed again and again by Mother Yaśoda, and Your lips are reddish like the bimba fruit. May this beautiful vision of Your lotus face be ever manifest in my heart. Thousands and thousands of other benedictions are of no use to me.

(6) O Supreme Godhead, I offer my obeisances unto You. O Dāmodar! O Ananta! O Viṣṇu! O Master! O my Lord, be pleased upon me. By showering Your glance of mercy upon me, deliver this poor ignorant fool who is immersed in an ocean of worldly sorrows, and become visible to my eyes.

(7) O Lord Dāmodar, just as the two sons of Kuvera—Maṇigrīva and Nalakīvara—were delivered from the curse of Nārada and made into great devotees by You in Your form as a baby tied with rope to a wooden grinding mortar, in the same way, please give to me Your own prema-bhakti. I only long for this and have no desire for any kind of liberation.

(8) O Lord Dāmodar, I first of all offer my obeisances to the brilliantly effulgent rope which binds Your belly. I then offer my obeisances to Your belly, which is the abode of the entire universe. I humbly bow down to Your most beloved Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, and I offer all obeisances to You, the Supreme Lord, who displays unlimited Pastimes.

Śrīman Mahāprabhur śata-nāma
 by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

nadīyā-nagare nitāi neche neche gāy re

(Refrain:) In the towns and villages of Nadia, Lord Nityānanda ecstatically dances and sings these Names of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu.

jagannātha-suta mahāprabhu viśvambhara māyāpura-śāsi navadvīpa-sudhākara

(1) Lord Chaitanya is the beloved son of Jagannāth Miśra; He is Mahāprabhu, the great master, protector, and maintainer of the whole world. He is the shining moon of Māyāpur, dissipating the dark ignorance of the world, and the source of all nectar for the Land of Nabadwīp.

śachī-suta gaurahari nimāi-sundara rādhā-bhāva-kānti-āchādito naṭabara

(2) He is the beloved son of Śachī Mātā and is Lord Hari with a golden complexion. As He was born under a neem tree He was called Nimāi-sundar (beautiful Nimāi). He is covered by the sentiment and lustre of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, and He is the best of all dancers.

nāmānanda chapala bālaka māṭr-bhakta brahmāṇḍa-badana tarkī kautukānurakta

(3) Lord Chaitanya becomes ecstatic upon hearing the Holy Name of Hari. As a boy He was swift and agile, devoted to His mother, a great logician, and fond of joking. Millions of worlds are contained in His mouth.

vidyārthi-uḍupa chaura-dvayera mohana

(4) He bewildered two thieves who tried to steal His jewels when He was a small child, and He teased and joked with the village girls of Nadia. He is the moon among scholars and pre-eminent among all philosophers.

(7) Krishna, best of dancers, sometimes wanders in the caves of Govardhān Hill. He enjoys various amorous Pastimes in the autumn season, He is the lover of the young cowherd maidens, the stealer of their garments, and the Supreme Lord of all.

yajñā-patnī-gon-prati koruṇāra sindhu govardhana-dhṛīk mādhava braja-bāsi-bandhu

(8) Krishna is the ocean of mercy of the wives of the sacrificial brāhmaṇas, He is the holder of Govardhān Hill, the husband of the goddess of fortune, Lakṣmī, and the dearmost friend of the inhabitants of Braja.

indra-darpa-hārī nanda-rakṣitā mukunda śrī-gopī-ballabha rāsa-krīḍa pūrṇānanda

(9) He broke Indra's pride and protected His father, Nanda Mahārāj. He is the giver of liberation, the lover of the cowherd maidens of Braja, the enjoyer of the Rāsa Dance and the reservoir of pleasure.

śrī-rādhā-vallabha rādhā-mādhava sundara lalitā-viśākhā-ādi sakhi-prāṇeśvara

(10) He is the lover of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī and the very springtime of Her life. He is the Lord of the lives of all the gopikās of Vṛndāvan, headed by Lalitā and Viśākhā.

nava-jaladhara-kānti madana-mohana vana-mālī smera-mukha gopī-prāṇadhana

(11) Krishna possesses the loveliness of a fresh rain cloud in the Autumn sky. He is the bewilderer of Cupid, always garlanded with fresh forest flowers. His face is like a full-blown lotus flower of sweet smiles and laughter. He is the wealth of the lives of all the young maidens in Braja.

tri-bhaṅgī muralī-dhara jāmuna-nāgara rādhā-kuṇḍa-raṅga-netā rasera sāgara

(12) He possesses a beautiful three-fold bending form and holds a flute known as Muralī. He is the lover of the Jamunā River, the director of all the amorous love sports at Rādhā Kuṇḍa, and He is the ocean of devotional mélows.

chandrāvalī-prāṇanātha kautukābhilāśī<sup>1</sup> rādhā-māna-sulampaṭa milana-prayāsī

(13) Krishna is the Lord of the life of Chandrāvalī, and He is always desirous of joking and sporting. He is very anxious to taste the rasa of his beloved Rādhikā's feigned sulking and always endeavours for Their meeting.

mānasa-gangāra dānī prasūna-taskara gopī-saha haṭha-kārī braja-vaneśvara

(14) He is the giver of the Mānasa Gangā Lake to the inhabitants of Vṛndāvan. This thief of flower blossoms acts very outrageously with the maidens of Vṛndāvan, not caring for social restrictions, for He is the Lord of the Braja-mandala forests.

gokula-sampada gopa-duḥkha-nibāraṇa durmada-damana bhakta-santāpa-haraṇa

(15) He is the wealth of Gokul and protects the cowherd men and boys from all miseries. He curbs all foolish pride and removes all distress from His devotees.

sudarśana-mochana śrī-saṅkhachūḍāntaka rāmānuja śyāma-chāda muralī-bādaka

(16) Krishna gives the gopīs side-long glances and is the destroyer of Śaṅkhachūḍa. He is the younger brother of Lord Baladeva, He is the beautiful dark moon of Vṛndāvan and the player of the flute.

gopī-gīta-śrotā madhusūdana murāri ariṣṭa-ghātaka rādhā-kuṇḍādi-bihārī

(17) He hears the songs of the gopīs and is the slayer of the Madhu demon. This enemy of the demon Mura and killer of Ariṣṭāsura enjoys amorous sports and Pastimes at Rādhā Kuṇḍa and other places in Braja.

vyomāntaka padma-netra keśī-nisūdana raṅga-krīḍa kāṁsa-hantā mallu-praharaṇa

(18) Krishna is the destroyer of the demon Vyomāsura. He is lotus-eyed, the killer of the Keśī demon, frolicsome, the slayer of King Kamsa and the conquerer of Kamsa's wrestlers, Chāṇūra and Muṣṭika.

vasudeva-suta vṛṣṇi-baṁśa-kīrti-dhvaja dīnānātha mathureśa devakī-garbha-ja

(19) He is the beloved son of Vasudeva and the emblem of fame for the Vṛṣṇi dynasty. The Lord of the fallen souls, Śrī Krishna, is the Lord of Mathurā and He appears to have taken birth from the womb of Devakī.

kubjā-kṛpāmoya viṣṇu śauri nārāyaṇa dvārakeśa naraghna śrī-jadunandana

(20) Krishna is full of mercy for the hunchbacked Kubjā. He is the maintainer of the entire creation, the son of Vasudeva, the refuge of all souls, the Lord of Dvārakā, the slayer of Narakāsura and the beloved descendent of the Jadu dynasty.

śrī-rukmiṇī-kānta satyā-pati sura-pāla pāṇḍava-bāndhava śisupālādira kāla

(21) He is the lover of Rukmiṇī, the husband of Satyā, the protector of the godly, the beloved friend and relative of the five Pāṇḍava brothers and the cause of death for Śisupāla and other demoniac kings.

sarvva-avatāra-bīja viśvera nidāna

(22) Krishna is the Lord of the universe, the maintainer of all living beings and He possesses beautiful hair. He is the deliverer from all misery and the origin of the universe and all incarnations.

māyeśvara yogeśvara brāhma-tejā-dhāra sarvvātmārā ātmā prabhu prakṛtira pāra

(23) He is the Lord of Māyā; the master of mysticism; the proprietor of the spiritual powers of the brāhmaṇas; the Lord, master and soul of all souls, and He is the opposite shore of the ocean of material nature.

patita-pāvana jagannātha sarvveśvara vṛndāvana-chandra sarvva-rasera ākara

(24) Lord Krishna is the purifier of the fallen souls, the Lord of the universe, the Lord of all beings, the moon of Vṛndāvan and the origin of all rasas.

nagare nagare gorā gāy
bhaktivinoda tachu pāy

(25) Lord Chaitanya sings these names of Krishna from village to village, and Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda falls at His lotus feet.

Śrī Hari-vāsara-gīti

by Śrīla Vṛndāvan dās Ṭhākur

śrī hari-vāsare hari-kīrttana-vidhāna nr̄tya ārambhilā prabhu jagatera prāṇa puṇyavanta śrīvāsa-aṅgane śubhārambha uṭhilo kīrttana-dhvani gopāla govinda

(1) Once, on the auspicious day on Ekādaśī, in the house of Śrīvās Pañḍit, Śrīman Mahāprabhu inaugurated congregational nāma saṅkīrttan with great enthusiasm, accompanied by his devotees and associates.

(2) Surging in divine ecstasy, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, the life and soul of the universe, began to dance beautifully. The devotees surrounded Him being deeply touched and inspired by such an ecstatic moment and they also began to dance and sing the Holy Names like Gopāl, Govinda.

mṛdaṅga mandirā bāje śaṅkha karatāla saṅkīrttana soṅge sob hoilo miśāla

(3) The combined sound vibrations of mṛdaṅga, temple bells, karatāla and śaṅkha in harmony with the congregational singing and dancing took everyone to the plane of transcendental delight.

brahmāṇḍe uṭhilo dhvani pūriyā ākāśa chaudikera amaṅgala jāya sob nāśa

(4) The holy vibration of saṅkīrtan filled the sky and spread through the ether all over the cosmic universal existence. Thus the atmosphere in all directions became purified and filled with auspiciousness by that divine sound.

chaturdike śrī hari-maṅgala saṅkīrttana modhye nāche jagannātha miśrera nandana

(5) In all four directions the auspicious chanting of the Lord's name spread and in the centre of that sound vibration the son of Jagannāth Miśra, Śrīman Mahāprabhu danced.

sabāra aṅgete śobhe śrī chandana mālā ānande nāchoye sobe hoiye vibholā ni jānande nāche mahāprabhu viśvambhara charaṇera tāli śuni ati manohara bhāvāveśe mālā nāhi rohoye galāya chiṇḍiyā poḍoye giyā bhakatera gāya

(6-8) Everyone was decorated with fragrant sandal-wood paste and beautiful garlands. The most wonderful rhythmic sound arose from the dancing footsteps of Śrīman Mahāprabhu which captivated the minds of the devotees. As He continued dancing in His own self-born ecstasy, the swinging flower garlands around His neck began to fall, decorating the earth. The devotees beheld before their eyes, this rare and precious heart captivating, ecstatic dance of the supreme tattva, Śrī Gaurāṅga who is the most worshipable object of even the great personalities such as Lord Shiva, Śuka, Nārada and others.

jāra nāmānande śiva vasana nā jāne jāra rase nāche śiva se nāche āpane

(9) Being totally overwhelmed and lost in the transcendental bliss of taking Mahāprabhu's Holy Name, Lord Shiva sometimes does not care for his formal appearance or obligation to retain his clothing, which sometimes falls down while he dances in the ecstasy of loving devotion.

jāra nāme vālmīki hoilo tapodhana jāra nāme ajāmila pāilo mochana

(10) By chanting and meditating upon His Holy Name Śrī Valmīki became a great powerful rishi and Ajāmila attained pure liberation.

jāra nāme śravane samsāra-bandha ghuche heno prabhu avatari kali-juge nāche

(11) As one hears and takes His Holy Name 269 with devotion, embracing its holy potency within the core of their heart, their existence becomes totally purified and they attain deliverance. Such is the Lord, the source of all incarnations, in His dancing form in this age of Kali.

jāra nāma loi śuka nārada beḍāya sahasra-vadana-prabhu jāra guṇa gāya

(12) The pure devotees Śrī Śukadeva and Devarṣi Nārada are always blissfully engaged in relishing the nectar of His Holy Name and distributing it to suitable jīva souls, wherever they travel. Even Anantadeva describes His unlimited glories with thousands of mouths.

sarvva-mahā-prāyaśchitta je prabhura nāma se prabhu nāchaye dekhe jata bhāgyavān

(13) Of all penances, the chanting of the Lord's name is supreme and whoever sees the dancing of the Lord in his form as Śrī Chaitanya is a supremely fortunate soul.

śrī kṛṣṇa-chaitanya nityānanda-chāda jāna vr̥ndāvana dāsa tuchu pada-juge gāna

(14) The two brothers, Śrī Krishna Chaitanya Mahāprabhu and Nityānanda Prabhu are my beloved masters and my life and soul. Thus Vṛndāvan dās sings this song of Their glorification and devotionally offers it at Their lotus feet.

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

śuddha-bhakata-      charaṇa-reṇu, bhajana-anukūla
bhakata-sevā,      parama-siddhi, prema-latikāra mūla

(1) Dust from the lotus feet of pure devotees is conducive to devotional service, while service to the Vaiṣṇavas is itself the supreme perfection and the root of the tender creeper of divine love.

mādhava-tithi,      bhakti-janani, jatane pālana kori
kṛṣṇa-basati,      basati boli', parama ādare bori

(2) I observe with great care the holy days like Ekādaśī and Janmāṣṭamī, for they are the mother of devotion. As my dwelling place I choose with the greatest reverence and love the transcendental abode of Śrī Krishna.

gaura āmāra,      je-saba sthāne, koralo bhramaṇa rāṅge se-saba sthāna,      heribo āmi, praṇayi-bhakata-sāṅge

(3) All those places where my Lord Gaurasundar travelled for Pastimes I will visit in the company of loving devotees.

mṛdaṅga-bādyā,      śunite mon, abasara sadā jāche
gaura-bihita,      kīrttana śuni', ānande hṛdoya nāche

(4) My mind always begs for the opportunity to hear the music of the mṛdaṅga. Upon hearing the kind of kīrttan ordained by Lord Gaurachandra, my heart dances in ecstasy.

jugala-mūrtti,      dekhiyā mora, parama-ānanda hoy prasāda-sevā      korite hoy, sakala prapañcha jay

271

(5) By beholding the Deity forms of the divine couple, Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna, I feel the greatest joy. By honouring the Lord's prasādam I conquer over all worldly illusions.

je-dina gr̥he,      bhajana dekhi, gr̥hete goloka bhāya charaṇa-sīdhu,      dekhiyā gaṅgā, sukha nā sīmā pāya

(6) Goloka Vṛndāvan appears in my home whenever I see the worship and service of Lord Hari going on there. Upon seeing the Ganges, which is a river of nectar emanating from the lotus feet of the Lord, my happiness knows no bounds.

tulasī dekhi',      juḍāya prāṇa, mādhava-toṣaṇī jāni'
gaura-priya,      śāka-sevane, jīvana sārthaka māni

(7) The sight of the holy Tulasī tree soothes my soul, for I know she gives pleasure to Lord Krishna. By honouring śāk [a green leafy vegetable preparation], a dear favourite of Lord Chaitanya, I consider life worthwhile.

bhaktivinoda,      kṛṣṇa-bhajane, anukūla pāya jāhā
prati-divase,      parama-sukhe, svikāra koroye tāhā

(8) Whatever Bhaktivinoda obtains that is conducive for the service of Śrī Krishna, he accepts every day with the greatest of joy.

Verses 89-124 from Śrī Chaitanya Charitāmṛta by Śrīla Kṛṣṇadās Kavirāj Goswāmī

chaudda-śata-sāta-śake māsa je phālgun paurṇamāśira sondhyā-kāle hoile śubha-kṣaṇ

(89) Thus in the year 1407 of the Śaka Era (A.D. 1486), in the month of Phālguna [March-April], on the evening of the full moon, the desired auspicious moment appeared.

simha-rāśi, simha-lagna, ucha graha-gon śada-varga, aṣṭa-varga, sarva sulakṣaṇ

(90) According to the Jyotir-veda, or Vedic astronomy, when the figure of the lion appears both in the zodiac and the time of birth [lagna], this indicates a very high conjunction of planets, an area under the influence of śada-varga and aṣṭa-varga, which are all-auspicious moments.

a-kalaṅka gaurachandra dilā daraśan sa-kalaṅka chandre āro kon prayojan

(91) When the spotless moon of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu became visible, what would be the need for a moon full of black marks on its body?

eto jāni' rāhu koilo chandrera grahaṇ
'kṛṣṇa' 'kṛṣṇa' 'hari' nāme bhāse tri-bhuvan

(92) Considering this, Rāhu, the black planet, covered the full moon, and immediately vibrations of “Krishna! Krishna! Hari!” inundated the three worlds.

jaya jaya dhvani hoilo sakala bhuvan chamatkāra hoiyā lok bhāve mone mon

(93) All people thus chanted the Holy Names during the lunar eclipse, and their minds were struck with wonder.

(94) When the whole world was thus chanting the Holy Names “Hari! Hari!” Krishna in the form of Gaurahari advented Himself on the earth.

prasanna ho-ilo sob jagatera mon ‘hari’ boli’ hinduke hāsyā koroye javan

(95) The whole world was pleased. While the Hindus chanted the Holy Name of the Lord, the non-Hindus, especially the Muslims, jokingly imitated the words.

‘hari’ boli’ nārīgoṇ dei hulāhuli svarge vādyā-nṛtyā kore deva kutūhalī

(96) All the ladies vibrated the Holy Name and chanted “huli huli huli!!!”, while in the heavenly planets dancing and music were going on and the demigods were very curious.

prasanna hoilo doś dik, prasanna nadījol sthāvara-jaṅgama hoilo ānande vihval

(97) In this atmosphere, all the ten directions became jubilant, as did the waves of the rivers. Moreover, all beings, moving and nonmoving, were overwhelmed with transcendental bliss.

nadīyā-udayagiri, pūrṇachandra gaurahari, kṛpā kori’ ho-ilo udoj pāpa-tamahī hoilo nāśa, tri-jagatera ullāsa, jagabhari’ hari-dhvani hoy

(98) By His causeless mercy the full moon, Gaurahari, rose in the district of Nadia, which is compared to Udayagiri, where the sun first becomes visible. His rising in the sky dissipated the darkness of sinful life, and thus the three worlds became joyful and chanted the Holy Name of the Lord.

sei-kāle nijāloya, uṭhiyā advaita rāya

haridāse loyā saṅge,    huṅkāra-kīrttana-raṅge kene nāche, keho nāhi jāne

(99) At that time Śrī Advaita Āchāryya, in His own house at Shantipur, was dancing in a happy mood. Taking Haridās Ṭhākur with Him, they danced and loudly chanted the Holy Names of the Lord. But why they were dancing, no one could understand.

dekhi' uparāga hāsi',    śīghra gaṅgā-ghāṭe āsi' ānande korilo gaṅgā-snāna pāyā uparāga-chole,    āpanāra mano-bole, brāhmaṇere dilo nānā dāna

(100) Seeing the lunar eclipse and laughing, both Advaita Āchāryya and Haridās Ṭhākur immediately went to the bank of the Ganges to bathe in that sacred river in great jubilation. Taking advantage of the occasion of the lunar eclipse, Advaita Āchāryya, in His mind offered various kinds of charity to the brāhmaṇas.

jagata ānandamoy,    dekhi' mone sa-vismoy thāreṭhore kohe haridāsa tomāra aichana raṅga,    mora mon parasanna, dekhi—kichu kārjye āche bhāsa

(101) When he saw that the whole world was jubilant, Haridās Ṭhākur, his mind astonished, directly and indirectly expressed himself to Advaita Āchāryya: “Your dancing and distributing charity are very pleasing to me. I can understand that there is some special purpose in these actions.”

āchāryyaratna, śrīvāsa,    hoilo mone sukhollāsa jāi' snāna koilo gaṅgā-jole ānande vihvala mon,    kore hari-saṅkīrttana nānā dāna koilo mano-bole

(102) Āchāryyaratna and Śrīvās Ṭhākur were overwhelmed with joy, and immediately they also went to the bank of the Ganges to bathe there. Their minds full of happiness, they chanted the Holy Names of Hari and in their minds also meditated and offered charity.

ei mata bhakta-tati,      jāra jei deśe sthiti, tāhā tāhā pāyā mano-bole nāche, kore saṅkīrtana,    ānande vihvala mana, dāna kore grahaṇera chole

(103) In this way all the devotees, wherever they were situated, in every city and every land, danced, performed sankīrtan [the congregational chanting of the Lord's Names], and in their minds offered all benedictions to others, being overwhelmed with joy.

brāhmaṇa-sajjana-nārī, nānā-dravye thālī bhori' jena kāchā-soṇā-dyuti,    dekhi' bālakera mūrtti, āśīrvāda kore sukha pāyā

(104) Many respectful brāhmaṇa gentlemen and ladies, carrying plates filled with various gifts, came with their presentations. Seeing the newborn child, whose form resembled shining gold, all of them with happiness offered their blessings.

sāvitrī, gaurī, sarasvatī, śachī, rambhā, arundhatī, āro jata deva-nārīgoṇ nānā-dravye pātra bhori', brāhmaṇīra veśa dhori', āsi' sobe koren daraśan

(105) Sāvitrī, Gaurī, Śachī, Rambhā, Arundhatī and all the celestial ladies also came there dressed as the wives of brāhmaṇas, and brought with them many varieties of gifts for the child.

antarīkṣe deva-gon, gandharvva, siddha, chāraṇa, stuti-nṛtya kore vādyā-gīta narttaka, vādaka, bhāṭa,    navadvīpe jāra nāṭa, sobe āsi' nāche pāyā prīta

(106) All the inhabitants of the heavenly planets, including the Gandharvvas, Siddhas, the residents of Chāraṇaloka, offered their prayers, sang and danced, accompanied by the sound of musical instruments and the beating of drums. Also, in the holy town of Navadwīp, dancers, musicians, and poets gathered together, and began to celebrate the Lord's appearance.

kebā āse kebā jāya, kebā nāche kebā gāya, sambhālite nāre kāra bolo khaṇḍileka duḥkha-śoka, pramoda-pūrita loka, miśra hoilā ānande vihvala

(107) No one could understand who was coming and who was going, who was dancing and who was singing. Nor could they understand each other's language. But in effect all unhappiness and lamentation were immediately dissipated, and people became joyous. Jagannāth Miśra, the father of Gaurahari, was completely overwhelmed with happiness.

āchāryyaratna, śrīnivāsa, jagannātha-miśra-pāśa, āsi' tāre kore sāvadhāna

tobe miśra kore nānā dāna

(108) Chandraśekhar Āchāryya and Śrīvas Ṭhākur both came to the house of Jagannāth Miśra. They performed the different ceremonies according to religious principles which are prescribed for the birth of a child. Jagannāth Miśra also gave away much wealth in charity.

jautuka pāilo jata,    ghore vā āchilo kata, sob dhon vipre dilo dāna jata narttaka, gāyan,      bhāṭa, akiñchana jon,

(109) Whatever riches Jagannāth Miśra had collected in the form of gifts and presents, and whatever he had in his house, he distributed among the brāhmaṇas, singers, dancers, poets and the poor. He honored them all by giving them riches in charity.

(110) The wife of Śrīvas Thākur, whose name was Mālinī, accompanied by the wife of Chandraśekhar and other ladies, came there in great happiness to worship the baby with such articles as vermillion, turmeric, scented oil, a kind of puffed rice called khoi, bananas and coconuts.

(111) One day shortly after Gaurahari was born, Advaita Āchāryya's wife, Sītā ṭhākurāṇī, who is worshipable by the whole world, at the request of her husband, went to see that topmost child with all kinds of gifts.

(112) She brought different kinds of presents made from gold, such as bracelets, coins, necklaces, ankle ornaments, a conchshell covered with gold, and other kinds of jewellery for the child.

(113) She also brought a locket with a tiger nail set in gold, belts made of silk and lace, silk saris and shawls, as well as silk clothing for the newly born child.

278      durvā, dhānya, gorochana, haridrā, kuṇkuma, chandana, vastra-gupta dolā chadi'    soṅge loyā dāsī chedī, vastrālaṅkāra peṭāri bhoriyā

(114) Riding in a palanquin covered with cloth and accompanied by maidservants, Sītā Thākurāṇī came to the house of Jagannāth Miśra, bringing with her many auspicious articles such as durvā grass, rice paddy, turmeric, kumkum and sandalwood. All these presentations filled a large basket.

bhakṣya, bhojya, upahāra, soṅge loilo bahu bhāra, śachi gr̥he hoilo upanīto dekhiyā bālaka-ṭhām,        sāksāt gokula-kān, varṇa-mātra dekhi vīparīto

(115) When Sītā Thākurāṇī, bringing with her many kinds of food, clothes and other gifts, came to the house of Śachīdevī (the mother of Gaurahari), Sītā Thākurāṇī was astonished to see the newly born child, and she could appreciate that except for a difference in color, the child was directly Lord Krishna of Gokul, Himself.

sarvva aṅga—sunirmāṇa, suvarṇa-pratimā-bhāna, sarva aṅga—sulakṣaṇamoy bālakera divya jyoti,        dekhi' pāilo bahu prīti, vātsalyete dravilo hṛdoy

(116) Seeing the divine effulgence of the child, the well formed different parts of His golden body which were covered with auspicious signs, Sītā Thākurāṇī was very much pleased, and because of maternal affection, she felt as if her heart were melting.

durvā, dhānya, dilo śirṣe,        koilo bahu āśīṣe, chirajīvī hao dui bhāi ḍākinī-sākhinī hoite,        śaṅkā upajilo chite, dore nāma thuilo ‘nimāi’

(117) She blessed the newly born child by placing fresh durva grass and paddy on His head and saying, “May you live long." To protect Him from ghosts and witches, she gave the child the name Nimāi.

279

putramātā-snānadine, dilo vastra vibhūṣaṇe, putra-saha miśrere sammāni'
śachī-miśrera pūjā loyā, monete hariṣa hoyā, ghore āilā sitā ṭhākurāṇī

(118) Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī gave gifts to the mother and child, at the time of His birth and when the child was brought from the residence where He was born back to the home of Jagannāth Miśra. Then Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī, being honoured by mother Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra, returned to her own home in Shantipur.

aiche śachī-jagannāth, putra pāyā lakṣmīnāth, pūrṇa hoilo sakala vāñchito dhon-dhānye bhore ghora, lokamānya kalevara,

(119) In this way, Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra, having obtained a son who was the husband of the goddess of fortune, had all their desires fulfilled. Their house was always filled with riches and grains. As they looked upon the beloved body of the Lord, day after day their happiness increased.

miśra—vaiṣṇava, śānta, alampaṭa, śuddha, dānta, dhon-bhoge nāhi abhimāna putrera prabhāve jata, dhon āsi' mile, tata, viṣṇu-prīte dvije deno dāna

(120) Jagannāth Miśra was an ideal Vaiṣṇava, a devotee of the Lord. He was peaceful, restrained in the enjoyment of his senses, pure and self-controlled. He therefore had no desire to enjoy material opulence. Whatever money that came because of the influence of his divine son, he gave in charity to the brāhmaṇas and for the worship of Lord Vishnu.

lagna goṇi' harṣamati, nīlāmbara chakravartī, gupte kichu kohilo miśrere

280 mahāpuruṣera chihna, lagne aṅge bhinna bhinna, dekhī, — ei tāribē samsāre

(121) After calculating the astrological chart for the child, Gaurahari, Nīlāmbar Chakravartī privately said to Jagannāth Miśra that he saw all the different auspicious symptoms of a great personality in both the body and horoscope of the child. He revealed that in the future this child would deliver the whole universe.

aiche prabhu śachī-ghore, kṛpāy koilo avatāre jei iha koroye śravaṇa gaura-prabhu doyāmoy, tāre hoyena sadoy, sei pāya tāhāra charaṇa

(122) In this way the Lord, out of His causeless mercy, made His advent in the house of Śachīdevī. The Lord, Gaurahari, is very merciful to anyone who hears this narration of His birth, and gives that person the shelter of His lotus feet.

pāiyā mānuṣa janma, je nā śune gaura-guṇa, heno janma tāra vyartha hoilo pāiyā amṛtadhunī, piye viṣa-gartta-pāni janmiyā se kene nāhi moilo

(123) Anyone who attains a human birth but does not have the opportunity to hear of Gaurahari is unfortunate. Instead of drinking nectar from the river of devotional service, if one drinks from the poisoned well of mundane happiness, it would have been better to not have lived at all.

svarūpa-rūpa-raghunātha-dāsa ihā-sabāra śrī-charaṇa, śire vandi nija-dhon,

(124) Taking on my head as my own wealth the lotus feet of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu, Āchāryya Advaitachandra, Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth and all the devotees of Mahāprabhu, I, Krishnadās, sing the glories of the Lord's appearance.

“āma-prati sneha jadi thāke sabākāra

“The Lord said, ‘I have told you this Mahāmantra, so everyone now chant it in proper measure. By doing this, you will attain success in all respects. There is no other rule but to chant it at every moment.’ Whether resting, eating, or waking—day and night think of Krishna and call His Name aloud.”

(Śrī Chaitanya-Bhāgavata Madhya 23.77-78, 28.28)

“After parikramā of the town, Gaurāṅga returns to His house, and Nitāi also comes to the house. Dusting off His body, Śacīmātā takes Gaurāṅga upon her lap. Out of great spiritual joy all the devotees are chanting ‘Hari Hari Bol!’”

Prayer in Separation of Śrīla Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur by Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhara Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

hā hā bhaktivinoda-ṭhakkura! guroḥ!

 śrī-gaura-śaktih svayam (1)

(1) Alas, alas! Oh Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur, Oh Supreme Guru, for twenty-two years this world has been plunged into misfortune, long grief-stricken in your intolerable separation. You are the divine potency of Śrī Gaura, and you graciously made your advent in this earthly plane, being attracted by the living beings' virtuous deeds performed throughout many lifetimes.

(2) Since I am lowly and very wretched, it was not my luck to reach the ocean that bestows the fortune of surrender—the ocean of the ecstasy of bathing in a particle of the dust of your holy lotus feet. Yet due to your magnanimous nature, you gave your grace to the whole universe, personally revealing your supereminence as the personification of the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. (That is, by coming into this world, I received his grace.)

 gātāṁ mukundena tat (3)

(3) Oh Lord, even all the demigods headed by Lord Brahmā feel frustrated by their inability to (fittingly) sing the glories of all your divine qualities. What, then, can be said of the attempt of a fallen soul, a mere human like me? Surely, the learned will never waste their eloquent words eulogising this statement, since even the Supreme Personality of Godhead, Lord Śrī Krishna Himself, has sung in the Scriptures His celebrated confession na pāraye ’ham—‘I am unable (to reciprocate your devotion).’

 duṣṭāpachāro yadā buddhim buddhi-matāṁ vibheda hi tadā dhātrā bhavān presitah (4)

(4) At a time when religion was evaluated in terms of bodily relationship, saintliness was determined by ignorance, and yoga practice was motivated by sensual pleasure; when scholarship was cultivated just for voidism, japa was conducted for the sake of fame, and penance was performed out of vindictiveness; when charity was given out of pride, and on the pretext of spontaneous devotion the most gross, sinful acts were perpetrated—and in all such anomalous situations even the intelligentsia were at loggerheads with one another... at that very time, you were sent by the Almighty Creator.

(5) As the universally cooling moon is beautified by diffusing its nectarean rays, nourishing the plants and inciting the twinkling of the stars, your Holy Advent in this world is similarly ascertained as satisfying the pure devotional Scriptures (through profound study) and blessing the learned with full-blown happiness (by the perfect axiomatic conclusions descending in Divine Succession). With your appearance, the ecstasy of the devotees knows no bounds.

(6) By writing many books and by multifarious methods recognised by the pure devotees, you have demonstrated the preaching of pure devotional service unto the Supreme Lord, for the benefit of the whole world. We have heard of similar achievements in previous times by stalwart scholars such as Śrī Rāmānuja and many other Āchāryyas; but the glory of you—the very embodiment of the nectar of divine love—does not end (cannot be confined) here.

(7) Merely the effulgence of His divine abode has been designated by the title ‘Brahman’ in the Vedas, and only the expansion of an expansion of His expansion is sought after with great tribulation by the foremost yogīs. The most exalted of the liberated souls shine resplendent as the bumblebees at His lotus feet. The Primeval Origin of even the Original Śrī Nārāyaṇa who is the Lord of the spiritual sky above Brahman: He is the Original Supreme Lord, the personification of all nectarean mellows—Śrī Krishna—and He is the one that you give.

(8) Situated in the topmost region of the absolutely inconceivable spiritual sky is the holy abode of Śrī Vṛṇḍāvan Dhām, in the spiritual planet known as Goloka. There, surrounded by Sakhīs, Śrīmatī Rādhikā revels in the mellows of divine Pastimes. With great ecstasy, She expands the joy of loving sweetness in the service of Śrī Krishnachandra, who is otherwise served in four relationships up to parenthood. You, Oh Thākur Bhaktivinod, can give us the service of that holy Dhām.

(9) The internal purport is known to Śrī Svarūp Dāmodar by the sanction of Śrī Gaurachandra, of that which is adored by Śrī Sanātan Goswāmī and distributed by the preceptors realised in transcendental mellites, headed by Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī; that which is tasted and enhanced by Śrī Raghunāth Dās Goswāmī and followers and carefully protected by the votaries headed by Śrī Jīva Prabhu; and that which (from a respectful distance) is venerated by great personalities such as Śrī Śuka, Lord Śiva, the chief of the demigods, and Lord Brahmā, the grandfather of all beings—Oh wonder of wonders! the nectarean rapture of servitude unto Śrī Rādhikā—that, too, you can give us.

(10) Where am I, so lowly and fallen, and where are you, the great soul who delivers the universe! Oh Lord, by your grace, you are sure to forgive my offences. Oh ocean of mercy, in the dust of your lotus feet I pray for just this benediction: kindly make my life successful by recommending me for admission into the group of Śrī Vārṣabhāṇavī Dayita Dās, who is the dearmost one in your heart.

Translator's Note: The preceding prayer to Śrīla Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur (1838-1914), the pioneer of pure devotion in the recent age, was composed within the lifetime of the author's Guru, Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākur Goswāmī Prabhupād. Upon reading the original Sanskrit verse, Śrīla Prabhupād commented, "Now I am confident that we have one man who is qualified to uphold the standard of our Sampradāya (Divine Succession)."

Homage unto Śrīmad Gaura Kiśora Bābājī Mahārāj
by Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhār Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

guror guro me paramo gurus tvam

namo namo gaura-kiśora tubhyam (1)

(1) Oh Divine Master of my Divine Master, my most venerable preceptor, you are supremely worshippable in the group of the foremost associates of Śrī Gaurāṅga. May you be gracious upon this servitor surrendered unto your loving servitor (Dayita Dās). Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

sarasvatī-nāma-jagat-prasiddham

(2) Oh worshipful one, you alone revealed my Lord and Master, who is renowned throughout the universe as Śrī Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī, and who is the only friend of the fallen souls of the world. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

(3) Living in solitude at Vraja Dhām, your heart was absorbed in the most secret Pastimes of the Divine Youthful Couple of Vraja, whilst externally you maintained the strictures of a renunciate; and sometimes you appeared to transcend all recognised strictures. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

(4) Sometimes you roam about the edge of Gauravana (the boundary of Śrī Nabadvīp Dhām), wandering along the beach near the banks of the Gaṅgā. Oh Gaura Kiśora, who dons the holy loin-cloth and carries the mendicant's water-pot, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

sadā harer nāma mudā raṭantam grhe grhe mādhukarīm aṭantam namanti devā api yam mahāntam
namo namo gaura-kiśora tubhyam (5)

(5) Ever singing the Holy Name of Śrī Hari with great ecstasy and accepting alms from house to house like a bee collecting honey from flower to flower, you are the great soul unto whom even the demigods bow to. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Prayer unto Śrīla Sarasvatī Ṭhākur after his manifest Pastimes

(1) At the end of the night of Śrī Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandī, She suddenly took him to Her entourage, withdrawing him from the company of throngs of griefstricken souls. A great cry of lamentation arose, their bodies were bathed by their tears. When he was thus stolen away, this world was plunged into the deep darkness of one whose eyes have been stolen away (hṛta—stolen away; nayana-maṇī—jewel of the eye—the internal name of Sarasvatī Ṭhākur is ‘Nayana-maṇī’).

(Bereft of the vision of my Divine Master,) Oh my sorrowful eyes (dīna-nayana), (or, Oh saviour of the fallen [Dīna-nayana],) wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there! (Although he is my Master named ‘Nayana,’ or ‘one who brings us near,’ in his mercy he shows the miserliness of not taking me unto his company.)

(2) From his lotus feet, the nectarean river of divine love flows throughout the universe; his servitors, like bees, maintain their lives drinking the honey that falls from his lotus feet; and the pure devotees in the shelter of the confidential mellows of Vraja revel in the bliss of singing the glories of his lotus feet: Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

(3) Parental affection, so highly esteemed in the world, is a colossal hoax (as an obstacle to Hari-bhakti); socially recognised pure matrimonial love is nothing but dacoity (in that it plunders away both the husband's and the wife's eagerness for the chance to acquire the treasure of love unadulterated by the superficiality of familial prejudice); and common friendship is merely deception: I have gleaned these thoughts from the rays of light that emanate from the toenails of the holy feet of that great personality, the embodiment of supramundane affection. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

(4) The divine message sung by Śrī Krishna Chaitanya-chandra had its continuous play in the ears of the people. From the ear, did he, just to fulfil the purport of the name

292 ‘Nayana-maṇi,’ reveal his form to the eye, making his advent in the mansion (temple) favoured by the glance of Śrī Nīlāchalachandra (at the time of the Rathayātrā festival)? Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul (Mahāpuruṣa) may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

(5) Drawing up the pure golden waters of the Jambu River mentioned in Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, has this golden cloud arisen on the mountain where the golden moon (Śrī Gaurachandra) descended (set), just to shower down torrents of rain upon the whole countryside that was scorched by the forest fire (of threefold sufferings), then suddenly conceal himself in the dust of the land of the Advent of Śrī Gaurāṅga? Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that Great Master may be now, please quickly take this servitor to that place.

(6) He is of the same hue as Śrī Gaura, and although he, who sings the tidings of Śrī Gaura, is the (natural) Guru of the whole universe, he accepted discipleship to a great devotee called Śrī Gaura Kiṣora ('adolescent Gaura'). In the whole Gaura-maṇḍala he is the repository of the glory of those who grant entrance into the fold of the pure Gaudīya Vaiṣṇavas. He proudly ascended the lofty throne of preaching the glories of the gift of the Golden Lord Śrī Gaura (the service of Śrī Rādhā-Govinda in Vraja) to the Vaiṣṇavas of Draviḍa (the devotees in South India, who are generally worshippers of Lakṣmī-Nārāyaṇa). The glory of his dignity shines even in the group of Śrī Gāndharvā, and he holds a pre-eminent position in the intimate circle of Śrī Giridhārī, that is, he is the most beloved of Lord Mukunda. Oh Dīna-nayana, where that great soul is now, please swiftly take this servitor there.

(7) He inundated the whole universe of countless living beings—whether brāhmaṇa, kṣatriya, vaiśya, śūdra, less than śūdra, and even mlechchha—with the oceanic nectar of the Holy Name of Śrī Rādhā-Krishna. Although unapproachable by the liberationists and yogic perfectionists, he is known as the friend of the fallen, the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

(8) Do I have a hope to ever see that beautiful golden personality who makes everything auspicious for the world? Do I have a hope to ever behold that tall figure once again, his blue lotus eyes, his nose that excels the charm of the Tila flower, his forehead that shames the half-moon, his grace-

Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, quickly take this servitor there to him.

(10) The entire earth and skies were filled with the cries of anguish of the people, and of the disciples devoted to the service of Śrī Gurudeva's lotus feet. Where has that Great Master gone? Alas! today the whole universe seems empty, in the separation of Prabhupād. The servitor of Gurudeva cannot endure even a moment of his separation. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there to him.

(1) Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī is the mine of the most precious treasure, the leader of the associates of Lord Chaitanya (the Divine Succession being known as the Rūpānuga Sampradāya, ‘the followers of Śrī Rūpa’). In the company of his brothers, he was resplendent in (the province of) Gauḍa, causing the fervent twin bumblebees in the form of the lotus eyes of Śrī Chaitanyadev to drink nectar, as the Lord’s lotus feet moved on the pretext of visiting Vṛndāvan. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy feet?

(2) At Śrī Rāmakeli Dhām, the king of bees—the heart of Śrī Rūpa—became intoxicated drinking the honey-wine of the lotus feet of Śrī Gaurachandra, and sacrificed its life (in Hari-kīrtan) for the benefit of all the people of the world, summarily abandoning a life of kingly opulence. After in-

296 forming his elder brother Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother Śrī Vallabha followed the footsteps of Śrī Chaitanyadev, whose heart was absorbed in going (from Nīlāchala) to Śrī Vṛndāvan. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

(3) Śrī Chaitanyadev returned from Vṛndāvan to Prayāga Dhām and performed Nāma-saṅkīrttan, surrounded by crowds of hundreds of thousands. Intoxicated with divine love, dancing, He melted the hearts of hundreds of faithful souls with His astonishing transcendental ecstasies. Śrī Rūpa, as though regaining his most precious treasure, thus found Śrī Chaitanyadev in the direct presence of the Deity Śrī Bindu Mādhava. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

(4) At the sacred spot on the confluence of the Gaṅgā and the Yamunā, Śrī Rūpa achieved intimate union with the lotus feet of the dearmost Lord of his life—the Lord who is Krishna within and Gaura without. In grave humility, with straw in mouth and with tears of sorrow, he along with his younger brother worshipped Śrī Gaura-Krishna in intense love. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his 297 holy lotus feet?

(5) Śrī Chaitanyadev saw Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother rolling on the ground some distance away. Seeing His endeared one, His favourite, His love divine personified in natural beauty and charm, His exclusive alter ego in divine Pastimes, the Lord swiftly approached Śrī Rūpa, profusely singing his glories, and embraced him in ecstasy. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

(6) Śrī Gaurahari knew that (as an eternal associate of the Lord) Śrī Rūpa was already proficient in wandering throughout the ambrosial ocean of all mellows, in the land of unalloyed love (in Braja-rasa). Nonetheless, to expand His own Pastimes, the Lord enabled him to drink the sweet ecstasy of servitude unto Śrī Rādhā, and empowered him with the skill to distribute the nectar of His personal devotional service. When will that Śrimad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

(7) When on the order of Śrī Gaurāṅga, Śrī Rūpa visited Śrī Puruṣottama Kṣetra after completing the circumambulation of Śrī Vraja Maṇḍala, He highly gratified Śrī Chaitanya-dev and the sagacious devotee assembly headed by Śrī Svarūp Dāmodar and Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya by his ambrosial poetry on the Pastimes of the Divine Couple of Vraja. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

(8) When the manifest līlā of the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanya-dev was withdrawn, all beings including the immobile entities were mortified, deeply afflicted in sorrow. Śrī Rūpa and his elder brother were the only shelter for even the intimate devotees of the Lord, headed by Raghunāth, Gopal Bhaṭṭa, and Śrī Jīva, who had almost lost their lives in the Lord's separation. (9) By writing many, many books, he gave the world all the most cherished desires of his worshipful Lord Śrī Chaitanyadev, principally—revealing the service of the Deity, establishing the pure code of conduct in devotion, revealing the lost holy places, and revealing the path of spontaneous devotion (Rāga-mārga) in transcendental loving service to Śrī Rādhā-Govinda. When will that Śrimad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

(10) Just prior to the withdrawal of his manifest līlā, my causelessly merciful Divine Master, Śrīla Sarasvatī Ṭhākur, handed me over to the holy feet of that Divine Personality by having me sing the glorious prayer unto his lotus feet (Śrī Rūpa-mañjarī-pada). Despite my lowliness, when will—disregarding all my various qualifications and disqualifications—Śrimad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

 12 Prayers revealing the ontological position, and Pastimes of Lord Nityananda.

(1) Lord Nityānanda's representation as Ananta Śeṣa possesses unlimited mouths which propagate and glorify Lord Hari's Holy Names and attributes. Ananta Śeṣa constantly holds the weight of the Earth planet upon His innumerable hoods as if it were an insignificant particle of dust. Ananta Śeṣa serves the Lord in several ways, manifesting Himself as the Lord's personal umbrella, resting place, and clothing. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(2) Lord Nityānanda's partial manifestation as Kṣīrodakaśayī Viṣṇu functions as the preservation principle of the entire universal creation, and is localized within every soul (Paramātma). Another eminent expansion of Lord Nityānanda is Garbhodaśayī Viṣṇu, that all-imposing figure whose thousands of heads are eulogized in the Vedic orations. Lord Nityānanda's presence is further extended in His expansion as Kāraṇodaśayī Viṣṇu, the supplying principle encompassing unlimited universes. Lord Nityānanda is the master of the Lord of material nature, Kāraṇodaśayī Viṣṇu, who is the shelter of all living entities. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(3) Lord Nityānanda's presence is further extended within the spiritual abode of Vaikuṇṭha in His partial manifestation known as Saṅkarṣaṇa. In Vaikuṇṭha, Lord Saṅkarṣaṇa performs spiritual Pastimes which are fully transcendental, situated in pure goodness, and all-pleasing to Lord Hari. As mentioned in the revealed scriptures, Lord Nityānanda is the individual temperament of ego existing within the living entity, and He sometimes appears just like an ordinary living entity. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(4) Lord Nityānanda who is the fountainhead of the primary Saṅkarṣaṇa, exists in full splendour separate from the original quadruple expansion, and is known as Mūla Saṅkarṣaṇa. That all-attractive personality, Śrī Saṅkarṣaṇa., performs His wonderful Pastimes in the spiritual realm in the regions known as Mathurā and Dvārakā. The transcendental city of Dvārakā is situated just below the city of Mathurā. It is in these spiritual places that Lord Saṅkarṣaṇa and His associates Anirudhha and Pradyumna exhibit Their particular Pastimes scripturally known as prabhāva-vilāsaḥ. Nityānanda Prabhu in the form of Lord Balarāma is the ultimate source of all incarnations, and sportively plays in the charming village of Vrajapura with His younger brother Lord Krishna. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(5) Pure unalloyed love for Lord Krishna, which is inconceivable to all, embodies the most supreme and intense happiness. When the devotees of the Lord realize the joy of such love, they caste away the innumerable doctrines offered by the Vedas, including the soul's emancipation. Lord Nityānanda openly bestows pure love, automatically including worship of the non-differentiated Brahman and service offered in Vaikuṇṭha, which is dominated by opulence and grandeur. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(6) When Nityānanda Prabhu was a small boy, He performed sweet and charming Pastimes in the village of Ekachakra. His Pastimes invoked the deepest heartfelt happiness in His mother, father, relatives, and close friends. Once, a renunciate arrived at the house of Nityānanda and prayed to the boy's father for his son. Lord Nityānanda was placed in the hands of the renunciate and left to visit the holy places of pilgrimage, wandering throughout the length and breadth of India. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(7) Nityānanda travelled from place to place with the crest jewel of the renounced order, Śrī Mādhavendra Puri. In the pure association of Mādhavendra Puri, Lord Nityānanda experienced the most joyful symptoms of ecstasy. After this, the Lord journeyed to Nabadwīp, where He eagerly waited for Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu to reveal His benevolent nature to the world. Shortly following Nityānanda's arrival, Lord Chaitanyaadeva Himself, in the company of Śrīnivās Pañdit and Haridās Thākur, went to the house of Śrī Nandanāchāryya 304 and found Nitāī there. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(8) Nityānanda Prabhu was ordered by the golden moon, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, to deliver the masses by the wide distribution of Lord Krishna's Holy Names. One evening, Lord Nityānanda encountered those two drunken and sinful brothers, Jagāi and Mādhāi, who were previously brahma-daitya demons of the first order, acting under the devastating spell of Kali-yuga. Suddenly, Nitāī was attacked by Mādhāi, whereupon His body became smeared with blood. In response, Lord Nitāī exhibited deep affection for the welfare of the two brothers and rescued them from their abominable condition. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(9) Lord Gaurāṅga instructed His family members and followers to wear pieces of Lord Nityānanda's kaupīna respectfully on their bodies. So pure and impeccable is the character of Nitāi that even if He is seen holding the hand of a Yavana's wife and carrying a bottle of wine, nonetheless He remains supremely worshippable by the great demigods such as Lord Brahmā. Lord Nityānanda is also the desirable object of those exalted devotees who can steal away the heart of the Lord. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(10) Accepting the renounced order of life and distributing the Lord's Holy Names, Lord Gaurāṅga chased after those souls who had been spoiled by the doctrines of dry argumentative logic and motivated fruitive activity. Like Lord Gaurāṅga's own shadow, Nitāi Prabhu accompanied the Lord over land and through rivers, waterways, and jungles. In addition, Lord Nityānanda is the desired goal of all Gaurāṅga's endeavours. Let us eternally worship that grand personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who can freely grant the association of that golden Lord Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(11) Day and night Lord Chaitanya was intoxicated with the 306 intense desire to taste the sweetness of Śrī Rādhikā's divine love for Krishna. Śrīman Mahāprabhu instructed Lord Nityānanda and His associates to go out and profusely distribute the Holy Names of Lord Krishna. However, Lord Nityānanda instead plentifully distributed Lord Gaurāṅga's Name, the most precious fortune available to the living entities, with no impediment at all. Let us worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

(12) O Nityānanda Prabhu, emperor amidst the personal associates of Śrīman Mahāprabhu! Kindly grant this fallen soul deep and resolute faith in that pure and divine figure of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Lord Gaurāṅga's personality exclusively embodies the sweet nectar relished deep within the devotional mellows of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna's Pastimes. But if Your lotus feet are over-looked, than all so-called devotional orations and prayers meant for the highest worship become false, like a dream. I worship You, that great personality Nityānanda-chandra, who openly bestows shelter to the most fallen souls, freely granting the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva.

- vāñchā-kalpatarubhyas’ cha (14)
- sakala vaiṣṇava pada (18)

The devotees offer obeisances to Śrīla Guru Mahārāj at his Samādhi Mandir; the Deities; Śrīmatī Gaṅgadevī and to Śrī Āchāryyadeva Śrīla Govinda Dev-Goswāmī.

The mantra for paying obeisances to the Holy River Gaṅgadevī is:

sadya pātaka saṁhantri sadya duḥkha vināśinī<sup>1</sup> sukhadā bhaktidā gaṅgā gaṅgeva paramāgati

Morning Kirttan:

Recitation of the Vandanā Prayers (7)

Followed by the songs:

- jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala (36)
- saṁsāra-dāvānala-līḍha-loka (49)
- śrī-kṛṣṇa-chaitanya-prabhu jīve doyā kori' (51)
- bhaja re bhaja re āmār mana ati manda (52)
- ṭhākura vaisnava-gaṇa (134)

After the bhajans is a reading from Śrī Chaitanya-bhāgavata in Bengali.

Closing with the song:

- hari haraye namah kṛṣṇa jādavāya namah (56)

Daily after morning Prasādam is a class in English (or Spanish, etc.) held on Śrīla Guru Mahārāj's Samādhi Mandir.

Midday Ārati and Kirttan:

commences with the offering of bhoga while singing:

- bhaja bhakata-vatsala śrī-gaurahari (58)

Followed by Śrīla Guru Mahārāj's ārati at his Samādhi Mandir:

- jaya 'guru-mahārāja' yati rājeśvara (39)

Then ārati of the Deities:

- jaśomati-nandana braja-baro nāgara (43)
- jay śachīnandana sura-muni-vandana (44)

Before honouring Prasādam the devotees chant (except on Ekādaśī days and other days when no grains are taken):

- mahāprasāde govinde (62)
- bhai re! śorīra abidyā-jal (62)

In the afternoon there is a reading from Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam in Bengali.

Evening Ārati:

Ārati of Śrī Gaṅgadhara Sadāśiva

- (ohe) vaiṣṇava ṭhākura (74)

Ārati of Śrī Gupta-Govardhan:

- jaya jaya girirājer ārati viśāla (32)

Śrīla Guru Mahārāj’s ārati at his Samādhi Mandir

- jaya ‘guru-mahārāja’ yati rājeśvara (39)

Followed by ārati of Śrī-Śrī Guru-Gaurāṅga-Gāndhar-vā-Govindasundarjīu

- (kiba) jaya jaya gaurāchander ārotiko śobhā (63)

- jayare jayare jaya gaura-sarasvatī (65)

Then parikramā of both Temples:

- kobe śrī chaitanya more (68)

Obeisances to Śrīmatī Tulasī Devī:

- vṛṇdayai tulasī-devyai (18)

and her parikramā:

- namo namaḥ tulasī mahārāṇī (69)

After again offering obeisances to Tulasī Devī, the devotees offer their obeisances to the Vaiṣṇavas:

- vāñchā-kalpatarubhyas’ cha (14)

- sakala vaiṣṇava pada (18)

Again the devotees offer obeisances to Śrīla Guru Mahārāj at his Samādhi Mandir; the Deities; Śrīmatī Gaṅgadevī and to Śrī Āchāryyadeva Śrīla Govinda Dev-Goswāmī.

Evening Kīrttan:

Recitation of the Vandanā Prayers (7)

Followed by the songs:

- jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala (36)

- śrī guru charaṇa-padma (70)

- śrī-kṛṣṇa-chaitanya prabhu doyā koro more (72)

- (ohe) vaiṣṇava ṭhākura (74)

then a selection of other songs followed by

- sujanārvuda-rādhita-pāda-yugam (76)

Then 10 verses of Śrī Śrī Prema Dhāma Deva Stotram (80) beginning with verse 1 on Saturday, verse 11 on Sunday etc.

Followed by a reading from Śrī Chaitanya-charitāmṛta in Bengali.

Then the kīrttan:

- hari haraye namah krṣṇa jādavāya namah (56)

Kīrttan on Special days:

During the month of Kārttika, additional kīrttans are sung.

The following are added to the morning kīrttans:

- nadīyā-nagare nitāi neche neche gāy re (243)
- nagare nagare gorā gāy (248)
- namāmīśvaram sach-chid-ānanda rūpam (240)
- rādhe jaya jaya mādhava-dayite (209)

And added to the evening kīrttans:

Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur's Śikṣāṣṭakam beginning with:

- pīta-barāṇa kali-pāvana gorā (184)

On the appearance day of a senior Vaiṣṇava the following kīrttan is sung morning and evening:

- krṣṇa hoite chatur-mukha (224)

On the disappearance day of a senior Vaiṣṇava the following kīrttan is sung morning and evening:

- ei-bāro koruṇā koro vaiṣṇava-gosāi (138)

and for Mahāprabhu's associates:

- je ānilo prema-dhana koruṇā prachura (137)

On the appearance day of Śrī Chaitanya the following songs are sung along with full program:

- aruṇa basane sonara sūraja (139)
- chaudda-śata sāta śāke (268)
